TWO PICTURES.

This is what the great Edmund Burke says of the duty of a Representative.

'It is the duty of your Parliamentary representative to sacrifice his repose and his pleasures to yours, and above all, TO PREFER IN ALL CASES OUR INTEREST TO HIS OWN.'

MEETING IN ROGERVILLE.

A letter from our Rogerville correspondent came to hand only yesterday, though it was written several days ago.

He says the Surveyor General visited the settlement some days before, and the people at once felt they would like to have him address them on matters relating to their own interests, and the general interests as well.

It is the fault of a public man himself if his people forget him; for that man in public life never yet has been who, having done well for his people and used all the influence he possessed to further their interests, was forgotten when the proper day came round.

Now then, that the Rogerville people, and the people in other parts of the county as well, are turning in their minds who the 'four men' are to be next summer, we hope our brilliant and popular lawyer, and representative Mr. L. J. Tweedie will soon pay these people a visit.

'A DOLLAR A PLATE.'

The above expression has been nothing short of a 'war cry' among the Liberal party here, for several days.

Table with 2 columns: MEAL'S MATERIAL, COST. Lists items like Bread, Potatoes, Turnips, Meat, Salt and Pepper, Sugar in Tea, The Tea Leaf, Milk in Tea, Pie with their respective costs.

One of those not 'rich in the world's goods' at once assured the aristocrat that his 'figures' were 'all astray'; and after a wrangle all along the line, the meeting broke up, like the Board of Health, without 'doing anything.'

The Pall Mall Gazette describes Sir Charles Gaven Duffys address on the Land Bill as 'Timely words well spoken.'

A VALUABLE SQUARE MILE.

There was some very earnest bidding in the Crown Lands office in the early part of the week when a certain tract of mining land situated near Bathurst was put up for sale.

THE ROAD TO OTTAWA.

This is how the Toronto Globe heads an article on the proposed Ontario and Quebec Railway.

SUPPLEMENTARY GRANT.

A correspondent living down the river informs us that through the representations of the Surveyor General and Mr. Davidson, M. P., a supplementary grant has been made by the Government to the Escomiac road.

A NEGRO TO THE FRONT.

We are delighted to announce that some members of the patrician element of the party here, have secured the services of a huge St. John negro, to conduct the most important part of the Blake reception.

THE COLLECTION.

After ten days the party have secured $475.50. They scoured Newcastle up and down, and got 'thirty odd' dollars. The balance they got—or expect to get—in and about Chatham.

Sir Leonard Tilley, and Hon. Mr. Caron, and T. White, M. P., are very enthusiastically received wherever they go. They follow closely in the wake of Mr. Blake, and verily from what we read, those who laugh last laugh best.

A letter from Alnwick on the latest insult heaped upon the French people will appear in our next.

EDITORIAL CLEANINGS.

BRIGHT ON THE LAND BILL. In concluding his speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet on the 7th inst., John Bright said:—

'As to the one great question which we have been engaged upon this session, I need not say how great are the hopes, and yet to some extent how great are the fears, with regard to it. But I believe it is not possible for legislation to do a more complete act of justice to the tenant farmers of Ireland than the Government has intended, and Parliament has nearly accomplished in the bill which is now almost ready to receive the Royal assent. I have been for the last 30 years asking Parliament and the country to make certain changes with regard to the tenure of land in Ireland. I have paid great attention to the subject; I have felt upon it about as strongly as I ever felt upon any political question, and I am free to say that I believe that this measure is as great and as noble a measure on that question as it would be possible for the English Parliament to pass; that it is one which it is impossible, when it becomes law, that the Irish people should not discover to be a great measure of satisfaction and redemption for them, unless they are unable to understand a policy intended directly for their benefit. (Cheers.) I have said that there are fears, I have fears. After the state of things through which the Irish people have gone in so many successive periods, it is not perhaps, quite certain that all remedial measures are not too late. I will not express a strong fear that such is the case, on the contrary, I will express a strong hope that such is not the case. It may be that some would say that

'True reconciliation never can grow Where wounds of deadly hate have pierced so deep.'

But, as generation after generation passes, governed by a monarch kindly, liberal, beneficent like ours, legislative by a Parliament anxious to do justice to all the people under its sway, I will not doubt, I will believe, that whatever may be the passion, whatever the frenzy in the minds of the Irish people, whatever the gloom that now rests on that country, all this may pass away, and that the time will come, and come soon, when Ireland it shall be felt as much as it is felt in England that, with all our faults, our Government does intend to do rightly by the Irish people. (Cheers.) Therefore, looking on the session now drawing to a close, terrible as has been the work, long as have been the hours and the nights of its toil, often as we have been shocked by conduct in the House that has been distasteful and distracting to us, nevertheless, I live in the hopes that men will look back to the session of 1881, and will say that if we had the greatest of statesmen to guide our affairs, in that year was passed the greatest of measures in order to bring about tranquility, peace and union in the greatest Empire on which the sun shines. (Loud cheers.)

