C. P. R. ROUTE TO KLONDYKE. HARKINS LEARNT A LESSON.

Advices from C. P. R. headquarters are to the effect that parties have just arrived at Vancover from prospecting for the C. P. R's. route to Klondyke. The party left Telepraph Creek, Jan. street car, Harkins said-11th, and arrived at Wrangel, Jan. 25. They laid up two days, making actual travelling time 12 days. The party was lightly laden, carrying only enough provisions for the trip. They hauled their stuff with a five dog team. The men used snow shoes breaking the trail. They followed the Stikine the whole distance to its mouth, so that now there is a good hard road all the way, with snow not deep enough to hinder. The weather was moderatebound inland about 100 miles from the louder-' mouth of the river; and afterward met stragglers about every 5 or 10 miles. Harkins. All were making good progress. Those going in now can make good progresscan get in without delay. The dogs were fed on dried salmon, on which they thrive, and which is plentiful at route. The party just arrived made Harkins, saidcamp each night on the trail, and all are well and hearty.

ENTERPRISING YANKEES.

Aroostook county has acres and acres you.' of hard wood growth, which before the railroad was built was practically worthbe floated down the streams and there was no other way of getting it out. The railroad has opened up a way of getting it to market, and many new manufacturies have been started along its line. One of the latest is one that will manufacture furniture for export to England. The mills will be located near Ashland, and contracts have been made for the cutting of 3,000,000 feet of the timber this year. That railroad is a big thing for Aroostook county and the county will be a big thing for the railroad too, when a few more such concerns get to work there.—Ex.

WHAT ARE YOU READING.

No young person can afford to read haphazard whatever comes to hand any more than they can afford to eat and drink anything chance may throw in their way. Some plan should be adopted and closely followed. To read nothing but stories is to ruin the power of the mind and spoil all appetite for more healthtul and valuable reading. Quality should be more considered than quantity. If one wishes to improve in books to be read. Life is to short and pray the Government to build a Bridge time to precious to waste in the worth- across the St. John River, opposite less. A book which is not positively Hartland, in acceptance of invitation and wasteful of time and energy. It other business that may be brought bewould be well to have an evening fore the meeting. when the members shall in turn tell what they have read recently and recommend what they have found of value.

One car coarse salt received this week at Carr's. Bought cheaper than ever before. Call and get price.

Harkins is one of those genial souls who like to be polite to everybody, and the other day when he sat down by a gentlemanly-looking old man in the 'Pleasant day, isn't it?'

'Hey?' responded the old man with his hand to his ear.

- 'I said it was a pleasant day.'
- 'What say?'
- 'I simply said it was a pleasant day.'
- 'Please speak a little louder; I am a trifle hard o'hearin'.'

'Pleasant day!' roared the red-faced Harkins, annoyed by the giggles of some girls opposite him.

'These confounded trolleys make so the mercury not below zero on the much noise I c'n hardly hear at all. If whole trip. They first met parties you'll be so kind as to speak a little

'It's of no consequence,' screeehed

- 'Hey?'
- 'Nothing-nothing at all, sir!'
- 'What is it? What did you ask for?

'Oh, nothing much of anything,' howled Harkins, whereupon the old Wraugel. Parties should take feed for gentleman took a couple of coppers the whole trip as none can be had en from his pocket, and, offering them to

> 'Well, I don't often give, an' it looks to me as if a well dressed, healthylookin' man like you ought to be above beggin', but prehaps you have been unfortinit, an' here's a couple o'pence for Harkins got off suddenly, grinding his teeth, while the jeers and howling less, as the wood is so heavy it cannot laughter of the other passengers sounded in his burning ears.

> Many people say the "Sunbeam" Blend Tea that Keswick sells is the best they ever used.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR

Probably the strongest instinct man possesses is to turn up his coat collar when he needs a shave.

Until a man has been married he never can realize that a woman can feel better because she cries.

Probably none of the women who believe in Christian science have faith enough to stick the stamp on a letter before they write the address.

Whenever you see a man trying to go around with a haunting look in his eyes you may know some woman has told him she has always thought he had a history.-New York Press.

BRIDGE MEETING.

A meeting of the Hartland Board of Trade is called for Wednesday, Feb. mind and character, close attention 23rd 7.30 o'clock p. m. to consider the should be given to the selection of the advisibility of sending a delegation to good and helpful is inevitably harmful M. P. P's for Carleton; and to consider

> Per Order of Committee. SAMUEL S. MILLER.

If you want to please the boy get one of Shaw & Dibblee's handsleds, they are closing out sleds at 20 per cent less than the regular price.

While Thanking

and friends for the liberal patronage during the past year and wishing for a continuance of the same we will from this date offer balance of our Fur Goods including

Men's Coon and Bear Coats.

Ladies' Astrachan Jackets,

Capes, Cuffs, Ruffs, &c.

Men's Ulsters and Ladies' Cloth Jackets, At Greatly Reduced Prices To Clear.

A Full Line of Seasonable Goods.

Keith & Plummer

The Cost

Building

Is reduced to a minimum since the Wood-working Factory Hartland came into existence. You can build cheaper and quicer. Every line of House finish.

Doors, Windows, Sashes, Frames,

Flooring,

Wainescotting.

and Cheaper than any where else. Good

HARTLAND WOODWORKING

COMPANY.