

HORSE NOTES

Breed better.
Now, for Mystic.
Lexington is in full blast.
Alvin has been sent home.
Developed sires lead this year.
Vic H., 2.13½, brought $2,500.
Nutwood has over 100 in the list.
Hulda is getting better rapidly.
Black Nightingale is turned out.
Nelson has a badly wrenched foot.
Fall River opens a meeting Oct. 24.
Haverhill and Worcester clash this week.
Nelson has put thirteen new ones in the list.
Mordica 2.26½ is full sister to Grenadier 2.28.
Tammany is the champion of the American turf.
A man must own a horse about right these days.
Tom Utton starts B. F. Solon of Worcester next week.
Haroldson, by Prescott, has reduced his record to 2.25½.
Cold weather chills the ardor of northern turfites.
The racing season of 1893 is about over in New England.
Flying Jib paced a heat in a race in 2.04½ at Sedalia, Mo.
Bonnie McGregor, 2.13½, has been sent to Carthage, Me.
The New England Breeders' meeting was a financial success.
Bellini reduced his record to 2.13½ at Baltimore last week.
May Marshall, 2.09, holds the fastest pacing mark for a mare.
Lacy Lee, 2.20, is the fourth Alcantara to beat 2.30 this year.
Ever since Edgardo, 2.13½, was a two-year old he has been lame.
Ryland T. succeeded in winning the free-for-all, at Kansas City.
A match between Arion and Directum would arouse excitement.
Over 175 trotters have records of 1.15 or better and close to 2.40 pacers.
Galen Prince, 2.19, cut the track record at Woodstock, Vt., to 2.26.
Linden 2.17 won the blue ribbon in the show ring at the Brattleboro Fair.
Bicara, by Harold, has six in the 2.30 list and three of her sons have sired 2.30 speed.
A horse with a record up to his limit, is a poor piece of property to take to the races.
Arion is liable to wear the stallion crown. He has shown as much speed as Directum.
The prize list for the Madison Square Garden Horse Show, Nov. 13-18, is over $30,000.
St. Johnsbury (Vt.) citizens have started a driving club and will hold a meeting this week.
Gossiper, by Simmons, who the 2.30 trot at Stockton, Cal., recently in 2.17½, 2.17½, 2.18½.
No pacing stallion, living or dead, has sired as great a ratio of extreme speed as Brown Hal, 2.12½.
New Hampshire's fastest trotter, Edith H. trotted a middle half at Portland last week in 1.04.
Pamlico won the 2.12 trot at Lexington, Ky., on Saturday last, putting in his third mile in 2.11½.
Alcantara leads all sires of 1893 with fourteen new 2.30 performers and Nelson ranks second with thirteen.
A 1 horses command good prices. Ordinary horses are as thick as autumn leaves and about as cheap.
Don't get scared and sell for a song if you have a good one just because your neighbor sold a poor one low.
The Northwestern Breeders' association is credited with clearing nearly $25,000 during the recent meeting.
Henry C. Jewett will sell Jerome Eddy and nearly his entire stud at auction in New York next month.
C. M. DeGarmendia put a record of 2.19½ upon his King Wilkes stallion, Monocracy, at Baltimore last Saturday.
Max beat Pascal in a match trotting race of $1,000 a side, two mile heats, at Fleetwood park a week ago Monday; time 4.66½, 4.50½.
Dr. J. H. Carmichael of Springfield, Mass. is going out of the horse business and offers his string of performers for sale.
Perial had a walk over in the yearling match-race made at the New England Breeders' meeting. He finished the mile in 2.45.
William Penn by Santa Claus took a record of 2.13 last Friday at Baltimore, the fastest mile trotted by a three-year-old this season.
Gordon Sim 2.20½ was named after the nom de plume of the gifted turf writer, Charles J. Foster editor of Hiram Woodruff's book.
Graham & Conley of Boston bought Electricity 2.18½ by Electioneer, dam by Pilot Jr., at the Lexington sales Monday price $2,900.
Ham Brock has Martha Wilkes. If he succeeds as well with her as he did with Gil Curry the ex queen may race again in fast company.

