The Fredericton Board of Trade had its annual meeting on Monday afternoon. The lines of work taken up in the past year have been many and withal successful. The "tourist committee" received credit for their work in launching schemes for bringing in prominence the beauties of the city as a summer resort. The dredging of the waterway to Woodstock has received a share of attention; and the Board induced the authorities at Ottawa to make some improvements in the barracks and other public buildings. The Board also are trying to induce the manufacture of pulp mills in or near the city. It is very much desired that the C. P. R. do not get control of the road. They ask as a right that the government buy the road. The president suggests that the Board sends letters to each of the cabinet ministers urging the necessity. A delegation has waited on Mr. Gibson, and another will probably be sent to Ottawa.

The ADVERTISER gives these particulars for the benefit of those who do not understand the usefulness of a Board of Trade. Those who are eligible for membership are persons being, or having been, a merchant, trader, mechanic, resident, director or manager of a bank, or an insurance agent. On behalf of those who are the promoters of the proposed Hartland Board of Trade, the ADVERTISER extends an invitation to every person in this vicinity possessed of these qualifications to attend the public meeting in Burt's Hall, Wednesday evening, Jan. 18.

The Woodstock Press has this week a good editorial on "Municipal Matters" It believes in paying councillors a decent salary, and argues the Scott Act question reasonably. It says: "The argument that the fines should be sufficient to meet the cost of enforcement * * * is absurd on its face. And if the convictions are numerous and fines make up a full treasury it only proves that lots of liquor is being sold, and therefore that the Act is not accomplishing what it was designed to accomplish—the suppression of the liquor traffic. Another mistake which the council is liable to make is by hiring a cheap man for Inspector, or placing the salary of the Inspector so low that he cannot live by it in a manner to render efficient service to the county."

The ADVERTISER is in receipt of a copy of the "Official Handbook of the Dominion of Canada," published by authority of the minister of the interior. The pamphlet is very nicely gotten up, in fact, is a work of art, containing many finely executed half-tone engravings and enclosed in covers appropriately lithographed. The volume is intended for circulation abroad for inducing emigration. The subject matter consists of statistical reports, "Persons wanted in Canada," Advice to Intending Settlers," "The Provinces," etc.
