Warden in the chair. On roll call all the Councillors were present except Councillors Hay, Gilbert and Leonard. The Committee on Parish accounts submitted their report as follows: Brunswick—Accounts satisfactory as far as accounts received. Cambridge—Satisfactory, but no returns from Bye Road Commissioner John W. Farris. Canning—Accounts only fairly satisfactory. Chipman—Found in a very unsatisfactory condition and would suggest a law be made fixing amount to be paid to Overseer of Poor for personal service, and that all returns be accompanied with an itemized bill. The Committee appointed to report of Highway divisions submitted the follow- ing report: That it is the opinion of the Councillors of the different parishes that the dividing line of the different divisions be as fol- lows: Parish of Brunswick to remain as under Highway Act of 1886 and approved of by the session of the Municipality of 1887, with the exception of line of divi- sion between one and two, which will now be at Wilfred Brice's lower line in- stead of Abram Corey's lower line. Parishes of Cambridge, Chipman, Can- ning, Gagetown, Johnston and Water- borough to remain as under "Highway Act, 1886" and approved of by session of Municipality of Queens County, 1887.	HALIFAX, Feb. 4.—Staff Surgeon John L. Ahearne, of the cruiser Talbot, has been tried at Bermuda by court martial for drinking intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to cause illness. The defence was that the prisoner had been very much weakened by dysentery, which pre- cipitated the illness referred to. Nearly all the medical officers present in the har- bor were called as witnesses either for the defence or prosecution. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to be dis- missed from his ship and lose one year seniority. The trial excited intense in- trest in naval circles and the general feeling was that Doctor Ahearne was en- titled to a good deal of sympathy. E. Barnes, an able seaman of H · M. S. Talbot, made a desperate attempt to take his life at Kingston, Jamaica—first by cutting his throat with a razor and then

Thomas H. Gilbert chairman of the Memorial Committee presents the following report:

That we, the Council of the Municipality of Queens, in session convened, place on record our deep regret that one so genial, manly, and upright, and in whom we had implicit confidence, and who one short year ago seemed in the vigor of manhood, being present with us then to council and advise, seeming to retain his former friendship for the Board, of which he had been an honored member for seventeen consecutive years should be stricken down by the ruthless hand of death, and, though sorrowing as we do on account of his sudden demise, yet in humble submission, we bow to the decree of our Heavenly Father, believing, "that He doeth all things well.'

Therefore resolved, That the Council do tender to the widow and family of the deceased, our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement, and that a copy of this report and resolution be forwarded to Mrs. Perry.

Herbert Fuller at New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.-The barkentine Herbert Fuller, Capt. McLaughlin, arrived last week from Buenos Ayres after an uneventful voyage. This is the vessel on board of which Captain Nash, his wife and second mate Bramberg were murdered, for which crime Thomas M. Bram has been convicted in Boston. During the trial the question was raised as to whether a person stationed at the wheel could see No. 7, E. A. Simpson, Div. Reg. fees, into the cabin of the vessel from that position. Upon the arrival of the ship at No. 8, John W. Dickie, gaol supplies, quarantine this morning a personal examination was made, and it was demonstrated that the cabin could be seen from the wheel by a man there keeping his hand on the extreme end of the wheel spoke, and by reaching his body over far enough he could look into the cabin. Permis-No. 11, J. &. A. McMillan, register sion to board the vessel by a reporter was refused by the owners, one of whom said, acting under special instructions from the district attorney of Boston, they had decided not to permit any newspaper men on board the Fuller while she is in port. It was said about the Maritime exchange this afternoon that two detectives from Boston have arrived in this city to see the orders of the district attorney of that city be obeyed.
