Personal.

His Lordship Bishop Rogers went to Bathurst Friday last.

Mr. W. Chipman of Amherst, was in town to-day.

An Old Resident Gone.

On Sunday last Mrs Peter Coughlin died at her residence in the lower end of teen thousand milesfrom us, the ship their soulders. town. She came to this Province about sails around the stormy Cape of Good Hope 30 years ago from P. E. I., and was in a slight sketch of the voyage and what I crawled into one of these traps by a little her 77th year.

The State of Times.

for the past few weeks in Chatham has getting upon its feet. Money again begins to ci ulate.

Not Recovered.

break not being healed.

A Voyage to Calcutta.

We pub'ish in another column an exstalments, and also to write us what he non at our daring to venture upon their use of which I af erward discovered.

The Cathedral Choir.

Brothers, a new choir has been formed at the stern of our noble ship until she the pro-Cathedral. It embraces a number peared to be plunging into the tumbling of very sweet and powerful female voices, good basses and tenors, which with prac- her lifting her bow upon its angry top until tice give still greater promise. At the jib boom pointed far up into the murky vespers Sunday the new choir for the first time sang, and the singing was excellent. the v. els threw us in two different

St. Michael's College. Since the departure of the Christian Brothers, noted in a previous issue, the above College has been closed. While after this there was very little change, the nothing has been definitely settled yet with regard to the Brothers' seccessors, Good Hope, we fell in with great numbers we have been informed that his Lordship of Albatross and Cape Pigeons, the latter Hon. M. Adams, R. A. Lawlor, John R. the full undergraduate course, students entertains the hope to have the College opened in a few weeks, under the man- the feet, which were webbed. They flew Park, of Newcastle. agement of a priest, and of the instruction of ecclesiastics. We join in the general wish that the hope may be realized.

Cranberries.

vesting cranberries, which are said to be which were of immense size. Passing up numerous in that locality. There is a by Madagascar and Bourbon we sighted the large trade in the exportation of cran- latter, and not long afterwards entered the berries from this Continent to the Old World carried on every year from the State's seaports, and cranberry raising in the change of the monsoons which "epresent many parts has become an important industry. We understand parties have mense tidal waves up the mouths of the foreman, were addressed by His Honor, Temperance Act, viz., John Jameison, applied to the Local Government for Ganges inundating, and destroying villages several acres of cranberry bog, not far from Moncton, on the Intercolonial.

No Sign.

Buildings like the lunatic assylum and the penetentiary never have the name both in Calcutta. Not many days after the sentment of any and all matters which of the establishment over the entrance, eyclone, we took a pilot on board who was for the reason that people without facilities find their way there soon enough; coat. He came on board with an assistant, views carried into effect. The Jury the law, it is better surely in the obserbut a building where the public two leadsmen, and a servant. The pilot resort, and where nigh every stranger coming to town has some business, certain number of pilots who remain out for sentment. They were then discharged, should be indicated by a sign board. a fixed time and then return to Calcutta and the Court adjourned till the after-See the Chatham Post Office—not a are paid salary by Government and noon. letter above it—See the stranger gazing the pilotage fees which they receive go into at every building and begging his way the Government coffers. Our particular pilot of the public to the Post Office. We is no sign board above the post office, but whoever is responsible will please consider this paragraph a rebuke.

Military Matters.

The Chatham Battery completed its annual rifle practice on Monday. All the officers and most of the men were present on this very important occasion. The day was none of the best for rifle shooting, it being too windy. Ye's even and very low lying coast, hardly visible as Pailadelphia-L. J. Tweedie and S. R. in spite of the breeze, some of the we passed it. We were now fairly into the scores were very good, not a few also being bad. On the whole the shooting was pretty good, and had the target been a man, said individual would have gone home badly, though not perhaps mortally crippled. We may say however, nobody stood before the target, and it was just as well. Sergeant Andrew Hay, won the Mitchell larly beautiful appearance. The gentle-Cup with a score of 71 points. He also highest scores hade :-