Brunhilde (4) by Viking, dam by Mambri Wilkes, who has been timed in a race in 2.19½ will be a hard mare to beat in her class next season.
Exercising patience is necessary in exercising a horse. Make haste slowly and than there is little danger of over-riding the education or training.
C. C. K. was awarded first premium in the class for gentlemen's driving horses at the New England Fair and Arthur Wilkes 2.19 second premium.
Lexington's new track is fast. The opening day of the meeting now in progress. May Marshall paced a mile in 2.09 and Pamlico trotted one in 2.11½.
Woodbrino and Mambri Wilkes have each added three to the list this season. The latter has added two producing dams and one producing son.
It costs no more to keep a low-priced, sound, young horse than one worth many hundreds, but it does cost more to keep a cheap unsound horse than any other.
Hon. Warren F. Daniell has a colt out of Edith H., 2.15½, by his Princeps stallion Kentucky. He will probably breed her to Much Ado (4), 2.20½, next spring.
Hulda's lameness was caused by straining a couple of small tendons in her fetlock. She knuckled over and pulled up lame. Look for her and a faster mark in 1894.
The supplanting of horse railroads by electric roads has raised the dickens with the market for common using horses and the result is that they can be bought at most any price.
The papers are parading the amounts which the big trainers have won this season, but the public would like to see a summary of the expenses before forming conclusions.
The leading living sires, with this year's additions, now stands as follows; Nutwood, 100; Red Wilkes, 81; Onward, 71; Alcantara, 61; Egbert, 58; Robert McGregor, 49, and Strathmore, 49.
A great mistake that most breeders have made is that they have bred and raised more horses than they could attend to or properly take care of. One good horse is worth two poor ones any time.
Marvelous, 2.26, is the third Woodbrino to beat 2.30 this season. He is owned by C. W. Baker of Sheridan, Md. and was out of the broodmare Aetna by Belmont, formerly owned by B. D. Whitcomb, the owner of Woodbrino.
The fast pacing mare, Cassie, by Tennessee Wilkes, met with a peculiar accident at Sedalia, Mo., recently. She was speeding on the track at 2.30 gait when she broke her right hind foot and entirely severed a tendon. She is ruined for racing purposes.
Up to the close of last week, Geers led all of the teamsters as a winner in 1893, the gross winnings of horses driven by him amounted to $33,900 Goldsmith stands second with $33,240, McHenry third with $29,875, and John Dickerson fourth with $28,500.
The race won by Oro Wilkes at Lexington, Ky., on Monday, was the greatest three-year-old race ever trotted in America and the purse taken down by the California colt was the most money ever won in one race by a three-year-old. It footed up $9,950.
Thetis, 2.16½, by Mambri Wilkes, who heads the list of competitors for the Mirror and Farmer prize bicycle sulky, opened the season with a record of 2.13½. She is the fastest performer, trotter or pacer, ever bred in New Hampshire, and the greatest race mare.
There are two things to be obtained from breeding to a poor stallion, says the American trotter, one is an inferior colt, and the other is experience. The first no one wants and the latter no one wants to pay for. So it is wise to shape your course so that you will not obtain either—in this way.
Paid judges are the only ones that are wanted on trotting tracks when important events are being decided, says the American Sportsman. When they make blunders they can be turned down, but when a man floats in on friendship, or any other craft, it is a hard matter to make a change.
Ex-Gov. Hiram A. Tuttle of Pittsfield is the owner of a five-year-old son of Mambri Wilkes that took a pacing record of 2.31½ in second race and if the watches in the stand had been a trifle slow, would have entered the list. He was offered for sale last spring for $150 and can go in 2.25 now over a good mile track.
Matterhorn, by Nutwood, won the free-for-all at Fair Haven, Vt., taking a pacing record of 2.19½ in the third heat, distancing Orange Bud, Frank Burgess and School Boy. Ruth Wilkes was second. He also won the 2.40 pace at the same meeting, the fastest beat being in 2.25 with Elmer E. second. His colt, Greenhorn, took a two-year-old race record at the meeting of 2.40.
It has been suggested that the breeders of the western counties in Maine unite with those of New Hampshire, and locate at Dover, N. H. Why not include the whole of Maine, and locate at Rigby Park, the best trotting track in the world? The suggestion is a good one, Friend Parlin, and worthy of consideration. With Maine and New Hampshire united a breeders' meeting might be held that would rank with the very best.
It is a good time to buy, but a bad season to sell, remarked a trotting horseman on his way to the sales at Lexington last week. He considers that so many small breeders will be induced to buy animals of approved breeding, form and speed prospects, that in course of a year or two speed will spring up in every quarter for track and road purposes. The trotting turf is in a healthy condition, and every state should encourage breeders to raise fresh material to supply its stake and purse demands.

