

LOCAL MATTERS

Personal.
Inspector Venning left for St John by express on Thursday night.

Shooting Accident
On Friday of last week, Willie, son of Mr. John T. Cate, of Richibucto, was fooling with a revolver when it discharged into the side of his face. The doctors searched for the ball but did not find it. It was supposed to have lodged in the roof of his mouth. After the accident it was feared that the lad could not live; but he is now much better.

The Late Gale.
The late gale was so severe that the road from Neguac to Chatham was completely blocked with fallen trees and trees on Thursday last. The mail driver on Thursday had to carry an axe to chop his way along and by three o'clock he had only got to Oak Point, about ten miles from Chatham. We understand that it extended all along the Bay of Fundy, so much so, that vessels have not been able to make St. John harbor. In consequence of this there is not a barrel of apples to be got in the city for Holloween and the dealers are in a sad plight.

The Season.
The weather on Wednesday and Thursday last was very cold, raw and wintry like. In consequence of the heavy gale of wind the mills were idle because of the great sway a fire would have if it should break out, and owing to the wind interfering with the deal carriers. The gale was so heavy that it caused the river to be so rough that our passenger steam ferry boat had to lay up during Thursday. There was a great many branches broken off of trees and hay stacks tumbled over. The nights were so frosty that much ice formed and farmers had to stop ploughing because of the frost in the ground. In town during the day trade was dull and the stores closed earlier than usual.

Progressing.
We are pleased to notice that a part of the Medical Profession is making a step in the right direction, in prescribing alone instead of mixing their own medicines and stirring their own colds over the fire like the witches in MacBeth. It gives the Doctors more time to study and more time to devote to their patients while the Druggist does the compounding under his direction, as well or better. The public will also be able to actually get their medicine cheaper than formerly, as the Apothecary, buying the larger quantities can sell cheaper. We only regret that the movement is not general, but we have no doubt it will be so shortly.

Sudden Death
Last night a young man named Daniel Baorden quietly stepped away from his companions who were chatting near the house lately occupied by Mr. John Meaghan. He was not seen or heard of till Mrs. Marquis found him speechless but not quite dead, near Bain's old barn which is opposite her house. She had the young man immediately brought home and Dr. Baxter declared he had died of the bursting of a blood vessel in the right leg in which there was a large wound. On looking over the road he came, we found that from Meaghan's house to the barn, there was a train of blood which showed that the blood vessel had burst while he was at the corner and continued to pour until life was extinct. An inquest will be held to day on his body and he will be interred to-morrow. We sincerely sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

Concessions to Fishermen.
Bag-net fishing for smelt in the Miramichi river and its tributaries to commence on the 15th November and end on the 15th February, 1882. The Counties north and south of Northumberland to be governed likewise.
Main River of the Miramichi only, north and south of its channel, where bag net fishing for smelt is allowed, to be governed by one license only.

Bag net fishing for smelt allowed above Barst Church River bridge.
We have not the least doubt but that Inspector Venning, will, before next Autumn's bass fishing comes round, concede the right to fish bass in September, to the parishes of Glensig and Alnwick.

STAR BRIEFS.

Ladies stow away your poke-bonnets. Cold days and colder nights are now in order.
Merchants plant your advertisements in the Star for the coming fall trade.

Pictou shipped 3,966 tons of coal last week.

There was another earthquake at Agram on Sunday, and some houses were overthrown.

Thousands of squirrels have invaded the cornfields of North Carolina and are causing great injury.

The late Mr. Thomas Tiffen has left $60,000 to the Roman Catholic charities of Montreal.

The only happy ones over the present cold snap are the tinsmiths. As a consequence their trade is rushing, and householders are grumbling in proportion.

One of the six missing boats of the Dutch steamer Kenig Demederlander, which foundered, has been picked up in the Indian Ocean, and taken to Aden. It contained nineteen persons.

In the Spanish Cortes Monday last the Minister of Finance proposed a gradual reduction in the Customs tariff. He said Spain would renounce all existing commercial treaties on the promulgation of the new tariff, and conclude fresh conventions on the basis of the proposed reduction. Nations having no trade with Spain would not participate in the advantages of the new tariff. Spain at the same time reserved to herself the right of imposing additional import duties upon foreign productions imported by sea, which are also produced in Spain, and the introduction of which is calculated to prejudice her interests.

In the possession of a member of the Berkeley family, of England, is a ring composed of a large emerald surrounded by diamonds. This once belonged to the famous Admiral Sir Cloudesly Shovel, who owned the Scilly Islands in his waltz in 1707. On her deathbed an old woman sent for the parson, to whom she revealed that she had murdered the Admiral, whom she found in a state of exhaustion on the shore for the plunder. The parson gave the ring to Shovel's great friend, Lord Berkeley, who was on one of the ships of the fleet when the wreck occurred.

All Mr. Blake's arguments against the adoption of the protective policy have been urged for a long time by a very much able man—Hon. D. A. Wells, in the neighbouring Community of the United States, and yet the farmers of that country, who could compel a change to a free trade policy in any Congressional election, have steadily refused to listen to the voice of the charmer. Why? Providence, that is, Providence, R. I., is furnishing its full quote of "respectable" rescuers. The reverend book thief of a few days ago now gives place to a merchant jeweller, who stands accused of the larceny of valuable paintings from the Providence Athenæum.

A writer in the Pall Mall Gazette asserts that, although money enough was contributed for the relief of the sufferers by earthquake in Iceland to have rebuilt all the houses destroyed and to have reinstated every sufferer in his former circumstances, the money has been misapplied to a great extent and not one-tenth of the houses of the poor have been rebuilt.

Prof. King, the missing aeronaut, is reported safe. He went up in his balloon at Chicago, Oct. 13, and came down in a Wisconsin swamp, 500 miles distant, the next night. He reached an altitude of 9,600 feet. The party were five days getting out of the swamp to a place where communication could be had with the outside world.

The latest invention reported by a Japanese journal is that of Otsuka Minakichi, who, after extensive experiments, is said to have succeeded in making rifles of silk. They are described "as rigid as iron guns, while they are easy of carriage and have a very long range."

A review of the building operations of Chicago, for 1881, shows an expenditure of $10,475,000. One of the marked structures now in course of erection is the glucose factory on West Taylor Street, which will be 100 feet square, and eleven stories in height.

A despatch from Wellington, New Zealand, says that the Maoris have assumed an aggressive attitude towards the British, and that the position of the settlers is becoming serious.

Snow, ice, and a thermometer registering in some places 10° below the freezing point, have been the very unusual features of October weather on the Pacific coast. In Washington Territory fruit has frozen on the trees.

The convicts in the Ohio Penitentiary have sent $100 to the Michigan sufferers. They raised this money by denying them selves the luxury of tobacco and by the sale of trinkets which they had made.

A Calcutta despatch reports that the Ameer of Afghanistan won a decisive battle on the 3d inst., and afterwards occupied Herat.

The New Zealand Government has accepted the services of three hundred volunteers in view of the threatened troubles with natives.

The latest despatches from Tunis report that thirty thousand French troops are advancing on Kairouan, and that the occupation of that place will be followed by more extended operations.

Two small villages, Claudio and Valletta, in Italy, have been burned. Three persons were killed and eleven seriously injured. Forty families are homeless.

A cablegram has been received, announcing the loss of the French bark "Soudary" while returning to Miramichi for a cargo of deals.
The negotiations for an Anglo-French Treaty of Commerce have been resumed in Paris.
