Windsor.

As our news boy is not very newsy and there are not many items from this place perhaps the readers of the 'TISER would like to hear how we are getting g.

The chief topic now is wedlock. On the 3rd inst. Miss Viola Tedford was married to Wasson Bridges and on the day following they went to their new home in Gordonsville. May love, success and happiness follow them. The presents were numerous and costly.

Benj. Tedford, one of our respected citizens, went a short time ago to visit old home in Nova Scotia and on his return unexpected to many he brought with him a blushing bride. But, say, didn't the boys make a great racket and wasn't the treat fine! Mrs. Grundy says what weddings we have seen are only drops before a more plentiful shower, and the old lady is a pretty good guesser.

Our Sabbath school with James Fulknor as superintendant is progressing finely. At our last service about twenty-three took part. The school intends to hold their annual picnic on Saturday your best girl and a well filled basket. evening in the Union Church in conleading politicians. Come one, come at Waterville. all.

Our day school trustees have engaged Miss Boyer of Fredericton for another term. She has taught two terms here and is well liked by pupils and parents.

We are pleased to see again the smiling face of our old merchant, Thos. Simms, who has come back from a trip to the Pacific coast.

Our new merchant S. Giberson is doing a fine business trading, judging by the crowds who come and go from his shop.

Mrs. J. C. Henderson of Woodstock is making her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. Orser, a pleasant visit.

Bloomfield Notes.

Mr. Shea came up from Woodstock with a load of groceries for G. H. Stokoe, yesterday.

Oue of the oldest residents of this place passed away last Friday. Mr. Joshua Sweet was born at Windsor, N, S., in November, 1821. and come to this place, then called New Ireland, in about 1834, when it was all woods with only paths for roads and very little plearing. He was married in 1843 to Miss Fannie London of Red Bridge, and had two daughters, Mrs. Henry Hare of Monticello, and Mrs, G. G. London of Brookville, and one son, George, of this place. Only his son and wife survive him, his daughters having died some time since. He was buried in the Methodist burying ground Sunday afternoon. The funeral, which was one of stoves, Shaw & Dibblee's stoves? the largest ever witnessed in this place, was conducted by Rev. Stanley Young. The World's Biggest Hotel.

The Sultan is said to have nearly at Mecca. This establishment is to lodge 6,000 pilgrims at once, with, presumably their camels and other beasts of burden, and promises to be one of the most picturesque places to stay at in the world, although, of course, intidel dogs are not allowed to approach it. Its vast size has drawn attention to monster residences. The largest divelling house in existence is in Vienna, where there is an apartment house with 1,500 rooms Electric Bells. in it, occupied by more than 3,000 peo ple. This building has thirty-two stair cases, thirteen interior courts and 850 windows on the street.

Free Site for Shoe Factory.

The shoe factory promoters have been offered by Mr. J. A. Morrison a free gift of two acres of land for a site for the factory, if they will locate the factory at the Mills. Mr. William McKay, city road master, learning of this offer, makes a more favorable one, he offering a free site for the factory, and a cash bonus of $500 if the factory will locate upon his property at the mills.—Gleaner