Sergeant Andrew Hay,	71
Bombardier T. D. Johnstone,	67
Corporal D. Paterson.	64
Lieut. Col. Gillespie,	61
Gunner Daly,	49
do. Frost,	48
do. Fitzpatrick,	39
Corporal Ferguson,	39
Asst. Surgeon Baxter,	34
Gunner Gammon,	35
do. Ross	24
In the evening the compan	y had a
1 'm' . Alamina in the Magor	leH oic

brilliant gathering in the Masonic Hall, erally white stone steps leading down into something like 120 couple being present. the water, so that boats can come close to The arrangements reflected credit on the Pattery and the evening's treat was one | seen before in my travels and I anticipated of lighthearted young people who tripped it lightly till about 1 o'clock at exit on the street was a large white arch on Contract Awarded. night.

STAR BRIEFS.

-Parties are remodelling the old post office into a law office for Mr A.A. Davidson, Jr., of Newcastle. Mr David. more familiar with it afterward. son is going to practise in law in Chatham. We wish him every success.

A VOYAGE TO CALCUTTA What I Saw There.

At the time Cooper, the celebrated American novelis', was writing his pleasing can see what I beheld, romances, Calcutta, indeed I might say the whole of India, was terra incognita to the seen and find out all that was to be known; people of the provinces. But now, with he and accordingly I a cended among these ships of New Brunswick ploughing every sea and carrying off the palm for rapidity of sailing as the Marco Polo has done, Calcutt; seems to have drawn nearer by many the drivers constituted the horses also --- in many miles. land of date and tiger jungle, some seven - which the bearers carry it, resting it on saw there might have some interest for lattice door near the head and found a pillow

The stringency of the money market ship of about a thousand tons burden; there dow which made a slight draught of wind passed away. The ships are beginning second cabin passengers numbered twenty, picked up their conveyance and started; to drop in now, and business is again and consisted mostly of mechanics, with a and such a start! The thing swung and poor exile took his last fond look.

remembered, since Mr Edward Hackett the officers capable men who understood usual gait. We had not gone far when a Morrison's mill. From that day to this of the landsman's terror, "mal de mere," I with large dark eyes about the same com-saw during a two years stay in Florida. domain! Never will I forget the ccene as groaning of the spar , the hoarse orders of the officer in charge, and the rushing of the NORTHUMBERLAND CIRCUIT waters as wave after wave of fearful height Since the departure of the Christian looking as if about to engulf us, raised first mass, se rehing for a rest at the bottom, and again as the secrolled further under sky. It was hard work keeping ones feet, for not only the rolling but the plunging of di sions as it were at the same time, I gazed with admiration at the officers and men who with "their sea legs on" went bout their duty as composedly as a mercha it wou'd walk to his office. For some time ship passing St. Helena without our getting a sight of it; but on rounding the Cape of remarkably pretty, little birds resembling our tame pigeon in every respect excepting and circled around the ship in such close proximity that numbers were shot with our revolvers. The Albatross we caught by putting a piece of meat upon a hook which with a float attached to it, we fastened to a Matthew Russell, John J. Brown, line and let it trail astern. The birds flew at it in great numbers and fought to gain the coveted morsel until one made himself Alex. H. Gillis, The women of Neguac are busy har- the possessor, and was hauled on board. D. G. Smith. The third mate stuffed several of these birds Joseph Lyons, Bay of Bengal, where we encountered a

