AND OTHER MATTERS

Plebiscite vote next Thursday.

The cold weather of the past week has given the stove business an impetus.

The Free Baptist church will meet in annual Conference at Sussex on Saturday, Oct. 1st.

Prof. Fox has organized two singing schools, one at Florenceville, another at East Florenceville.

Rev. D. B. Bailey, the Methodist pastor, has hustled his people into building a barn for his and all his successors' use.

Our West Side correspondent has awakened and provides our readers with a very savory list of interesting news items.

Grand Master David Hipwell of the L. O. L. of New Brunswick, addressed a meeting of Orangemen in St. John on Tuesday evening.

"Brayley" the chalk artist, gave a very interesting entertainment at Lower Brighton last night and will hold forth at Silville tonight.

Rev. A. L. Hayward will preach a temperance sermon in the Baptist church to-morrow at 10.30, and at Middle Simonds at 3 p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Downey took their little girl, who had her eye put out last week, to the St. John General Hospital on Wednesday.

To-day a driving party of thirteen young people of Woodstock is expected to arrive in Hartland to do the town. They will dine at the Commercial.

Donald Innes of Kincardine, Victoria Co., carried off the first prize for wheat at the St. John Exhibition. Mr. Innes also captured several other prizes.

The Barker House stables in Fredericton were destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Great difficulty was experienced in saving the horses and carriages.

Two carloads of sheep were shipped by J. E. Parsons on Monday. Mr. Parsons and W. R. Gillin have been in Montreal this week on business incidental to their stock trade.

Last Sunday Prof. Fox and four members of the band furnished instrumental music for the Catholic congregation at Newburg. It was very nice and created a good effect.

Handy F. Nevers brought the ADVERTISER a fine basket of apples, some well known varieties of grafted fruit and other extraordinary native apples—the best we have ever seen.

The Band boys' carnival in the Rink on Thursday evening was fairly well attended, and while not as successful as on previous occasions, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. The prize winners were Misses Eva Campbell and Maud Kibmall for the ladies, while Misses Elgin Bradley and Millie Nevers received honorable mention, as did Prof. Fox, as the "Ulsterman." Geo. Grey of Presque Isle, "Brayley" of St. John and the TIZER man acted as judges.

John T. G. Carr and Col. Vince addressed a plebiscite meeting at Glassville the other night. On their return the following morning their carriage collided with another, with the result that both gentlemen were precipitated into the ditch. Mr. Carr received a severe concussion near the right eye, and the carriage was somewhat injured. The colonel escaped unharmed.

H. P. Timmerman and party in his private car took a trip over this division this week. On Thursday the car passed down on Conductor Dow's train en route to Montreal.

John H. Watt of the Canada railway mail service, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Watt, Lily Glen, Kintore, Victoria Co. On Monday a number of friends met and enjoyed their annual picnic.

At the St. John Exhibition Miss A. May Grey, proprietor of the Ladies' Emporium of this village, won two first prizes in fancy work, the articles being an embroidered table cover and a bureau scarf. She also took a diploma.

Tomorrow after the Sunday schools close all the scholars will meet at the Methodist church where a temperance service will be held for them. Local speakers will address the meeting and there will be singing, etc.

On Plebiscite Day there will be a children's parade headed by the band. Banners will be flung to the breeze and a gala day, entirely different from any other election day will be enjoyed. The stores will close.

Mrs. Aaron Campbell is lying very ill, and her physicians hold out but slight hope of her recovery. The origin of the malady is an internal tumor. Drs. Estey and Rankin, the latter of Woodstock, are attending the case. On Wednesday these two physicians, together with Dr. Saunders of Woodstock, met in consultation over the case, and it was deemed most advisable to remove the patient to a Montreal hospital. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Campbell and her family, and despite the outlook, all her friends hope for a final and speedy recovery. Mr. Campbell is the gentleman who manages A. H. Sawyer's business here, and is a member of the firm of Richardson, Porter & Co.

Last Sunday evening Rev. D. B. Bailey delivered a sermon having a particular bearing upon Prohibition. He chose for his text the words "Whosoever a man soweth that shall he also reap," and made many good points and logically reasoned the question.

Don't forget that the fall is the best time to paint. We have lots of the celebrated Sherwin-Williams paint to sell this fall as well as white lead and oil. Shaw & Dibblee.

C. S. Osgood, the jeweller, has rented a window in Chase's store on Main St. where he will permanently do business. He already has assured the people in this vicinity that he has ability to do watch, clock and jewellery repairing and engraving in a first class manner. So Hartland once again rejoices in the possession of a first class jeweller.

"Brayley," the lightening chalk artist, impersonator and lecturer, will give an entertainment in the Foresters' Hall on Monday evening. This is not the first time he has come before a Hartland audience and is certain of a good house. He is a red hot temperance man and during the past three months has been lecturing on prohibition, and on Monday evening will take this for his theme. His entertainment is highly moral, even though there are many laughs in it. He will give a number of illustrated songs: "the bowery tramp," a temperance impersonation, showing effects of alcohol; then the automatic trick goat will make the young folks laugh heartily. Brayley's experience in temperance is unique; he has been shot at and assaulted while returning from the lecture room. Foresters' Hall, Monday evening. Admission 20 and 10 cents.

Don't forget us when in need of plastering hair, lime or other building material. We keep a full line. Shaw & Dibblee.
