Personal.

Mr. R. B. Adams has gone to New York, for a few days, on mining business.

Held Over.

A good deal of matter has accumulated on our hands the past few days, but we shall work it off when our columns get down their normal duty.

Mining Matters.

There is to be a meeting of the Bathurst mining company in Bathurst, Saturday. We understand there will be no difficulty in getting all the stock required.

Diphtheria.—Diphtheria has extended its destructive arm into Bartibogue, where there are about 20 persons attacked. A daughter of Mr. Michael Quigley died in the Hotel Dieu, Thursday, and his son who is also there is not expected to recover.

A Phenomenon.

Dr. L. Stone Wiggins of the Finance Department, Ottawa, is outwitting Venor as a weather prophet. Dr. Wiggins and the editor of the Star had a tilt through the Star on grammar and analysis about two years ago—and the editor got the better of him.

Errata.

Here and there a typographical error crept in our last report. Mark Anthony seemed to have got out of place, and an erept instead of capite, where an e should have been. We have this touching reflection, however, that not many of those who are not our friends, detected the errors.

Accidents.

Mr. Michael McMahon of Bartibogue, who works at the rollers of Mr. Snowball's mill was badly hurt on Monday morning last. His right arm was broken and his left arm injured. He also received a severe blow over the left eye. He was attended to by Dr. Baxter.

STAR BRIEFS.

Bears are showing themselves in Welfield.

Grit suicide is what the demonstration here has been aptly termed.

Alex. Carrigan had three of his fingers cut off, by a circular saw, in Morrison's mill, on Monday last.

The News says the address presented to Mr. Blake here, was the priestess he received in the Maritime Provinces. So it was.

The President is still very low; the air about the whole house is bad, yet the patient cannot bear removal.

The circus men boarded in the square Saturday; but were they not a little too late? We had the "circus" there the day before.

Mr. Strang's sloven run over a boy named Peter Trainer Saturday evening. The little fellow was unconscious for a time but soon recovered.

Diphtheria is still working its ravages. Michael Quigley, aged 18, a fine young man, and a son of Mr. Michael Quigley of Bartibogue, died this morning, in the Hotel Dieu, of the fell disease. We deeply sympathize with his parents and family.

A PREACHER ON THE STUMP.

To the Editor of the Star:—

DEAR SIR:—The Presbyterian congregation of Tabusintac are of the opinion that their minister, Rev. Mr. Quinn, has added nothing to his own dignity or the importance of his congregation, by making a political and party speech on Friday evening, in Chatham. Mr. Quinn is with us only about a year, and he now has the warning given him in time, that if he does not attend to his pulpit, and give all his attention to the duty to which he has been selected, and not give over his party vapors, he will not be here another year. I do not propose to give my attention to what he is reported to have said at the meeting, that Tabusintac would roll up a good vote for Mr. Snowball next time, and other such nonsense, because it has not the slightest weight or importance—I only desire to offer my protest against our minister turning into a party stump orator, and meddling in those affairs which are not his, and which belong to his congregation.

I remain Sir,
Yours very truly,
OSE OF HIS FLOCK.

Tabusintac, 6th Sept., 1881.
[Perhaps "one of his flock" does not know that Rev. Mr. Quinn does not care to be in Tabusintac, that it is "too small a place" for him, and that he is fishing for a call to St. Andrew's in Chatham. But we can assure his Tabusintac congregation that so far as getting to Chatham is concerned, he has "fixed himself" by his blubbery speech at that supper, and one of his friends, and a grit at that, told him so the day after he perpetrated the blunder.—Ed. Star.]

NEW FEATURES FROM AUSTRALIA.

(From the San Francisco Daily Examiner)
COLE'S CIRCUS.—The pavilion at the corner of Seventh and Market streets was filled to the limit of its seating capacity last night to witness the initial performance of this mammoth show. The menagerie has been considerably enlarged since it left here on its tour around the world, by the addition of some of the wonderful birds and animals of the antipodes, and includes a white buffalo from India, the Maori war dances, Arabian athletes, kangaroos, ostriches and other Australian curiosities. The grand entree with its camels, elephants, ladies, knights in armor, and electric light shining on the spangles and the brilliant accoutrements, was a sight which brought forth applause from the audience. The wonderful performance which George Conkling puts his trained elephants through, was well done. The act consisting of running a bicycle on a wire suspending across the dome of the circus, caused a thrill to run through the spectators, and was performed by John Murtz, George Dunbar and Adelaide d'Attalie. The batrouse leaping by the corps of athletes showed to what perfection human muscle can be brought by training, several of the members doing a double somersault in masterly style. William Organ then introduced his trick horses Humboldt and Hindoo, the former doing some wonderful jumping. The equestrian acts of Wooda Cook and Mlle. Adeladies were well executed. It is a notable fact that none but bare-back riders are engaged, and these are champions of their calling. W. O'Dale Stevens, with his dancing globes and electric table seemed to meet with the approbation of the audience. Miss Linda Jeal did a daring bare back hurdle, act leaping with her horse Salamander through great circles of fire. The troupe of six trained stallions made their bow to the audience next, and were put through their part of the performance by William Organ, which includes waltzing on their legs, setting down on chairs and other difficult and ingenious tricks. Taken altogether, the circus is the most meritorious one that has been here for a good many years. The acrobats and riders are excellent, the animals well trained and the clowns have picked up some new jokes during their travels in foreign lands. It should be remembered that this mammoth and mighty exhibition is to give performances in Chatham, Tuesday, 20th Sept.—Adv't.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will not lieve the poor little sufferer immediately depend upon it, there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest female physicians and nurses in the United States.
