Saved a Life.

Erysipelas and Impure Blood Were Doing Their Deadly Work.

Paine's Celery Compound Gives Mrs Gallagher a New Lease of Life.

Exposure to cold, indigestion and dyspepsia, debility, impure blood, run down system living in badly ventilated rooms and poor surrounding hygienic conditions are all causes of erysipelas. It will afford comfort to thousands to know that, with ordinary care and the use of Paine's Celery Compound the many dangers of erysipelas can be entirely avoided. When any of the symptoms above are noted promptness in the use of Paine's Celery Compound will quickly banish all dangers.

If, unfortunately you are subject to the disease and have not used Dr. Phelps' great prescription we say with a desire for your welfare, give Paine's Celery Compound an instant trial, so that you may be able to full judge of its worth,

Mrs. John Gallagher, Marblton, P. Q., one of the many saved from death by Paine's Celery Compound, writes as follows:

"In the winter of 1897 I had a severe attack of erysipelas. At the same time my blood was out of order, and I was completely rundown and weak that I could not stand alone. I commenced at once to use your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking five bottles I was greatly benefitted, and seemed to take a new lease of life. I know from experience that Paine's Celery Compound is possessed of all the merits claimed for it, and I will recommend it to all suffering from erysipelas, headache or stomach troubles. I also consider Paine's Celery Compound the greatest of all blood purifiers. I keep some of the Compound at all times in my house, and use it as a family medicine."

TOYLAND.

Have you ever heard of Toyland?
Of dear delightful Joyland,
Where the pretty, pretty Christmas presents grow?

Where the sunbeams shine so brightly,
And the breezes murmur lightly,
And the hours to merry, merry music flow,
Toyland, Joyland, 'Tis a happy place we know

Toyland, Joyland, Toyland, Joyland, where the Christmas presents grow.

There are dolls with golden tresses,
In the sweetest of sweet dresses,
There are baby-houses cute as cute can be;
You could suit a fairy's wishes,
With the little china dishes;
O, I wonder if they hang upon a tree?

Boats and cars and every treasure
That can give a boy real pleasure,
There are whistles, horns and drums to make a noise;

There are games and books for indoors,
Balls and sleds and skates for outdoors;
O, this Toyland's just the very place for boys.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines," by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as Official Historian to the War Department.
