

TWO PICTURES.

This is what the great Edmund Burke says of the duty of a Representative.

It is the duty of your Parliamentary representative to sacrifice his repose and his pleasures to yours, and above all, to prefer in all cases our interest to his own.

FISHERY MATTERS.

We print a short letter today signed "Southwest," which shows to a small extent the way in which the business of the fishery department is conducted in this county.

THE LUCK OF THE BLAKE COLLECTORS.

The trio who are trying to scrape up a little money for Mr. Blake's reception have met with a good many refusals.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

Affairs about the British Parliament now have settled down to a dead calm, and it seems like the placid sea after a storm.

A "COMPROMISE."

Those who occupy the "higher social standing" in the Grit party here, and who are "rich in the worlds goods" decided we believe that the scandal of being unable to agree on a treasurer of the "funds," should not be of long continuance.

GRIT PHENOMENA.

When the Masonic Hall here is full, it holds just 600 people; but should Mr. Blake come here, and speak in it, it will hold nothing short of three or four thousand.

JELLY FISH.

The Duke of Argyll said the Gladstone party was like a shoal of jelly fish afloat on the tide, having neither energy nor backbone.

The Princess Louise is in Paris.

THE FAIRVILLE ACCIDENT.

Some days ago, as announced in our last, fireman Ricketts came to his death on the St. John and Maine Railway by a collision of two trains.

THE BOOM BREAK.

On Monday morning the South West Boom broke, 5,000,000 feet of logs escaping. On Monday night another boom occurred 10,000,000 feet escaping.

The African Stanley lies on the point of death between Stanley Pool and Congo. He has despaired of his life, and made his will.

We learn that large portions of interval land on the South West are submerged, and the crops spoiled.

"The heads" of the Land Bill which we publish elsewhere will be read with interest.

The Governor General is now in the heart of the North West.

The first sod has been turned on the Newfoundland Railway.

EDITORIAL GLEANINGS.

The Irish Land Bill.

The following are the main heads of the Land bill as it has finally passed both houses of Parliament:

SALE OF TENANCIES.

- 1.—Tenant may sell his tenancy for the best price he can get. Conditions:— 1. Sale to one person only. 2. Notice to landlord. 3. Landlord may purchase on receiving notice. 4. Tenant must state consideration. 5. Court may declare sale void. 6. Landlord may object to purchaser. 7. Court may recompense landlord out of the purchase money. 8. Where improvements made by landlord, purchase money apportioned by Court. 9. Landlord may give notice that he has claim on the estate. 10. Where purchase money paid into Court, Court must determine all applications. 11. Tenant who has sold his tenancy shall not be entitled to compensation for disturbance or improvement. 12. Tenant, if holding subject to Ulster tenant right system, may sell in pursuance of that custom or in pursuance of this section; but not both.

DEVOLUTION OF TENANCIES.

II.—When a person receives a tenancy as a bequest, he must be accepted by the landlord as though he were a purchaser.

INCREASE OF RENT.

- III.—When landlord demand increase of rent, then 1. Tenancy shall be deemed, if tenant accepts, a tenancy subject to statutory conditions for fifteen years. 2. If tenant does not accept, tenancy shall be sold and tenant shall receive amount by which Court decides the selling of tenancy to have been depreciated below amount which would have been selling value if rent were fair rent.

- 3. If tenant does not accept he is entitled to compensation for disturbance. 4. Tenant in place of accepting or declining such increase may apply to Court to have the rent fixed. 5. When landlord cannot agree with tenant on the subject he may also have access to the court. The last clause was an amendment of the Lords. Mr. Gladstone's assent to it provoked the hostility of the Irish party.

INCIDENTS OF TENANCY.

IV.—Tenant shall not be compelled to pay increase of rent unless he violates what are in this act referred to as a statutory conditions, viz:—

- 1. Punctual payment of rent. 2. No waste. 3. No subdivision or subletting. 4. No act whereby tenancy becomes vested in assignee in bankruptcy. 5. Not refusing landlord right of entry for purpose of mining, cutting, hunting or fishing. 6. Not opening a house for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

COMPENSATION.

V and VI.—Repealing portion of the Land bill and Tenant (Ireland) act of 1870.

INTERVENTION OF COURT.

