CORRESPONDENCE.

Summer Hill Notes.

SUMMER HILL, Feb. 20.-James Hawkshaw, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of this place. died suddenly on the 17th inst. Death was due, it is supposed, to heart trouble. He left his home on the morning of the 15th, apparently in good health, drove to Gagetown, and was about to return home when he was suddenly taken ill in Dr. Casswell's office. Under the doctor's skillful treatment he recovered sufficient strength to be removed to his home, accompanied by Dr. Casswell and Mr. J. H. DeVeber. Hopes were entertained of his recovery until the morning of the 17th, when at the hour of 7 o'clock he expired. The deceased was 61 years of age, and was a man of the highest integrity, genial and kindly, and honored and respected by his friends and neighbors. He was for a great many years an active worker in Christian duties, aud we lose one of the most zealous and liberal handed adnesants Since his early years deceased had been engaged in farming persuits, and during a long life of strict industry, he accumulated a large amount of property. His wife, who survives him, was a daughter of the late Wm. Corbett. He leaves five daughters and one son, also one sister, Mrs. W. Nelson, besides a large circle of friends. The family have the deep felt sympath; of the community in their loss of a kind and loving father. His remains were interred in St. Peter's Cemetery on Friday, the 19th inst. Ob sequies were conducted by the Rev. N. C. Hansen, who preached an appropriate sermon from the text, (Let not your near be troubled; ye believe in God believe also in Me.) St. John 14-1.

Mr. William Sutton has returned home, on a visit, in leave of five months' absence from his business in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kerr have returned from the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kerr have taken a peremptory home in this place. Sufficent to recommend this locality as a place for abode, is the quick return of its inhabitants.

John Russell has also returned to his home after an absence of twelve years in the Western States.

Lower Jemseg Notes.

Lower Jemseg, Feb. 19.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Caleb Huestis took place on Jan. 31st. Rev. A. J. Gollmer conducted the service at the grave. On the following Sunday the sermon was preached by Rev. W. J. Blakeney at Upper Jemseg. The deceased leaves a sorrowing husband, six sons, five daughters, and a large number of relatives to mourn their sad loss.

The funeral of the late Philip Huestis will take place this afternoon at McDonald's Corner. Rev. C. W. Townsend is expected to preach the sermon.

A basket social was held in the hall on Tuesday night. The amount realized was near $11, which goes towards paying for the sleigh which belongs to the circuit (Methodist).

There is a considerable amount of cord wood and logs being cut this winter. The main operators are C. Young and S. R. Huestis.

The farmers at present have their ice all stored for the coming season. There was about 100 tons stored.

A two-year-old child of Mrs. John Van Buskirk came nearlosing its life Thursday. The child was eating meat, and a small piece lodged in its throat. Mrs. Van Buskirk forced her fingers down the child's throat and extracted the meat, which gave the child relief instantly.

Capt. Robert Van Buskirk and his siser will move to Fredericton the coming siring, where he will be an company with his brother Frank.

Scotchtown Notes.

SCOTCHTOWN, Feb. 20.—The weather of late has been very fine.

G. D. Carle and Samuel Colwell intend getting out several joints of logs during the coming month.

Several of our enterprising farmers went to St. John this week with heavy loads of farm produce. They found the markets very slow.

The special services that were being held at this place last week ended on Tuesday evening last.

It is with pleasure we learn that Mr. Allison Lunn, of Lakeville Corner, is soon to become a resident of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Olmstead intend moving to Fredericton the 1st of March. They will be greatly missed throughout the community.

New lamps and reflectors and a chandelier have been procured for the Baptist Church.

Mr. T. L. Purvis, the popular carpenter of this place, is making a desk for the Baptist Chu.ch,

New York Letter.

There are many readers of the QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE who can look back with much pleasure to days or weeks spent in New York. No one who can afford the money and time should hesitate to take the little trip that will place him in touch with the largest, wealthiest and most bustling centre of the American

The question has often been asked why do all New Yorkers rush about as i their very existence depended upon their activity? Well, if one does not step high, wide and lively here, he gets left. Streams of people circle about everywhere, and everyone is constantly trying to get ahead of someone else. In the morning you must rush to get a seat in the elevated train, or someone will pop into it before you, or you must step lively to board the horse or cable cars, as often it will not stop for you, so you must act quickly an catch it as it rushes past you.

If you call upon a business man at his office, you must be prepared to state your business quickly, as he may have to rush away and leave you. At lunch time you must rush to the nearest restaurant or the best viands have disappeared within other fellows who have rushed there before you. It is related that a broker went to a particular restaurant every day for lunch at precisely twelve o'clock. S rushed was he that he only had time to order a sandwich which he hastily despatched. To save time he arranged to have the waiter stand at the door and hand him the sandwich as he passed But even then he lost precious moments. so, in future he had the waiter fire the sandwich at him, which he caught in his eth, as he rushed mad y along

Day in and day out it is one continual bustle of pushing yourself ahead of your neighbor, because if you don't, you are simply getting continually left, of being obliged to take what is left after your more active fellowman has helped himself to the best of everything. Even after a New Yorker dies, he is rushed to the cemetery. Funerals do not walk here, but hearse and coaches tear along, as if the living had little time to attend to such duties. Often two funeral processions will race with each other to the place of burial, and cases are known where the hearse has collided with a coach, and the coffin has been thrown out upon the ground.

