

WOODSTOCK POSTMASTERSHIP.

It has not yet public what decision has been made by the authorities in regard to the Woodstock post office investigation.

APPENDICITES.

On Wednesday, Drs. Rankine, Brown and Bearisto performed an operation for appendicitis on Nathanael Peed of Palmer Settlement. The patient is doing well.

MISTAKEN.

"Look here, Bridget," said an indignant lady, "I have missed things ever since you came to live with me, and to day I took the liberty of searching your room, and I found my lace handkerchief in your bureau drawer."

"Luk at thot, now!"

"Yes, and I found my lace jabot and one of my veils in your trunk."

"Did any one iver!"

"And you had a pair of my gloves in your room."

"Luk at thot agin, now!"

"I have taken all my things to my own room, and I want you to leave the house today."

"Oh, but Oi'll lave fasht enough, for it's not Oi thot wants to wurruk for anny leddy thot so far forgits hersilf as to go pryin' 'round in a girruls' room! Oi t'ot Oi was wurkin' for a lady, but Oi've found out me mistake an' Oi'll lave this minuth!"

SENSE AND NONSENSE.

"Any spicay features in the new play?"

"Well," the lady answered, "John had his mouth full of cloves."

Keith & Plummer are open to buy 500 cords hemlock bark and will pay highest market price in cash or trade.

Good Argument: Yabsley--Mudge, what makes you laugh at your own stories?

Mudge--Why shouldn't I? If they were not worth laughing at I would not tell them.

Not his own fault: Uncle Ezra--The paper says this candidate for the legislature has great personal magnetism.

Uncle Adner--Yes; an' there's other charges ag'in him, too!

Quite a difference--"I saw a bonnet that just suited me. Geerge. It was $35"

"But you didn't pay that infernal price for it, did you?"

"N-no, Geerge; I didn't. I had it charged."

For a nice Parlour lamp go to Keswick's.

Eagan (at a Klondyke resort)--Quick, give me a gun!

Host--Great Scott! what's the mttter?

Eagan--I've got one of those mosquitos cornered, and I want to dispatch him before he escapes.

HURT IN THE WOODS.

Ira Long, son of Andrew Long of Carlisle, while working in the woods, stuicing logs on the Guimac got his leg caught between a log and a tree, breaking the bone about two inches above the ankle. The young man had to be carried over a mile to the road.

A young Robinson of Windsor, while working in the woods at Smyrna, Me., cut his foot very badly and came on the express yesterday, en route for home.

W. R. Gillin loaded a car of sheep for Montreal yesterday.

A car scale has been put in at Newburgh Jct. and hereafter all southbound cars will be weighed there.

BABY'S SKIN

Freed from all Eruptions,
Made Pure and White by
DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Mothers take a pride in having their infants' skin of that delicate pink and white--soft as velvet. When torturing and disfiguring eruptions seize upon the little body, they want a remedy that will not disappoint nor fail. Time and again Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven itself a specific for all skin diseases to which babies are peculiarly subject.

MRS. CHAS. K. MOSS, of Berlin, Ont., had a little baby 6 months old, with itching sores on her body. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured her when everything else failed.

Another mother who holds Dr. Chase's Ointment in high esteem is MRS. JAS. BROWN, Molesworth, Ont. Her baby boy was covered all over the face, sides and hips with Eczema. The first application of the Ointment stopped the itching, and 3 boxes effected a complete cure.

These are but samples of the hundreds of mothers who are delighted with Dr. Chase's Ointment.

To New and Old Subscribers!

A Special Offer

We have made arrangements to get for our subscribers a valuable set of premiums, and are able to offer them almost free of cost.

FARM NEWS.

Regular subscription price, 50 cents. Farm News now reaches more than 80,000 families. It holds this large and loyal following of subscribers because they regard it as one of the chief essentials of their success in farming. It keeps in touch with the most progressive agriculture of the day, it is scientific in its spirit, and at the same time is never obscure in its meaning, nor stilted in its style. It's the kind of a paper the farmer values in his every day work, because in it he finds what other successful farmers are doing, and how they do it. Its 16 pages contain no "dead weight"--no "fillers." Every line counts. If you know anything about the farm and farm life, examine Farm News and you will understand how much its subscribers appreciate it. And how it grows better every number. Compare it with any other farm paper, and it stands ahead in practicability and real value.

WOMANKIND.

Regular subscription price, 50c. A handsome 20-page magazine containing stories, poems sketches, bits of travel, and such generally literary matter as appeals most strongly to the average reader, who wants pure and wholesome literature of the entertaining kind. Its practical departments devoted to the kitchen, the flower garden, the care to children, dressmaking, home decoration, etc., are greatly valued by every woman who has ever read them. Extensive improvements have been made in Womankind during the past year, and as a result its circulation has been increased from 20,000 to 80,000--a growth that could only possibly be obtained by giving the people what they want. We invite comparison of Womankind with other papers of its kind.