> These fearful hurricanes come on during the trade winds in the Atlantic, and often produce direful consequence, sending imand causing great loss of life. The one which we were unfortunate enough to meet throw the ship, upon her beam ends and carried away our whole suit of sails, but dealt still more hardly with two ships near us, dismasting both. They eventualy rigged quite a swell. wore a gold band around his are stationed in brig rigged vessels which to be replaced by others. They seemed determined to take life as easy as possible. A table was brought out for him know not by whose carelessness there under the awning on the quarter deck, on which his servant placed fruit and wine. Seating himself near this and smoking his "bubble bubble," he gave instructions to his assistant, who informed me that he was born in Calcutta, but that his parents were English. The assistant then took charge of the ship, going to his principal for instruclead lines which they kept continually going, College and Church burnt here in 1877. calling out the sounding in Hindostanee in a most dismal and melancholy voice. The tu; near here we steamed slowly up the ontinually shifting. As we secended the river the scenery presented was both new and picturesque, being as defined in policy. entirely tropical, Diamond Harbor, a large widening in the river, presenting a particu- Co. of Providence, R. I. -L. J. Tweedie men's places of residence on each side of the and S. R. Thompson pro Plffs; C. A. river, embowered in tropical growth and Palmer and C.W. Weldon pro Dft. carried of the Subscription Cup present entirely eastern in their appearance, were ed by Sergt. May with the same respec- charming; each had an embowered walk table score. The following are the leading to the river and ending in a flight E. P. Williston pro Plff; A.A. Davidson of steps off which lay a gaudily painted boat pro Dft. manned by natives in their Eastern costume Thomas points. ready at a moment's notice to take any member of the family upon the river. Over the stern of each boat was a brilliantly colored Plff; Wm. Wilkinson pro Dft. awning to protect the passengers from the rays of the tropical sun. But our tug boat would not wait for us to admire the scenery; so on we steamed and ere long were snugly Plffs; Adams & Lawlor pro Df.] This moored in front of Calcutta, one of the is an action for trespass, tedious to hear greatest ports in the world. I shall not give the size and population for the geography has done that so often that it is getting There being no wharves, I hailed a dingy wallah or boatman to take me ashore and while he was coming off I amused myself rather streets running at the heads of the Ghants or landing places. These are genthe a and passengers land dryshod. Everything was entirely different from all I had Eastern life. My dingy wallah soon landed Dfts. Hearing by Judge's order. me at a Ghant at the top of which at the which stood out in bold letters the word Princeps. This I at first supposed was because it was the principal one, but I after- Bridge has been awarded to John Mc wards found out that it was erected as a Lauglin, of Chatham, for $675,00,sort of memorial of a wealthy and popular merchant, Mr Princeps, and the place bore

Immediately upon landing my ears were saluted with cries of Palkee, Sahib: Palkees where the sound came from and if you can imagine a lot of cabmen at a railway station with nothing on but a piece of white cotton around their waists, the remainder of their bodies stained dark and highly varnished and the tops of their heads covered with narrow turbans; then in imagination you

But I had come to see all that was to be clamorous Jehus. The carriages that they drove differed from the usual conveyance so alled in that they had no wheels and that

Having no knowledge of Hindostanee, I your readers. My story shall not be is upon which I laid my head, stretching my-Lusiad, having little of the Cam oens n self out at full length and placing my hat on a very great reading people. Besides I said as little about him as I could. We left Boston in a fine American clipper of my head was a small latticed door or winwere but two first cabin passengers, a gen- across my face. The bearers made no entleman from Nova Scotia and myself. The quiry regarding my place of destination but groceries for; and Mr. Cropley uses it told us from the pulpit that it was not nesprinkling of better educated persons whose swayed; I shouted, Stop! but there is no means did not allow of their taking first such word in the Hin dostance dictionary -- I erbin passage. Having a fine breeze we am satisfied of that. On they went and I soo lost sight of the land, at which many a made up my mind to die like an Indian hero without a sign when the motion grad-The captain was a gentleman and a thor- ually settled down into a regular and rather | The poor adverb has fallen rather I may mention that before Rev. Dr their duty and were prepared to do it. As sudden halt ensued and the little door at my he has been confined to his house, the felt that we were leaving under very happy plexion and wardrobe as my bearer presented himself to view. Sahi', he said in In about a week from the time of leaving very good English, do you want an inter- contact with the bottom of a sooty pot. we entered the Gulf Stream. This was no- preter? I hired him on the spot. Where I do not say it does not mean the particeable from the change in the appearance | go? he asked. At first I was rather nonof the water and the difference in the ten- plussed for I hadn't any idea myself where pe aure. Here we experienced our first I was going, but remembering that I had graver knows best. The most romancellent letter written for us by a gentle- storm. What a scene of grandeur the sea lost my cloth cap on the voyage out I told man now in Fredericton, who has spent presented as its mighty billows were lashed him I wished to buy a new one. On which many years in Calcutta. He has promised to give us three or four other inised to give us three or four other in- magnificent strength as if they felt indig- carried a small riding whip in his hand, the

TO BE CONTINUED.

