The London Times says the time has now come when Lord Derby may be expected to take his position among the leaders of the Liberal party, and bear the responsibility for the inception and conduct of the policy he supports.

Squire Thomas B. Williston, has arrived in his packet "Bell," with general cargo, from Bay du Vin. It consists of potatoes, fresh bass, salmon, and dead owls for the St. John Taxidermist; also a large number of partridges. A couple of freight trains on the Great Western railway collided on Friday last at Glencoe, and the result was that three cars were smashed. Fortunately no lives were lost.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE IN ACTION.

The United States has time and again asserted her claim to be the arbiter in all international questions which may arise in the New World. The interference of any European power in the affairs of any state, either of North or South America, even when undertaken at the request of the state directly interested, has usually been regarded as an insult, if not an injury, by our great neighbour.

The price for provisions and fall produce is on the rise. Dry codfish was sold this week from $3.50 to $4.00 per quintal, and green codfish from $3.50 to $4.00 per bbl.