- VII.—1. Court may determine fair rent. 2. Rent thus fixed, called judicial rent, payable first rent day after decision. 3. When rent thus fixed, tenancy to be held under statutory conditions for fifteen years. 4. Court may disallow application under this section when improvements have been made and maintained by landlord. 5. When application is made landlord and tenant may agree to fix a specified value for tenancy. Then if tenant wants to sell, landlord has right of purchase at that value. 6. Statutory terms not renewed till preceding statutory term has expired. 7. No application for judicial rent may be made till the last twelve months of the current statutory term. 8. No rent payable in respect of improvements made by tenant. 9. Court may take action when it considers the conduct of landlord or of tenant to be unreasonable.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

- XII.—1. Time of sale limited to one month after receipt of notice to quit. 2. Court may enlarge time. 3. Court may suspend proceedings taken against tenant, unless for breach of statutory conditions. 4. If notice of quit is served for breach of statutory conditions tenant may apply to Court, and if Court thinks adequate satisfaction is made by payment of damages to landlord, it may so order.

DETERMINATION OF TENANCY.

XVIII.—Tenancy deemed to have determined when landlord has resumed possession by purchase, or default, or operation of law.

EXISTING LEASES.

XIX.—Existing leases to continue as though this act had not passed. Provided that at their expiration they become subject to its provisions; and if, since the act of 1870, the Court considers the acceptance of any lease to have been unreasonable it may annul it.

PURCHASE OF ESTATES.

XXIII.—1. Estates may be purchased by the Land Commission to resell to a competent number of tenants. 2. Sale by Commission to tenant may be in consideration of a fine and of a fee farm rent. 3. Land Commission may advance to tenant sum not exceeding seventy five per cent of the price. 4. Commission may indemnify, and such indemnity will be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

To this must be added the Lords' amendment, accepted by Mr Gladstone, that any applicant to the commission who may consider himself aggrieved may appeal to the Court of Appeals in Ireland, with the limitation that the leave of the Court must be asked.

"NONE TO RECEIVE HIM."

When Hon. Edward Blake arrived in Halifax on his great revival mission, he found no one to receive him at the station. He was obliged to hire a cab to take him to his hotel.

The Star should have known better than to rely on the splenic untruth of what it has itself called a "disreputable sheet," namely, the Halifax Herald.

The Herald's statement in this case was totally fabricated. Mr. Blake did not come to Halifax on a "great revival mission." Whatever mission he has to this city will be attended to on the 26th inst., when he will speak here. He is passing through the city on his way from East to West. No demonstration of any kind was attempted or desired. He wanted rest, and was allowed to obtain it. He was met at the station by several friends and conveyed to the residence of Hon. Mr. Jones in that gentleman's carriage. Nevertheless, the Tory press, taking its cue from the "disreputable sheet" which started the miserable fabrication, will pass the Herald's story around.

We reprint our own statement and the Chronicle's contradiction, glad of the opportunity of rectifying our mistake, if our statement were a mistake. We believed the statement to have been correct, and the Chronicle's contradiction is the first we have seen in any respectable newspaper. We here in Chatham were libelled in respect to Sir Hector Langevin's visit here, in the same way as the Star has been unintentionally libelling the Halifax Liberals; but while the Star pointed out to the libeller, to wit the St. John Telegraph where it did the Conservatives here a wrong, that paper has not since been honest or honorable enough to make the amends.

PROPOSED NEW KINGDOM.

A schema has been submitted to the German Government, providing that Alsace be united with Baden, and, in conjunction with the Grand Duchy, be erected into a new kingdom of the Rhine; Lorraine to be united with the Prussian Province of Rhineland, and become part of the kingdom of Prussia.

AN ALPINE ACCIDENT.

A correspondent writes to the Times from Zermatt in the canton of Valais, Switzerland, as follows: "Five American tourists ascended the Matterhorn on Saturday last. On their return a rock was accidentally dislodged, and it struck the head of Mr. Gilbert, a tutor of the Indian University, at Bloomington, Ind., rendering him partly insensible. He was just able to move mechanically along. Nearly four hours were spent in bringing him to the first hut, which was reached about five o'clock in the afternoon. Some of the party proceeded and brought doctors. Mr. Gilbert arrived at Zermatt at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. He suffers principally from the loss of blood, and will be able to leave soon. The guides were apprehensive that if he collapsed before he arrived at the hut, the party would be frozen to death before succor could be obtained."

DIED.

At New York on Thursday, 18th inst., Clara, second daughter of Sylvester and Margaret Roman.
