MR. BLAKE ON THE TRAMP.

[Mail.]

We presume Mr. Blake is now engaged in preparing the variations to his Montreal and Toronto speeches which are necessary to adapt them to the Maritime Provinces. The variations favour of his party. His Marine orations are easily foreshadowed. He will most probably doctrinairism. begin with a wearisome re..hash of his anti-syndicate speeches. Upon that subject he could not excite the smallest interest in an Untario audience, for the people of this province are satisfied that the contract for building the Canada Pacifie railway is a judicious contract, and that the cost of the work to the country will be many millions of dollars less than the Govern. ment of which Mr. Blake was a member advertised its willing. ness to pay for its construc..

He will next extol that base ond syndicate." To illustrate attending political meetings, negotiations with regard to the Provinces, who may not be as present and defend him against tamiliar with it as our western Mr Blake's attacks.