COURT.

The Northumberland Circuit, His Honor Judge Duff presiding, opened vou go to Andover on that "fishing trip" yesterday, Tuesday, at 10 p. m. A good there will be a fair held at Stanley. tion could not know what was inspired, many persons at the opening of the Cir- We must note that crooked hemlock on and what was not inspired: it required one cuit gather about the Court, and in this the way which you remarked last year, who knew Greek and Latin. Now, Sir, vesterday was no exception. There is would make such a good monument for with all these facts and many others which always a fair legal array, and yesterday a certain crooked politician in St. John. I could mention, which are well known in might be noticed S. R. Thompson, C. W. The Methodist folk hold a tea meeting the community, would any sane man say Weldon, R. F. Quigley, L. L. B., Dr. in the church, Covered Bride, the 15th. that he never said anything about inspira-Barker and Chas. A. Palmer, of St John; instant. Wm. Wilkinson, L. J. Tweedie, A. D. Johnson, J. J. Harrington and R. B. the next Academical years begins on Adams, of Chatham; A. A. Davidson, Thursday, 16th inst. For admission to Maltby, James P. Mitchell and Wm. A. will be examined in the Greek and Latin following persons :-John Fish,

John D. Creaghan, Robert Tweedie, Alex. McFarlane, Jas. Russell, Jas. J. Pierce, Thomas Lawlor, H. P. Marquis, John Ferguson, Wm. Cliff, William Robinson, James Brown,

M. I. Thompson, Thomas Dempsey. The Grand Jury, having elected James Brown, Esq., of Newcastle, as their who said he was glad to say he had been informed by the High Sheriff and Clerk Bradley, $50, and Andrew Holland, $50 of the Crown that there was no criminal business to take up their attention. It retired and after the lapse of an hour, lie outside Sangor Island each carrying a they returned to court, without a pre-

The following is a list of the Civil

-A.A. Davidson pro Plff; Adam & Law-

The R. C. Bishop of Chatham vs. the Western Assurance Company-Willet & proving. Quigley, Dr. Barker and Wm. Wilkinson pro Piff; I. Allen Jack and S.R. Thomotions when required. The leadsmen were son pro Dft. This suit is entered by placed one on each side of the ship with His Lordship for insurance due on the

R. R. Call, Wm. Muirhead, Jr., and Hoogley, one of the mouths of the Ganges, Thompson pro Plffs; C. A. Palmer and and up which, a hundred miles froms its C. W. Weldon pro Dft. This suit is nouth, es the city of Calcutta. Taking a brought to recover insurance on the tug river, still keeping the lead going on each Sultan lost near River John on the N. S. side of us, as the channel in this river is coast. The ground for refusal is alleged departure from prescribed sailing route

R. R. Call, et. al., vs. P.W. Insurance

James Robinson vs. Scott Fairley-

Thomas Dickens and John Lohan vs. Jabez B. Snowball -- L. J. Tweedie pro

John McDonald and Mary McDonald vs. Neill McDougall-A. D. Johnson pro and tiresome to print-

James Robinson vs. Chas. C. Watt-Adams & Lawlor pro Plff; A.A. Davidson

Jas. Desmond, Jr., vs. Jas. Desmond, watching the crowded bank of the river, or | Sr. -A. H. Johnson pro Plff; Adams & Lawlor pro Dft.

In Equity:--

Wallace and Emily Wallace -A. A. on the public streets, coming under your of much enjoyment to the large number great pleasure in taking a close look at Davidson pro Plff; E. P. Williston pro Police eye take the offenders names,

The contract for John O'Bear Creek about one month ago, but the lowest bid was $1,500. This was not accepted on means Palanquin. I looked up the step the ground of extravagance.

Notes From the Capital.

