

A MADMAN'S TERRIBLE ACTS
—SEVERAL PERSONS SHOT
BY HIM.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2.—Henry C. Neal, of Troy, N. Y., ran through the streets here this morning naked, shooting at everyone he met, mortally wounding two and dangerously wounding three other persons. Neal, who is a young grocer's clerk, and never regarded as quite sane, roomed at No. 262 South Clark Street with Rodrick Fagin, a cook. This morning, at one o'clock, he awoke, waked Fagin up with "Help me, protect my wife and children," placing the revolver by Fagin's ear and fired. The ball entered the brain. He then started down stairs in his undershirt, caught the nightwatchman, William Springfield, threw him around and fired, the ball entering midway between the shoulder blades and passing through the body. Neal fell down the last flight of stairs, and hurt and bleeding he went into the street, running north. At the first corner he caught hold of William Johnson, colored, shot him in the breast over the heart, holding the weapon so close as to burn his coat. He then ran up Polk street and into the Rock Island freight depot, shot Thomas Flynn the flagman in the neck, and John Wolf, the night clerk, in the breast. He rushed out of the depot, and in turning the corner ran into the policeman Bault. Both men were knocked down by the collision. Bault grappled with the maniac, who succeeded in firing the last shot, emptying the revolver without effect. Bault shot him in the neck, and he was captured and sent to the hospital.

TRAIN ROBBERS.

An attempt was made to throw Wednesday's east-bound express from the track, near Colfax, California, for the purpose of robbery. A rail was removed and two engines and one car thrown from the track. When the engine left the track, the fireman, upon jumping to the ground, was confronted by a man with a shot-gun, who ordered him not to move or give an alarm. At the same time the man presented his gun at the express messenger, opened the door of the express-car and ordered him to surrender. At this time the highwaymen, supposed to be five or six in number became alarmed and started to run in the bush, leaving lanterns, masks, cartridges, Hercules powder, fuses, sledges, picks, etc.

Liver Complain and Indigestion.
Dear Sir,—My business has been that of an engraver and cutter in wood. Owing to confinement to ill-ventilated rooms my health gradually declined when I was unable to prosecute my business. At this time I was suffering from great prostration of strength extreme indigestion and disordered liver. My usual weight was 135 lbs but I had become so much emaciated that I weighed but 109 lbs. In the early part of May last I commenced using the Peruvian Syrup and almost immediately felt its tonic and invigorating influence. In the course of four months I used four bottles. My weight is the day 149 lbs. I have neither liver complaint nor indigestion, but consider myself in a perfect health and in good spirits. James Morso No 43 Pleasant St. Sold by all druggists. How Wistar's Balsam cures.
From Seymour Thatchea, M. D., of Herman, N. Y.

"WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and saving the cause being. I consider the balsam the best cough medicine with which I am acquainted." 50 cents, and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists
