BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETING.

An Interesting Session—Next Session at Simonds—Revival Services.

The Quarterly meeting of the Baptist church for Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska counties opened at Hartland last Friday evening. There were present a large number of brethren from various sections and Rev. Messrs. Hayward, Wetmore, Atkinson, Barton and Calder. Very interesting sessions were held all through until Monday, and special evening services have continued since.

On Saturday evening a largely attended missionary meeting was addressed by Rev. E. P. Calder.

Sunday morning Rev. A. H. Hayward preached the Quarterly sermon from Joshua 13:1—“There remaineth very much land yet to be possessed.”

Sunday afternoon there was a platform Sunday school led by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, and addressed by quite a number of those present.

Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Barton preached in the Baptist church. Rev. J. D. Wetmore in the Reformed Baptist and Rev. A. H. Hayward in the Free Baptist church, after which a mass meeting was held in the Baptist church, which was largely attended and in which much interest was manifested.

The music throughout was excellent and was furnished by a large choir, with Miss Lina Morgan as organist.

The business transacted was mostly of a routine nature; the reports showed the churches generally speaking, to be in good condition.

The next Quarterly meeting will be held with the church at Simonds, Rev. C. Currie to preach the opening sermon; Rev. J. D. Wetmore to preach the quarterly sermon and Rev. Mr. Atkinson to preach the missionary sermon.

The meetings that have followed have been largely attended by all classes and persuasions, and will continue at least over Sunday. A number have come forward to the mercy seat and many rich spiritual blessings are looked for.

Good Newspapers.

Of all Canada's fine daily newspapers The Montreal Daily Herald, (not the Star) is fast getting the lead. It is the largest and has the best telegraphic service. We are authorized to state that until Feb. 1st the price will be only $1 per year, or the Advertiser and Herald together for the low sum of $1.50. The Herald, remember, comes every day—its 12 to 30 large pages filled with reliable and late war and other news and the choicest miscellany—everything but the local news, and the Advertiser furnishes that. Take them both.

Wedding At the Commercial Hotel.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Commercial hotel Wednesday when Miss Irene Rideout was married to William McAllian, station agent at St. Croix. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Daggett in the presence of about 25 guests. The marriage took place at 2:30 p. m., after which luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. McAllian took the four o'clock express for Calais where a reception was given them by the groom's parents.

Public L. O. L. Meeting.

It is the present intention of Hartland L. O. L. No. 41 to hold a public mass meeting on New Years night. The speakers expected to be present are Grand Master Hipwell, J. M. Queen, County Master for Carleton, D. A. Thomas, County Master for York, Mr. Phelan of Houlton and Rev. Jos. Blakeney.

WAR NOTES.

Dec. 29.—The special cable from London at 6 p. m., says: “There is no news whatever of Canadians at the war office.”

Woodstock, Dec. 29.—As there is a possibility of the Woodstock Field Battery having to contribute its quota to the second Canadian contingent the officers of the battery say that they will have no difficulty in getting all the men required. Applications have been coming in from men who have taken courses at the gunnery school.

The second Canadian contingent offered by the Laurier government has been accepted by the Imperial authorities. It will consist of 1,044 men; 939 horses; 18 guns; 265 mounted police and other western men; 265 from the Royal dragoons and militia cavalry regiments; 513 from permanent artillery corps and militia field artillery.

There are eleven cavalry regiments from which to draw a squadron and a half. The 8th Hussars of St. John will furnish a quota; and out of 17 field batteries Woodstock, Sydney, and Newcastle are to be called upon.

The contingent will get away from Halifax about January the 15th. The Parisian will be one of the transports.

THE GAOL QUESTION.

In regard to the county jail case the defendants in the injunction matter have through their attorney A. B. Connell demurred, and the demurrer has been allowed by the Judge on the ground that the plaintiff, Dr. Curtis, did not sustain any special damage more than any other ratepayer, and therefore the suit should have been brought in the name of the attorney-general. The plaintiffs however have leave to convert his bill to a writ of mandamus within 40 days, so the case will stand as it is until after the meeting of the Council.