The lower part of the city more especially, is the business district, the centre of which is Wall street. Here thousands gained every day. At the head of Wall street stands Trinity Church on Broadway, keeping an eye, as it were, upon the bustling activity surging at its feet.

In the morning thousands of people of the city, and from Brooklyn and parts of the State of New Jersey, to attend to business. At night they all rush away, and it is in the evening, just when everyone is intent upon reaching home as quickly as possible, that the best idea can be obtained of the great multitudes who earn their bread and butter down town. for the unwritten law, that every one and every moving vehicle must keep to the right, there would be many more accidents than at present; in fact there would be little use in trying to move over sidewalk or street.

Here is rather a good story: A city r an took a friend down Broadway just at the time when everybody wanted to come up. They elbowed their way through the crowd for a while, when the friend said. I say, old chap, let's stand in this doorway and wait till the crowd goes by. But they didn't do so, because it takes about two hours for the crowd to your last issue there was a notice of the donation I received from the friends belonging to my churches. In mentioning the amount the account was so worded as to lead some strangers to think that the entire proceeds were only $50.00, whereas they aggregated over $90.00-more than $50.00 in goods and $40.00 in cash. I desire my friends to have full credit for bury. this noble result. I must also say that in addition to what was given that evening, some days previously, a beautiful carpet was placed in my study. This had been purchased with subscriptions collected by some of the ladies of my state of affairs is in a large measure congregation, notably, Mrs. A. Cambridge Notes.

CAMBRIDGE, Feb, 22.-Mr. W. H. White has gone to Boston to see his sister, Mrs. Charlotte Macdonald, who is very low with that dread disease consumption. Mr. Fred McAlary has charge of the business during Mr. White's ab- ville.

Rev. C. W. Townsend has charge of cold for the past few days, which has conthe Baptist Church at the Narrows. The spiritual wants of the people are well looked after at this place. In addition to the Rev. C. W. Townsend we have Rev. Mr. Lewis, F. C. B., Rev. Mr. Parker, Methodist, and Rev. Mr. Gollmer, Episcopalian.

Miss Annie L. Briggs has charge of the school at the Narrows, west side.

Mr. Edward DeWire's youngest son, Montie, died on Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock. He had been sick for a few weeks, but was supposed to be convalescent until Thursday when he grew much worse and passed away the next morning. This is a very heavy blow to his parents, who are almost prostrate with grief. But they have one great comfort in their deep sorrow, that this young lad of 13 years, has gone where sickness never comes, nor death never enters, but where the roses bloom perennial. His funeral took place on Sunday, the 21st, at half-past ten a. m. Services were conducted both at the house and grave by Rev. C. W. Townsend.

Mr. Philip Heustis, aged 78 years, passed peacefully away on Tuesday evening, the 16th inst., after a very short sickness. His funeral took place on Priday, the 19th inst. The high respect in which he was held in the community was shown by the large number who were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. He was an honored member of the Macdonald's Corner Baptist Church. Rev. A. B. Macdonald conducted the funeral service.

Chipman Notes.

Fred McEwen, a young man eighteen years of age, was brought before Magistrate Langin last Wednesday, under a serious charge preferred against him by Elizabeth Ann Wellwood, who resides with her Uncle, Christopher Wilson, at Briggs' Corner. Sussex Notes.

Sussex, Feb. 19.—The fancy dress carnival and promenade concert held in the "Aberdeen" skating rink, on the evening of the 15th inst., far surpassed anything of a similar nature held in Sussex this

The attendance was larger than on any previous occasion, and for originality, beauty and ludicrousness, the costumes have been very seldom equalled.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Dr. J. J. Daly, 1st gents, original; Percy Hallett, 2ndJ. P. Byren gents handsom-

Miss Vera McLean ladies original, 1st; Miss Cyrrie Jenner, 2nd, Miss Maud Mc-Leod, ladies' handsomest. Honorabie mention was made of Miss A. Keltie, flower girl, and George Chapman, musician. The next and last carnival of the season is to be held on the evening of March 1st, when, it is expected, all former efforts will be eclipsed.

Although Sussex has been rather slow in responding to the call for aid in behalf of the sufferers in India, still I believe the generosity of the citizens is being aroused and contributions are beginning to come in. Next Sunday special collections are to be taken in some of the churches for that purpose.

Fred L. Fairweather, Barrister, has been appointed a sessional clerk at Ottawa. He is receiving the congratulations of his friends, and leaves in a few days to assume his duties.

The Maritime Dairy School opens on the 22nd inst. A very large attendance is anticipated. A large number of applications have already been received from various parts of the Maritime provinces, among which there are several from ladies, having in view, I presume, a better knowledge of the making of butter, which is greatly needed in the coun-

Posters are out announcing a concert for next Thursday evening, the proceeds are for new sidewalks between upper and lower corners. A pleasant evening is anticipated as many new and novel features are to be introduced.
