THE THREE PERIODS OF GOVERNMENT.

[Mail]

In our last issue we discussed the figures of the revenue and expenditure of this country during three periods that have defined themselves in our politics since Confederation.

The most trying and difficult portion of our late history is comprised in the first seven years of the Confederation. The formation of the Confederation was of itself a gigantic task, to which statesmen pledged their future career and their personal fortunes.

Mr Beecher attached no significance to the manner in which a man expired, as it was principally the result of physical accidents, and afforded no test of his moral state.

MARRIAGE OF MISS FARRAR. The Rev John Stafford Northcote, third son of the Right Hon. Sir Stafford Northcote, has just been married to Hilda, second daughter of Connor Farrar.