JINGLES OF HUMOR.

A Little Nonsense Gathered for Leisure Reading.

No, Constant Reader, you cannot properly call the bicycle editor a wheel writer.

It isn't the things a man can do that he is proudest of it's the things he thinks he can do.

The only way some people ever prepare for a rainy day is by stealing an umbrella.

The only way to prevent what's past, said Mrs. Muldoon, is to put a stop to it before it happens.

Nobody, perhaps, has so many gentlemen callers as the telephone girl, and yet she doesn't boast.

Reversed Precedence—Are they husband and wife?
No; wife and husband.

The dates on some of the rare old books offered for sale in Paris show that they were issued before the invention of printing.

Which would you rather be, a knave or a fool? asked Idioticus.

I don't know, replied Cynicus. What has been your experience?

It is hard on a young man to spend three months deciding which of two girls he will choose for his wife, and then to find out when he proposes that neither of them will have him.

The other day Tommy's mother had occasion to whip him. He kept up his crying so long that his mother, quite provoked, asked him when he was going to stop.

As soon as the sting gets out of me, replied Tommy.

An Arithmetical Discovery.

'Rithmetic's queer stuff, said Bobbie. If you put two twos on top of each other they make four, but when you add 'em together on the same line they make 22.

Amusing the Baby.

Tommy, said his mother, can't you amuse your baby brother for a while?

Yes! answered Tommy, if you'll hold him up at the window I'll get the boys to come and play in front of the house.

A Cause for Wee.

Clarence—The little kangaroo must be very unhappy mamma.
Mamma—Why do you think so, Clarence?
Clarence—Why because they have pockets, but no tops or jack-knives to put in them.

A Plea.

Will some good person kindly tell Why I forget no play,
While lessons that I've studied well Fade right at once away?

Correct Pansing.

What part of speech is kiss? asked a teacher at Vassar College.

A conjunction, replied one of the smart girls.

Wrong said the teacher severely; next girl.

A noun, put in a demure maiden.

What kind of a noun? continued the preceptor.

Well—er—it is both common and proper, answered the shy girl, and she was promoted to the head of her class.—Vogue.

Almost Too Violent.

Doctor—Has Mrs. Huntgold taken brisk exercise out in the mountains as I directed?

Mr. Huntgold—Well, I should say so; she's found husbands for both the girls.

Disgraced.

Ethel—What shall we send Beatrice for a wedding present, mamma?
Mamma—Is it a marriage for love?
Ethel—Yes.
Mamma—Oh, anything will do, then.—The Clube.

Quite Different.

Did he marry a girl he didn't know much about?
Oh, no; a girl who didn't know much about him.

Hard Luck.

Mrs. Lakeside—This financial panic is awful.
Mrs. Tabash—Yes, I am really afraid I shall not be able to afford a divorce this year.