THE CORDEN CLUB SCARED.

Under the title of 'The Reciprocity Craze,' the Corden Club is about to publish a pamphlet exposing the sophisms of the protection movement, showing that the excess of imports over exports instead of being a sign of decay is rather an indication of increasing wealth; that what is called one-sided free trade has really enabled our laboring population to be fed, housed, and clothed more cheaply than in other countries; that it has also enabled them to produce more cheaply than any other workers; that the so-called balance of trade, instead of bringing adverse to, is largely in favor of Great Britain, and the world is likely to become more and more indebted to us, and pay us an annual tribute in money or money's worth. The pamphlet points out that the total of our shipping receipts, insurance interests, mercantile profits, and the income we derive from foreign investments, amounts to one hundred and twenty-six millions of pounds, which simply means that before England has to exchange a pound's worth of foreign products, she has to receive in some shape or other one hundred and twenty-six million pounds from foreigners. Pasha!

THE HARVEST IN EUROPE.

Estienne's annual report shows that on the whole the crops in France are not up to those of last year, but wheat is not much below the average. In Great Britain wheat is 10 per cent. below the average, and likely to realize only ten million quarters. Barley is 10 per cent. above the average, oats 20 per cent. below. In Austria-Hungary the crops are good all round. In Italy the crops are medium, quality much below last year's. In the Turkish provinces on the Danube wheat is medium, other crops good. The barley crop of Russia doubles that of last year, but is of poorer quality. None of the crops in Germany are up to the average. The Swiss crops are of good quality; wheat is poor in quality. All the crops in Spain are bad. Belgian wheat is far below the average, barley fair. All cereals in Holland are in good condition. All reports from the United States agree that the yield will be under the average.

A FIRE-EATING HOME RULER.

It is rumored that Mr. T. M. Healey, Home Rule member of Parliament for Wexford, has challenged Mr. Herbert Gladstone, member for Worcester, recently made Junior Lord of the Treasury, and a son of the Premier, to fight a duel. The offence given by Mr. Gladstone is said to have been certain words spoken in debate, and afterwards followed up at an accidental meeting of the two gentlemen in the smoking-room of the House. There is no probability of Mr. Gladstone accepting the invitation to the field of honor. He is no coward, but his well-known and very strong religious principles would prevent him from accepting the challenge.

ANXIETY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Post's Washington special says: Secretary Blaine's midnight despatch is a revelation to the large majority of persons. It, for the first time, gives them an adequate conception of the extraordinary weakness, exhaustion, and emaciation of the President. The attendants who have lifted the President the last few days say he is nothing but skin and bones. The increasing anxiety at the White House is illustrated by the fact that Mrs. Garfield scarcely leaves the bedside for a moment, and has discontinued her evening drives, but the President's physicians have not given up hope. The surgeons privately say that if suppuration does not interfere by Wednesday night they will regard it as conclusive that an abscess is not to form in the parotid gland.

THE CHANCES OF RECOVERY.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Sun's Washington special says it is regarded as probable that the President's inflamed gland will suppurate within the next three or four days.

BLISS' OPINION.

The Times' special states that Bliss says the President generally takes the koumiss in his own hand, and administers it himself. He prefers to do so. Bliss also says there has never been a time since the President was shot when he could have been removed from the White House without the greatest possible hazard.

CORN IN INDIA.

Mr. Blake, Liberal member of Parliament for Waterford, sails for India shortly, with a view of examining into agrarian questions there, especially in reference to the possibility of growing corn so as to make the United Kingdom less dependent upon supplies from Russia and the States of North America.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The September number is especially noteworthy. The opening article, by George Alfred Townsend, entitled Days of Gloom in the White House, is timely and very interesting, embodying a history of the Presidential mansion, and the most prominent incidents in connection with the attempted assassination of the President. The article is illustrated by sixteen fine engravings.

Liver Complain and Indigestion. Dear Sir,—My business has been that of an engraver and cutter in wood. Owing to confinement to ill-ventilated rooms my health gradually declined when I was unable to prosecute my business. At this time I was suffering from great prostration of strength extreme indigestion and disordered liver. My usual weight was 155 lbs but I had become so much emaciated that I weighed but 109 lbs. In the early part of May last I commenced using the Peruvian Syrup and almost immediately felt its tonic and invigorating influence. In the course of four months I used four bottles. My weight is the day 149 lbs. I have neither liver complaint nor indigestion, but consider myself in a perfect health and in good spirits. James Morse No 43 Pleasant St. Sold by all druggists.
