

Glassville,

FOR ONE DAY ONLY.

Rutherglen.

A Pie sociable was held at this romantically named settlement, on August 30th, for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a stove for the I. O. G. T. Lodge held there. As usual there was a fine display of Pies, Cakes, and other triumphs of the culinary art, and which when sold know how we were fixed for berries. realized good prices, Mr. Jud. Milberry, Berries, both black and straw and rasp, auctioned off the pies &c. while Messrs. E. Spence, and G. Elliott, were assistant and clerk. The proceeds obtained by the sale amounted to the respectable sum of seventeen dollars, and forty-five cents, a sum sufficient to buy a good stove, that will help to keep the aquatic people of Rutherglen from freezing, while attending their teetotal soirces during the coming winter. After the sale, when "The flawns and the custards, had all disappeared" dance followed, and to the enlivening music discoursed by two violinists, the young people thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and had what they describe as a Good Time.

Mrs. and Miss Maggie Elliott, of St. John, are on a visit here at present.

Biggar Ridge.

On the 5th. inst. A Pic-nic was held at Biggar Ridge in connection with the day and sunday schools. The day being par- form and void. ticularly bright and warm, there was a large number of visitors, at one time in the afternoon about two hundred guests had assembled from the surrounding locality, and at the refreshment tables did Staten Island ferryboat-you couldn't ample justice to the bounteous cheer the always tell whether it was going over to generous people of the neighbourhood, Staten Island or returning. had gratuitously provided for their visit- She was a merry little mountain maid. heir annual Fete Champetre.

A Merry Mountain Maid. BY BILL NYE.

It is now that everything is in full leaf in this country. A young woman a trifle over 7 feet high comes to my slosh on the French Broad and sells me berries. Once my wife was away, and I did not are sold here at 5 cents a big quart and hulled ready for the table at that. They are good all summer.

"Sit down on the porch, Birdie," I said "and converse."

She sat down, but still remained taller than I was. I never saw a longer waisted person or one who was so uniformly of one size all the way down, as my friend Comstock says-not Anthony, but another man altogether. She had a chest the room was cleared and the inevitable like a grasshopper, and as she sat there with her long sad face, reminding me of a horse with a sunbonnet on, I said to myself: "Shall I buy these berries and let her go home or wait till my wife comes and discovers us conversing and then remains for ever unhappy? Shall I break up our happy home or not?"

She looked hungry too. She was. would say that, regarding her from Scriptural standpoint, she was without

The red bugs seemed to annoy her a good deal about the ancles. That is how I came to learn that her calves were on the front side. She reminded me of they will never laugh, and he will never get asphyxiated unless some neighbour in the feud business ,asphyxiates him with a double barrel shotgun, and their lives will be as even and devoid of incident as they would be in a penitentiary.

Something in Prospect.

A ragged coloured boy about 12 years old sat on the sidewalk in the full glare of the noonday sun with his back against the board fence. A very solid old mau, walking with great dignity, came along and halted to look the urchin over and inquire.

"Boy, hain't I dun seen yo' sumwhar befo'? Hain't yo' de widder Taylor's son?

"Yes," was the reply.

"An what yo' loafin round yere in this fashun fur?"

"Am dat yo'r bizness?" saucily demanded the boy.

"Am it? Am it? Waal, I should declar to reckon it was!"

"What yo' got ter do 'bout it?"

"What I got to do 'bout it? Why, boy yo' doan' 'pear to know me! Permit me to interduce myself as the gem'lan who has bin co'rtin yo'r mudder fur de las' three weeks an who's dun gwine to marry her dis eavenin and become yo'r stepfadder! Look out fur me 'bout 7 o'clock tomorrer mawnin, boy! I'ze gwine to begin at dat airly hour to make yo' wish you'd nebber bin born in dis here state of Alabama to show yo'r peartness!"

GLASSVILLE. COURT FORESTEER'S 245 BALL And Sociable, Will be held under the auspices of the above Court, in the CALEDONIAN HALL, Glassville. On MONDAY OCTOBER 9th. 1893. An Efficient BAND will attend. Under the Leadership of Mr. DYER. A FEW DOSES OF THE I have also a Nice Assortment of TADE MARK) C Price 25c. 8 packages $1.00. PAXTON BAIRD, Proprietor ors and friends. From the shouts of joy I think they call her about here Splayfoot sent forth by the juveniles, and the bea- Sal, but it may be another girl who gaming smiles of the adults, we may ven- there berries and goes by that name. I am Mr. Henry Lovely, has a new son, so has to say that all enjoyed the day's outing, not sure. She is the Tarheel Sequoia of Mr. Peter Quinn, while Mr C Stockford, we did however, and hope we may have Ticktown. It would do you good to see has had a daughter added to his family a repetition of that pleasure, when the her guileless ways. Some day she wil circle. genial folk of Biggar Ridge, again hold marry a low set man with eleven dogs and they will live on wild cucumbers and blackberries and rear their young, and

VOODSTOCK. N.B.

Since our last number was published New Settlers have continued to arrive,

I would like to call the attention of my numerous Customers, and the Public generally to the FINE LINE OF TOILET SOAPS,

I am now carrying in stock, consisting of--

GLYCERINE. BABYS OMN. CUTICURA. CASTILE, OATMEAL, SKODA'S GERMAN. INRD SORTS TR STAR

Shaving Soaps, Razors, Strops, Perfumery. COMBS. BRUSHES. &C.

At my usual LOW PRICES.

F. B. Thomas, Glassville. HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR COUNTRY PRODUCE.