The Cipital has appeared and as is usual always with the first issue of a paper, or like a bride appearing out for the first time, it was at its very best The editor and proprieter as I predicted intend having the people of the Capital go largely into manufacture. It is not ever he said in the pulpit or out of the sta'ed what sort of industries they will pulpit that the scriptures were not all inrave started, as there is a difference of spired. I will not trouble you with any fac a palanquin was just a long coffin-like opinion as to which would be most pro- proofs, it being so well known and said in But to the trip. As in reaching that hot box with a pole protruding from each end by fitable, between Mr. Lugrin, and Mr. the hearing of the whole congregation, Cropley. The paper is to be sent up and lengthily commented on. Those who as far as Caribou, and sold there tri- believed his word before their bible, will weekly. The people of Caribon are in this denial have a bitter pill to swalmuch interested in Fredericton, and are low. We will see how they get it down. a little shelf above the pillow. On each side the town now can't be much smaller l'o justify my own character, I feel comthan Bangor. Mr. A. A. Sterling, pelled to give some more reasons for business circles; he is also worried that and with many more strange expressions lumber has "fallen or in quantity." -- that I shall not trouble you with. town, an ice-oerg, or the result of liament buildings, for it may. The en while bathing at the Flats opposite the summer. Ice never spoils.

On the 28th of this month, the day then they might have the majority.

THE UNIVERSITY. The first term of The Grand Jury was composed of the Commentaries, the first two books of the Eneid, the first book of the Odes of Arthur A. Underhill, Horace and the first book of Iliad; in Arithmetic, Algebra to Qualratic Equations, and the first four books of Euclid; in English Grammar and Composition,

History and Geography. Capital. A PARLOR CONCERT was held at Dr. Rand's some evenings ago. Mr William Wilson and Miss Fannie Richards, Mrs. Dr. Currie and Miss Prulie Hartt sang charmingly well, without fatnotos

A NUMBER of parties have been fined here of late for violation of the Canada fined $50; Thos. Hackett, $50; Patrick Jamieson and Holland left town quickly and forget, some say, to pay the fine. was, nevertheless, their duty, as the grand | There is no doubt had either of them jury masts and we afterwards saw them inquest of the County, to make a pre- thought of it, they would not have left without paying it. As to these fines they thought ought to receive attention, I am glad those who violate the law are hat and gold buttons upon his naval cut and he (His Honor) would have their brought to light and punished. But as to vance than the breach.

Newcastle Local Items.

HOUGHTHECOUNTY,

The Steam Dredge St. Lawrence has been here the last few days undergoing Richard Hutchison vs. Edward Sinclair some slight repairs. She is lying at Calls wharf.

> Clement Ryan the boy who was injured by the bursting of a gun is imcolonials of Moncton and our town club the logs appeared to be from dead trees. was decided on the result of the first Lifting up the bark adhering to the log, inning, owing probably to the lateness of he found the remains of beetles between the hour when Newcastle finished their it and the solid wood, The insect which first land made was Sangor Island, a long J. Saddler vs. Union Insurance Co. of second innings. The playing of the latter club in this inning was considered the bark and the tree, and attacks trees 50 doz. Men's Drawers and somewhat better, than in the former, which are apparently healthy and sound. although the score was not as large viz: while the ordinary borer attacks only Bought before they went up in price and 34. Special mention should be made of the dead or dying. Dr. Hough left the magnificent batting of Fairey in the Fredericton on Saturday morning for first inning when he rolled up his score | Caribou, whence he will proceed to the of 30. Currie of the Intercolonials who St Francis. On his route he will obtain went to the bat first ran up a score of all the information which he may require 15, in which he showed some fine hitting. to indicate the exact localities on the head In the evening the teams with a few of St John River where the spruce trees friends sat down to an oyster supper are either dead or dying, and we may served up in Fay's usual style. After expect some valuable information on this the table was cleared, speeches, songs, subject. Canada will occupy more than etc., filled up the time until the arrival 200 pages of the Dr's forthcoming of the Express. The visitors spoke highly Forestry report which will be published 30 of the manner in which they had been at Washington early in the approaching treated. They will probably issue a winter. challenge for a return match to be played to A few weeks ago we published in the at Moncton this fall.