Good Organization.

C. J. Miligan, Liberal organizer for New Brunswick, who has been holding meetings in Queens county during the past two weeks, has been meeting with good success. On Monday evening he held a meeting at Gagetown and he and Hon. L. P. Ferris spoke on the issues of the day. The meeting was presided over by Mr. John W. Dickey, parish vice-president for the Liberal association. At the close of the meeting organization was effected and committees for the parish appointed.

Sundry Notes.

John Barnett, jr., has arrived home to spend his Christmas holidays.

C. A. McDorman of the Peoples' Bank left yesterday to spend his holidays at his home in Great Village, N. S.

A mass meeting in connection with the Twentieth Century Movement of the Methodist Church of Canada will, D. V. be held in Hartland Church on Wednesday Jan 3, 1900.

Rev. W. H. Spargo of Centreville and Rev. James Crisp of Jacksonville are both expected to be present and give the addresses of the evening. The deputation is a good one. The subject is an interesting one. Come all who can.

A Belgium Christmas Legend.

The children of Belgium have a charming Christmas legend about Santa Claus' pony. They always place their wooden sabots on the window ledge, stuffed full of oats, hay and fodder for the “dear Christmas pony.” In the early morning they run on tiptoe to look, and behold, the hay is all gone, and the shoes are brimming over with toys and sweetmeats! Then the children clap their hands with glee and wished they could have only waked in time to see the pony munching his oats. That would have been much fun.—Ella F. Mosby in St. Nicholas.

THE CHRISTMAS DISPLAYS.

Stores Finely Decorated—Good Bargains Given.

Although the stocks of Christmas goods put in by the merchants have been greatly depleted by the liberal buying of the past week, there is still enough left in each store to make a fine and inviting array. There is only today left in which to make purchases for Christmas and doubtless the merchants will be kept hustling. The trade this season has been away in excess of last year.

Keith & Plummer have beautiful window displays, managed by their clerks I. A. J. Ward, and Miss Bessie Aiton. All along their store has been a bower of attractions, being artistically arranged with arches, chains, wreaths, etc. They have been showing an elegant line of goods.

Shaw & Dibblee's hardware store is also finely decorated, the work of J. A. Fowle, the color scheme being red and white. In the window is the Hartland bridge in miniature. On the bridge is a team loaded with tacks which is very suggestive, as the future bridge will be a toll one. They have been showing at this store a lot of nice things suitable for Christmas presents—lamps seem to have been a specialty with them, as a great many fine ones were displayed.

The children are greatly pleased to see old Santa Claus, who has taken his stand in J. T. G. Carr's window. It revives their fast sinking belief that he is a reality, as one youngster was overheard to exclaim “See, there he is; I knew he wasn't a hoax. I'm going to be awful good now as I want a new sled.” Mr. Carr has been showing a great variety of well assorted goods.

And so it has been all along the street, at Richardson's, Watsons, Thorntons, Campbell & Nixon's, Bakers, Porter & Son's, all have been offering large and beautiful displays of holiday goods, such as have not been shown here for years, if ever.

Estey & Curtis and C. Humphrey Taylor have shown displays the equal of their competitors across the street. The former offer special bargains from now to clear out their stock, while at the latter store if you want the latest thing in neckties call there.

At Chase's there is a grand display in fruits, candies, nuts, tobacco, cigars, canned goods, etc., and everyone who buys 10 cents worth is entitled to guess how many pieces of candy are in a quart jar on his show case. The one guessing nearest will be presented with a fine clock.

Miss A. M. Gray at the Ladies' Emporium has had a fine exhibition of fancy goods, imported and home made, which she has been selling at very reasonable rates. Her store is tastily arranged.

The Advertiser Free.

Two weeks ago an announcement appeared to the effect that this paper would be sent free for six months to any person who would send the addresses of five people who once were residents of Carleton or Victoria counties, and who now live elsewhere. This offer is still open. A large number of names have already been received. By the way, what a nice present the Advertiser would make for the absent friends.
