DRIVING PARTY.

A driving party of a dozen young people left the village on Thursday night for Rockland where they spent a very enjoyable evening, the guests of Miss Barnes at the Free Baptist Parsonage. Music, both instrumental and vocal was the order of the evening, the most entertaining feature of which, was some selections on the violin which certainly were ably executed by Walter Moore, the popular young representative of the firm of Clark & Co., of St. Stephen, Miss Barnes accompanied him on the organ. The roads being in excellent condition, the night clear and fine, the ride as well as the visit was greatly enjoyed by the Hartlanders. From the enthusiastic expressions of some of the young ladies the male members of the party have no reason to be ashamed of the speed of their chargers. Said one of them, "I never saw such a horse. Why, you know, the wheels seemed scarcely to touch the ground as we whirled along!"

Fire Alarm.

A lamp accidentally over-turned in the residence of L. E. McFarland caused an alarm of fire to be rung. The hose cart was on the scene in three minutes, but in less time than that all danger of a conflagration was passed.

It really seems too bad that while the boys turn out with such astonishing alacrity, no real opportunity has ever been presented for a genuine test. This is only one way of looking at it, however.

Saw Mill Burned.

A shingle mill belonging to E. W. Goslin of Tilley settlement, Victoria Co was totally destroyed by fire on Monday. The mill was a portable one, constructed last fall, and was doing a good business. Heavy forest fires had been raging in the vicinity and it was from that source that the mill caught. Enough shingle rift for the summer's cut was also consumed. There was no insurance, and the loss was heavy. Mr. Goslin, it is said, will not be able to build again.

Prominent Man Dead.

William L. Drier, of Connell an aged, and well known citizen died on Sunday. The burial took place on Wednesday. Deceased occupied a prominent position in municipal politics in years gone by, and had amassed considerable wealth.

Note of Thanks.

Mrs. John T. Jones wishes to thank, through the columns of the ADVERTISER the friends who so kindly assisted at the burial of her husband which took place Thursday, at Hartland.

24th AT ANDOVER.

Andover did honor to the Queen in fine style on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

At 9.30 a. m. there was a grand bicycle parade, both ladies and men taking part therein. Several bicycles races immediately followed the parade and the names of Fred Baird and Harold Perley were prominent among the prize winners.

In the afternoon there was a ball game and other sports, while the evening brought a grand native minstrel show in Beveridge's Hall.

The days sports lacked the enlivening influence of a band, and by the way it is a matter of regret that the Andover band, once so proficient, no longer exists.

Curious Husband.

WINDSOR, Ont. May 21.—Charles Ramoth disappeared from his home in Windsor twenty-four years ago and nothing was heard of him till a few days ago, when he surprised his wife by coolly walking into the house. His son, who had been a baby when the father left home, was grown to man's estate, and was supporting his mother. Ramoth said he had been all over the world, and always intended to return home as soon as he had a little money by him, but that time never came. His wife received him with open arms, and he remained, apparently quite contented, till yesterday, when he again disappeared.

A Buctouche Boy in Luck.

A Buctouche correspondent of the Review writes: The many friends of Mr. Duncan D. McEachrane will be glad to hear that he has been left a fortune in Scotland, where his grandparents came from. The word received states that in a short time Mr. McEachrane will come into possession of a fortune of $40,000. Mr. D. D. McEachrane is well known here, being an only son of a well-to-do farmer up river but of late years he has not been around here. He is employed as surveyor by Mr. Thomas C. Burns, of Kingston.

"Up-To-Date" is a Relative Term.

There is a certain bicycle firm who strenuously object to the expression "up-to-date" being applied to their wheels. It is a general term which might be applied to other wheels with 1898 improvements, but it is not enough to say for the wheel that is an absolute pattern for other makers who try to imitate. To say a wheel is "up-to-the-Cleveland" means more than to say it is "up-to-date." You would hardly say "the sun is on time"—it makes the time; nor would you say the Cleveland bicycle is "up-to-the-standard," for it is itself the standard.—Telegram, March 2, '98. Adv.
