

ake to the yard, let us have some facts about this matter. The jury had been given a recess by the judge, the people mostly left the court room, the counsel for one side (referred to in the Dispatch) of their own sweet will also went out into the court yard, they certainly were not compelled to do so for want of room to have a private conference. I saw the very same that you refer to and my views of the matter were that they were having a little pastime and enjoying it as school boys enjoy a recess after hours of of hard study. The Dispatch is in a mystery to know when a majority vote of the council means something and when it means nothing.

(Answer)—When they vote to carry out the wishes of the people, it means something. But when they disregard the people's wishes and vote to do something that the people have said they must not do, it means nothing. The Despatch carries us back a thousand years and says that the nations then were proud of their public buildings, their own buildings might be poor, but nothing was too good for public institutions. If the despatch wants to live over these times when men and women were pressed into the public service and the necessities of life were taken from the poor to build up public institutions that the rich and those in authority could glory in their public works, we do not. We are thankful that we live in a day when every man, let him be ever so poor, has a chance to speak and say what he thinks is right and what is wrong in the government of the country in which he lives, in a day when the voice of the people must be heard, and when those chosen to represent them disregard and go contrary to their wishes, the people have power to call a halt.

While writing the Despatch of Nov. 23rd came to hand, in which we read a suggestion that the town extend its borders to take in the court house and gaol. This proposition is a very laudable one. Have faith in your town, say it is bound to grow. work for that end, and everyone in the county will be proud of the town for their enterprize and thrift, and it will benefit all, and injure no one. But if the town thinks that their bounds are set and they try to grasp after what rightly belongs to others, and build up your town at the expense of the rest of the county, as some of your public men have intimated, as if every other interest in the county should be subservient to the interest of the Town of Woodstock, then we are not proud of you a bit. The time was once that the Town of Woodstock could rule the county, and did rule it, but that day has passed, and we think not to return. There have been too many acres of wood cleared away, and there have been too many homes built in the upper and back parts of the county. There are too many growing interests springing up in different parts of the county for all of them to do obedience to the Town of Woodstock, because she thinks they ought to.

Mr. Editor I will not lengthen my remarks any further at this time, only allow me to say many thanks to the Dispatch for their kind consideration towards Hartland in the future.

And certainly we will try and be very good.

Yours very truly,
C. J. CONNOLLY.

Ran into a Herd of Moose.

Quebec, Dec. 11.—The Maritime express which left Halifax on Friday, and arrived at Levis at noon on Saturday, ran into a herd of some thirty moose, shortly after leaving Newcastle, N. B. Pure Blood is Life.

Paine's Celery Compound
the Only Hope of All Suffering from Blood Diseases.

The Great Medicine Quickly Expels all Poisons and Renews the System.

Scrofula is one of the most terrible and wasting of blood diseases: it usually develops in early life, and in the majority of cases is hereditary. Many medical men contend that scrofula is the parent of consumption.

When the blood is thin, impoverished, impure and foul, its poisoned condition shows up clearly in pimples, sores, tumors, abscesses, blotches, erysipelas, cancer, white swellings, sore eyes, felons, boils, salt rheum, eczema, etc.

Pure blood represents life; foul and poisoned blood means suffering and death. Strength, action and the health of all parts of the human system are dependent upon the blood.

The only true way to cleanse and enrich the blood is to use Paine's Celery Compound. Its vitalizing and purifying effect upon the blood of old and young is magical. The most virulent blood diseases quickly yield to its healing and cleansing power. No other medicine known to man has ever achieved the victories over obstinate blood troubles that Paine's Celery Compound has accomplished.

If you have a trace or symptom of blood disease, your life is truly in danger. If you are anxiously seeking for a cure, have a care how you make use of the widely advertised "blood purifiers;" in the great majority of instances they are frauds. Ask your druggist for Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can make your blood and flesh clean, pure and healthy.