WHILE many of our citizens blame Policeman Cassidy for neglect of duty, all parties agree that our police force to-day is inadequate to cope with the rowdyism of our young bloods. It is unreasonable to expect one policeman to be in half a dozen places at one and the same time, yet he could do much more than he has been in the habit of doing. I would suggest the following course to Mr. Cassidy .- Don't arrest unless you find it safe and absolutely necessary; but in Wm. Quinn vs. James Wallace, Wm. all cases of drunkeness, profanity, noise make complaint before the magistrate, and if you can prove the charge, let the fine be enforced.

In this way you could do something in the line of duty-and perhaps cause the A Street Concert. roughs to be afraid of you-and at the a saving of $845.00 to the Government. same time not be so frightened yourself. the name of Princeps's Ghant. I became This same bridge was sold at auction Last Sunday night the shouting and charge of the lower end of town Monday swearing of some of the roughs on the night. They sang songs, etc; and the streets was disgraceful. Such a state of police were polite enough not to disturb affairs should not be tolerated.

Communications.

THE BIBLE AND THE PRESBYTERY.

To the Editor of the STAR. Sir, -I see our Minister denies that gives a statement of what he sells his withdrawing from his teachings. He as a Market report. The Editor is much cessary to observe the Subbath as of old. "impressed" he says with the " all He saw no harm when we met together to PREVAIDING feeling of uncertainty" in talk over our wordly affairs, etc., etc.,

It is just about a year ago, it will be ough sai'o; though rather a martinet, and pleasant motion, as the bearers got their off in quantity too, don't you think so?] Jardine and a number of others in the They publish a cut of the parliament church, he attacked me for not coming broke his thigh while working in Mr A. I had been much on the sea and had no fear head was opened. A handsome little fellow buildings something very novel. It to church, he said he had told the Dr. might be taken to reprsent a village, a of our difference and the Dr. fully agreed with him, I said if he still held those views and those were the Doctor's views.

> I would not come tohear neither him nor the Doctor. MAKEROK 11180110

A day or two after he called at our tic part of the view is. that it represents house and told me before a stranger that the members of the Presoytery agreed to discuss the question of inspiration, and On the afternoon of the 7the Willie that he wrote out his views fully and Clark, son of Henry Clark, was drowned clearly and that they were highly approved of by the most learned and etc, RA & J Stewart. talented of the presbytery. He said to be The water is so low that Mr. Ruel will candid, that if the vote had been taken likely have to keep his ice over till next then, they might have been in the minority, but it was to be further discussed and

He said that a min of common edica-

He says I should have brought my grievance before the presbytery. If they ere what he represents, I wouldn't have got much satisfaction there, but I have chosen to judge him by the bible, whether Grammars, the first book of Casar's it pleases him or not, and I think it's there where the shoe pinc.es. I will not trouble you with any remarks on the rest sition of the vessel as reported, by the of his letter: probably I should thank pilots, it is feared she will be a total him for the great concern he has for my

> I can assure him I wish him spiritually and temporally well. It is not a very pleasant subject to write upon, and I hope it will not be necessary for me to trouble you any more on the subject. I thank you for the space I have taken up, and I remain, 1071811123

> > Yours, very truly,

OVE WHO BELIEVES IN THE BIBLE.

THE MYSTERIOUS BLAST UPON OUR SPRUCE FORESTS EXPLAINED.

sioner, Dr F. B. Hough, who is connected with the Department of Agriculture at Washington, has been in Fredericton for a few days, collecting information as to to the terrible pest that is ravaging our spruce forests, and which bids fair to annihilate this valuable wood. Dr Hough visited Mr Gibson's mills and premises with the general appearance of which he was much pleased. In company with Messrs Pugh and E. Jack, he went up to the pond and on the boom, where The Cricket Match between the Inter he remarked that nearly 25 per cent, of In Men's, Youth's and Boy's. This lot com-

> Fredericton Star an account of the mysterious blast that had falled upon some of our most valuable spruce forests. portions of the Nashwaak lands you might trace, for several miles in length, and of a great width, this strange disease, 90 pcs. PRINTED COTTONS, which seemed to paralyze and kill every sound tree in its track. And, as if its mission were merely to destroy what was 500 bundles Parks St. John healthy and serviceable, it passed without 1 contact with trees dying from other causes. This strange disease appeared only a few years ago, but since that time it has puzzled our lumbermen, many of istorge and will be found WELL ASSORTED. whom have told us of the blasted districts My Motto is, "Quick Sales and Small which run through the forest land. Now however the cause is known if the know | BOOTS, SHOES and RUBBERS, a fine stock ing mends the case, sugar 1817 & 37A 723 JA

A party of not less than 20 took Northumberland Circuit.

