

Divorce Proceeding in the Case Of Wm. Armstrong.

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 2.—The trial of the divorce case of William Armstrong v. Ellen Armstrong was begun before Judge Vanwart at the adjourned session of the divorce court this morning. F. B. Carvell and W. Vanwart, Q. C., appeared for the plaintiff and A. B. Connell, Q. C., and G. F. Gregory, Q. C., for the defendant. Some twenty witnesses were present at the opening of the court, including the two parties to the suit—seven for plaintiff and thirteen for defendant. Two or three others are expected to arrive before the trial is concluded. The plaintiff is a resident of Lakeville, Carleton county, where he has carried on for some years an extensive farming and trading business. He and defendant, who is a daughter of William Love, proprietor of the Glassville House at Glassville, were married by Rev. Mr. Beairsto in July, 1886. They lived together happily for six or seven years and had four children born to them. About the year 1893 trouble began to develop, each apparently becoming suspicious of the other, and this culminated in Mrs. Armstrong leaving her husband and returning to her parents in January, 1895, since which time the two have lived separate and apart. Plaintiff seeks divorce on the ground of adultery, a young married man belonging to Florenceville being named as co-respondent. The defendant in her answer denies the allegations of adultery, and in addition charges him with several offences of the same character and with cruelty.

Before proceeding with the trial, Judge Vanwart, on motion of defendant's counsel, ordered plaintiff to pay into court a further sum of forty dollars to meet defendant's expenses for the day. The case is likely to last three or four days, and a similar order will probably be made each day.

The Search For Andree.
(Special to Globe.)

Vancouver, Aug. 1.—The party of French scientists who are to search for Prof. Andree in a balloon will make the start very soon from Skagway, where M. Varich, head of the expedition, and most of his associates are at present. Dr. Terwaing, the last of the party, left here for that place yesterday. The balloon is somewhat smaller than first intended and was constructed here. The search will be out of way districts of Alaska and Dr. Terwaing said just before he left they were confident of finding some trace of Andree before returning.

Reformed Baptists.

The Reformed Baptists will hold their camp meeting at Brazil Lake, N. S., commencing Sunday, August 10th, and continuing for ten days. Rev. A. Hartt, of Everett, Mass. will be the chief worker. He will be assisted by his son, Albert Hartt. Rev. M. S. Trafton, of St. John, will also be present.

Taylor has the largest assortment of neck ties, dress shirts, cuffs and collars in town. Prices way down.

Bloomfield Notes.

The annual Epworth League and Sunday School picnic will be held in J. E. Flemming's woods on Saturday, the 12th inst. G. W. Stokoe's merry go-round will be on the grounds; there will be refreshments for sale, and the choir will furnish music. A large crowd is expected, and a good time is inevitable. There will probably be the ordinary picnic sports.

Monday evening at the Epworth League the topic being Temperance, the following temperance programme was carried out to the delight of all who listened: Recitation, "A Scar on the Face," by Pearle W. Strong; trio, "Sleeping on Guard," by Mrs. F. Black, Mrs. H. London and Howard H. Nye; reading, "A Thrilling Appeal," by Neville W. Strong; recitation, "Strike for Prohibition," by Glenn F. Wilson; reading, "The Infernal Liquor Fiend," by Howard Nye; chorus, "The Army of Temperance"; reading, "The Saloon and the Home," by Fred Pickering; recitation, "College Oilcans" by Clara A. Stokoe; reading, "He would be a Soldier," by Nora A. Cheney. Music by League.

Mrs. Herb Andrews, of Berwick, Me. formerly Miss Jennie Simmons, of this place, is spending the summer at her old home. Her many friends are delighted to have her with them once more.

Misses Pearle and Clara Stokoe spent Monday and Tuesday at Andover.

Miss Edna Smith of Jacksonville, has returned home after spending a few days among her relatives here. She came up on her wheel.

The Advents have been holding tent meetings at Monticello for some time. Several from here have attended and liked the meetings very much.
