

SENSE AND NONSENSE.

Mother—Johnny, what do you mean by playing with the Gubler boy? Didn't I tell you to let me hear of such a thing again?

Spring—You needn't blame me for hearing it. I didn't tell you.

Shaw & Dibblee are in position to wholesale Fowler or Campbell's axes at St. John prices, freight added, and they solicit the lumbermen and trader's orders for axes.

She: 'But he has such a delightful way of saying things—quite a poetic temperament.'

He (a rival): 'Yes, he has soarings after the infinite and divings after the unfathomable; but never pays cash.'

Taylor will make prices on shirt waists and millinery goods within reach of all. I will take rasp berries, blue berries, butter, wool or any other farm product in exchange for goods. Call and see me.

Miss Spacer—I suppose when a joke gets into an almanac it is supposed to be old?

Mr. Scribbler—Oh no? A joke cannot be really called old until it gets into an Englishman.

Chairs, Tables, Bedsteads. Bureaus, Rockers, Bedroom Suits. in elm ash and oak—low for cash at Carr's.

'They tell me your wife is a particularly fine housekeeper.'

'Excruciatingly so. I've seen that woman sprinkle the clock with insect powder to get rid of the ticks.'

The Daisy Fly Catchers last a whole season, kills millions of flies and only costs 10 cts. Sold by Estey & Curtis.

He—I saw a beautiful smile illuminate your face as my arm stole around you. Tell me, darling, what were you thinking about?

She—About the pins in my waist.

R. P. & Co. have an elegant stock of shirt waists on hand and we do not have to slaughter prices to sell as cheap as any one else.

'I'm afraid I'm a dreadful talker.'

'What gives you that idea?'

'When I come home from anywhere I never can recall anything that was said, except remarks I made myself.'

For anything in stoves or tinware or other kitchen furnishings, go straight to the Hartland Hardware Store. They carry everything in the hardware line, and are always glad to show goods, and give time to good men.

Lodging House Clerk—Bed with bath, 15 cents.

Weary Watkins—I guess I'd rather pay a little higher price and not take the bath.

'Ain't no trouble at all keepin the taters bugged these days,' the man with the frazzled whiskers reported, 'sence the children at home have discovered that the darn things wears the Spanish colors.'

For Bargains in Dress Goods, Prints Flannelettes, and all Cotton Goods, go to Carr's.

'Bobby,' cried Tadley to his young hopeful angrily, 'my father used to whip me when I behaved as badly as you are doing.'

'Well,' answered Bobby thoughtfully 'I hope I'll never have to tell my little boy that.'

Taylor has the largest assortment of neck ties, dress shirts, cuffs and collars in town. Prices way down.

Bings—The taking of Manila worked like a clock.

Bangs—That's why it's hours.

Tornado Thresher and Little Giant Horse Power.

After spending many years in the study of, and thousands of dollars in experimenting on Threshers, we have succeeded in building a machine which possesses in the greatest degree all the essential and desirable qualities of a perfect thresher and cleaner. We have the best machine in the world. It threshes out all the grain from the straw, and cleans without wasting it. We furnish a whip with each machine that prevents waste of grain.