(Special to STAR.)

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 15. Call, Muirhead and Sadler. vs. Union Insurance Company. Verdict for de-

James Robinson, vs. Scott Fairley, has just been called on.

hand a PORT OF NEWGASTLE.

ENTERED. Sept. 8 - bk Haabet, 421, Halvorsen, Freenock, bal. R A & J Stewart.

bk Gustav, 417, Roir, Newry, bal, R A &J Sept. 9-Shirner, 406, Keith, Arendal, bal. R Ask J Stewart.

bgte Hunnih G, 247, Elgar, Maryport,

Sept 10-bk Langet, 538. Peterson, Rotterdam, bal, R A & J Stewart. Sept 11 bk Saturn 480, Simosen, Borux, bal, R A & J Stewart. Sept 14 -bk Bella . Gaditana, 740, Probeck, Liverpool, bal, R A & J Stewart. bk Fledora, 774, Carter, London bal, R &

Ritchie & Co. Sept 8-bk Passat 686, Pedersen, Tunis, deals, etc. R A & J. Stewart. Sept 10 -- brig Ahto, 634, Sahlstrom, Fleetwood, deals, etc., R & J Ritchie & Co. Sept 11---bk Constatia, 439, Kaselson, Larne, deals, etc., R H raison. 5k Lammergier, 679, Whitesile, Belfast, deals, etc. R Hatchison. Sept 13 -- Progress, 349, Olsen, Caen, deals, ete, R A & J Stewart

Sept 14-Paul, 378, Klatt, Liverpool, deals,

PORT OF CHATHAM.

ENTERED. Sept 15 -- b's Oscar II, 520, Nichaelsen, Liverpool, bal order. bk Ellen Grant, 530, Johannesen, London, bal Gay, Bevan & Co. bk Brookville, 837, Barry, Liverpool bal Wm Muirhead bk La Plata, 396 Henducksen, Newry, bal Guy, Bevan & Co.

CLEARED. Sept 11--bk Norton, Dunn, Belfast, Deals, J B Snowball. 15 -- bk Ploymanden, Hansen, London deals bk Therese, Hansen, Hall, deals, Guy,

-The Swedesh barque, " Sago," 455 tons, Schoerspane master from Liverpool, with a cargo of salt, iron, tin plates, etc., for J. B. Snowball; went ashore on the reef of Escuminac light, this morning, 13 th inst. From the powreck. The tug "Gladiator" with two schooners has gone to her assistance.

The United States Forestry Commis Ladies' Long Jackets.

They are nicely cut and beautifully

275 03105.1 Men's Reefing Jackets and OVERCOATS

The best value ever shown in Miramichi.

1500 Tweed and Worsted Coats. Pants and Vests.

prises the be ta prement of CLOTHING ever see 1 in Miramichi, and every person can get suited at prices to please themseves.

Linders, will be sold low.

75 White, Oxford and Flannel SHIRTS, As low as 40 cents, and all will be sold cheap to clear them out.

30 pes. White, Scarlet Grey and Lama Flannels. SPLENDID VALUE.

pcs. Black and Coloured Lustres. Cashmeres. French Merinoes, &c., &c., &c.,

Must and will be sold low. 75 pes. Grey & White Cottons As cheap as ever.

Cemmencing at 6 cents per yard.

WARPS, At lowest price.

My stock of STAPLE and FANCY DRY GOODS

Profits." A good assortment Choice Gro.

CHEAP CASH STORE.

ceries, Yankee Notions, Hardware, Jewellry, Paraffine

Lamps, Oils, etc.

JAMES BROWN. Newcastle, Sept 11, 1880,