C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR.

THEY HAD OYSTERS.

IN HONOR OF VISITING MEMBERS.

Last Monday evening was the regular meeting of the Hartland Lodge I. O. A. No 41. Past County Master Hipwell of Woodstock was present and in honor of his visit an oyster stew was given at the Commercial Hotel.

There were present,

A. A. Belyea, D. W. Brooks, J. E. McCollum, J. E. Barnett, A. G. Baker, C. C. Carter, Geo. M. Shaw, W. P. McMullin, Sidney Hagerman, Arnold Porter, W. W. Shaw, Harvey McKinney, A. S. Estabrooks, E. B. McIsaac, A. S. Esty, D. E. Morgan, Gordon McAdam, Harris D. Keswick, Stephen Durkee, H. E. Blakeslee, David Hipwell, Allen Rideout.

Dr. Estey responded to a toast to the Ladies, and P. J. M. Hipwell responded to a toast to the visiting brethren. Mr. Hipwell spoke splendidly, but it is impossible to give his speech in full. He said that while a resident of Woodstock he did not have any jealousy of Hartland, but admired its push and enterprise. He did not know of a more up-to-date village of its size in the province. He knew Hartland was fast following on Woodstock's heels, that it afforded a good market for farmers and had stores where goods could be bought as cheaply as in Woodstock or elsewhere. He saw but one thing the village lacked, and while this was most essential he was sure the want would be supplied in the near future. This was a bridge across the river. (Cheers.)

Other toasts were drunk and responded as follows: The Farmers, by E. B. McIsaac; Lumbermen, by J. E. McCollum; The Press, by Dr. Estey, who spoke most flatteringly of the 'TISER; Local Pedagogue, by Allen Rideout; The Band, by Arnold Porter; The Medical Fraternity, Dr. Estey; and "Our Worshipful Master" by A. G. Bakes, W. M. The affair was drawn to a close by the singing of "God Save the Queen."

WOODSTOCK VISITORS.

On Monday evening a party of young people drove up from Woodstock and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Creighton at the Commercial Hotel. The party included Mrs. Wm. Connell, Mrs. Hugh Wright, Misses G. Connell, M. Wright, V. Connell, M. Dibblee and B. Sanderson; and Messrs B. D. McKay, Gordon Connell, and W. Jack Dibblee. The evening was spent in social chat, dancing and whist, and was greatly enjoyed. The night was perfect for a drive and the roads were good but a bad upset was encountered coming up.

BOARD OF TRADE.

A PUBLIC MEETING WILL BE HELD NEXT WEDNESDAY.

The meeting Monday evening was made up of Messrs. Barnett, Carr, Taylor, Shaw, Richardson, Campbell, Miller, Proctor, Henderson, D. H. Keswick and Stevens. The latter was elected chairman and S. S. Miller was secretary. Mr. Miller read a letter from F. O. Allison, secretary of the St. John Board, who spoke encouragingly of the movement, and forwarded a copy of the Act relating to the organization of Boards of Trade.

On discussion it was found advisable to admit members from the whole of the Parish of Brighton, and from Victoria Corner, Waterville, Somerville, Avondale, Middle Simmonds, and Peel. The define the exact boundary a committee consisting of Messrs Connolly, Miller and Barnett were appointed. This committee will also issue invitations to all prospective members.

A committee comprised of Messrs Campbell, Taylor, and H. D. Keswick were appointed to secure a Hall, and attend to other details.

It was decided to invite one or more of those who were the promoters in the organization of the Woodstock Board to give information that might be required. The same invitation will be sent to the St. John Board.

On Monday evening there will be a meeting of local business men to hear the reports of the committees and to get things "cut and dried" for the general meeting of Wednesday evening.

GOLD ON THE TOBIQUE.

The Tobique river gold regions still furnish a prominent topic of conversation. Charles Hurley came down to Andover this week and brought the startling news that Frank Ferguson, of New Hampshire had found a rich vein of gold bearing ore twenty-three miles above the mouth of the Surpentine River, where it enters into the Tobique Hurley said that Ferguson had shown him a small bag filled with pure gold and several bags of white quartz

It did not require the aid of a glass to satisfy a man that it was gold. In some of the quartz he said there were the veins of gold that would satisfy any man.

ANDOVER WATERWORKS.

The residents of Andover will ask the provincial government for an act of incorporation for their village for fire and water purposes, and with power to issue bonds to the extent of and not exceeding $10,000. F. N. Welling, A. E. Kupy and M. S. Sutton are the committee the people appointed to secure information about the plan and cost of waterworks.
