

A SISTER'S HELP.

Brought Renewed Health to a Despondent Brother

His Health Had Failed and Medicines Seemed to Do Him No Good—Where Others Had Failed, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Met with Great Success.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. :—

GENTLEMEN,—A few years ago my system became thoroughly run down. My blood was in a frightful condition; medical treatment did no good. I was finally incapacitated from work, became thoroughly despondent, and gave up hope of living much longer. While in this condition I visited my father's home near Tara. A sister, then and now living in Toronto, was also visiting at the parental home. Her husband had been made healthy through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and she urged me to try them. Tired of trying medicines, I laughed at the proposition. However later on she provided me with some of the pills and begged me to take them. I did so, and before I had used two boxes I was on the road to restored health. I am commending their good qualities almost every day I live because I feel so grateful for my restoration, and I have concluded to write you this letter wholly in the interest of suffering humanity. I am carrying on business in Owen Sound as carriage maker. This town has been my home for twenty-eight years and any one enclosing a reply three cent stamp can receive a personal indorsation of the foregoing. This much to satisfy those who cannot be blamed for doubting after taking so many other preparations without being benefitted. You may do just as you like with this letter. I am satisfied that but for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would not be able to attend to my business today. Perhaps I would not have been alive.

Yours very sincerely,
FREDERICK GLOVER.

Hard to Choose.

Admiral Sir John Hay says that Admiral Farragut, during his visit to England, told the following story of an American heiress, who was pestered by suitors, among whom she found it difficult to decide :

She was travelling on a Mississippi Steamboat, where five of her admirers were passengers, and they exerted themselves so warmly to obtain her favor that she became much perplexed and laid her difficulty before the captain.

He took her to his state-room, put a life-belt on her and advised her to fall over board, promising that he would make every preparation for rescuing her. She could thus ascertain which one of the five was most truly devoted to her.

Her part of the programme was faithfully carried out; but four of the five jumped after her. The steamer picked them all up, and the lady retired to her state-room to take off her life-belt and change her clothes. Then she sought the captain.

'Well,' said he, solemnly, 'it is a difficult question, but I think if I was you I should take the dry one.'—Youth's Companion.

A Misunderstood Jest.

Lord Lytton when viceroy of India was seated one day at dinner next to a lady whose name was Birch, and who though very good looking, was not over intelligent. She said to his excellency : 'Are you acquainted with any of the Birches?'

'Oh, yes,' replied Lord Lytton, 'I knew several of them most intimately while at Eton—indeed more intimately than I cared to.'

'My lord,' replied the lady, 'you forget the Birches are relatives of mine.'

'And they cut me,' said the viceroy, 'but' and he smiled his wonted smile, 'I have never felt more inclined to kiss the rod than I do now.'

Sad to say, Mrs. Birch did not see the point and told her husband his excellency had insulted her.—Ex.

'Just sit down in that chair,' said the oculist to the patient, whose reputation for financial procrastination and repudiation was well known to him. 'I will test your eyes.' Then held a printed schedule of his prices with a 'No trust' line at the bottom in front of his eyes and asked, 'Can you read that?'

'I am afraid,' replied the patient, reaching for his hat, 'that my case is beyond the reach of human skill.'—Chicago Post.

Useful Neighbours.

Sir, or madam, if you have any difficulty in making your children behave, just turn them over to the family next door. Both the man and the woman in that house are quite sure they could make those children mind.—Boston Transcript.

Odd Name for a Mile.

A Burman mile is about equal in length to two English miles. The word for 'mile' in Burmese means 'to sit,' and a mile is the distance that a man goes before he considers it necessary to sit down.

Saved from Paralysis and Death by Paine's Celery Compound.

WELLS & RICHARDSON Co.,

DEAR SIR:—I have much pleasure in recommending Paine's Celery Compound for nervousness and weakness with which I was sorely afflicted for a number of years, and for which my doctor could give no relief. I became very weak and had a stroke of paralysis. I was confined to my bed, and the doctor requested me to try a course of your medicine as the last thing that could be done. I did as recommended, and before I had finished the first bottle I experienced a change. I am glad to say that I am cured under the use of Paine's Celery Compound. I have recommended it to others and they have been benefited by it; it has worked miracles for me.

Yours truly,
MRS. C. LUMLEY, Cobuag, Ont.

“Well, That's Cool”

Is what everyone says when they get a glass of Soda from Thistle & Co's new fountain. "How refreshing" are other expressions. The new fountain, which is a picture to look at, produces many different flavored Sodas, including Cream Soda and Orange Phosphate. Call and get a drink. A no more refreshing nectar flows in Carleton Co. This warm weather is fatiguing, don't suffer with the heat, cool yourself at Thistle's fountain.
