IMPROVED ROADS,

The Annual Roadwork Having Been Accomplished, Better Streets Result.

The annual roadwork of this district was done this week. As a result every street has been turnpiked where needed and the whole have been gravelled. The new road machine furnished by the government was utilized and it did excellent work. This is particularly noticeable on Main, Depot, and Richardson streets. Main street in several section has been widened and levelled. Near the Becaguimac bridge it was necessary to reset some of the N. B. Telephone company's poles that were infringing on public rights. The ugly gap between the post office and the Tracy building, which has long been a menace to public safety, and which, with other similar places, has been the burden of the ADVERTISER's vociferations, have been wharfed up and well filled in, and now only needs a platform to make the job complete.

The road leading past D. H. Keswick's and G. R. Burt's has been considerably widened. This influential journal has also frequently spoken of the narrowness of that street.

Hereafter Hartland need not be ashamed of either its streets or its sidewalks, since strangers begin to remark of the great improvement in both.

Wedding at Hartland.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday, June 22nd when their daughter Estella B. was united in marriage to Burrell Brittain, of Lower Wakefield.

The ceremony was performed by Rev J. B. Daggett in the presence of about fifty guests and took place at 4 o'clock p. m. The bride, who was prettily dressed in white muslin with lace and ribbons, was attended by Miss Fannie Brittain, sister of the groom, and Miss Lily Currie. The groom was supported by A. H. Margison.

During the ceremony they stood beneath a lovely floral bell. There was a profusion of flowers all over the house. The wedding march was played by Mrs Ernest Miller. The bride received a large number of very nice gifts among which was a set of oak dining chairs.

Mr. and Mrs Brittain left next morning for Mr. Brittain's former home where they will reside.

Death at Simonds.

William Davis, a well known resident of Middle Simonds, died on Monday morning at the residence of his brother-in-law, James Christian. Deceased came originally from Ireland, with his parents who died some years ago. He was a blacksmith by trade and formerly had a shop at Simonds. A brother, Joseph, lives in Boston, and a nephew, William, came from Boston to attend the funeral. Mr. Davis was about 75 years of age, and came to his death from the effects of drinking too much swamp water while working on Saturday. The funeral was held on Wednesday at Simonds where interment took place.

The War.

WASHINGTON, June 21—Two months ago today war broke out between the United States and Spain, according to the proclamation of the president and the declaration of congress. The end of that period finds nearly 16,000 United States troops lying of Santiafo, preparing to land; it finds cable communication established between the department at Washington and the advance guard of the expedition in Cuba, and it finds Cuban territory in the possession of United States marines backed by a squadron and nearly all of the commercial ports of Cuba blockaded. This is all apart from Dewey's great victory at Manila and from the splendid results achieved in organizing several armies now in the camps. Therefore the officers of the administration feel that they have a right to look back over what has been accomplished in the short space of two months, working in a large part with raw material in both the army and navy.

It Was a Lie

The ADVERTISER is particularly requested to state that the rumor of an horrible murder at Northampton is entirely without foundation. The story was current early in the week that a well known and respected farmer sent his son to Woodstock on an errand. The lad staid two long, and when he returned, his father struck him a blow on the head with a hammer, felling him to the ground, and killing him instantly.

The people in this vicinity were in a high state of excitation when the yarn first came out. But it is all untrue.

County Council.

Carleton Co. council met this week in semi-annual session. A report of the proceedings will be published next week.

The adjourned court that was to deal with the Crabb case was also held this week and also will be reported in our next issue.

Aged Lady Dead.

Mrs Jewett, widow of the late Rev. Benjamin Jewett died on Thursday from a long illness. She was of advanced age. The funeral is to be held today at 3 p. m. in the Free Baptist. Rev. Thos. Todd will preach the funeral service and interment will be made in the old burying ground.

Hair-Dressing.

Miss Winslow of Woodstock will be in Hartland next Thursday for the purpose of taking orders for shampooing and all kinds of hairwork. Ladies wishing her services can leave their names at the ADVERTISER office.
