ST. JOHN LETTER.

Public Libraries—The News of the Town—The Markets, Etc.

To this question "Are public libraries demoralizing?" James Buckman answers affirmatively in an article reproduced in a late number of the Literary Digest, and it must be conceded there is a good deal of force in his reasoning. The public library, he says, affords young people especially, unlimited indulgence in books of an ephemeral character, which is immoral in its effect. In such reading time is wasted and the reader's conceptions of life and its duties are distorted. He thinks the public library has a demoralizing effect on the community in that its patrons fall into a habit of superficial reading: "The reader of library books never retains any of their vitality." There is much in this: The legion on their covers, this book must be returned in ten days, in most instances prevents the absorption of the contents of the books, and it is rarely borrowed for re-perusal. The library habit induces omnivorous reading; if one cannot get what he wants he often takes something he don't want and something that is of no use to him, for hardly more than one book in ten pays the reader for its perusal. Books that are worth reading are worth buying and no one who is able to buy the few really good books that are published should ever acquire the library habit; for those who cannot buy the public library probably offers more advantages than disadvantages. Mr. Buckman pathetically says, "When I look at my own slenderly furnished book shelves and recall the days when, as a college boy, I used to count it a month's delight to save for, and buy, and devour and reread some volume of my especial desire, I cannot help feeling that something good and helpful has gone out of my life.

The herd of Ayreshees imported by W. W. Ogilvie of Quebec, arrived here this week in fine condition. They are said to be the most valuable ever brought into the country.

The Lordly furniture factory was gutted by fire last Wednesday night. Loss about $10,000. Insured.

Northrup & Co., the south wharf grocers and fish dealers report a larger business the last year than in any previous year, and that their losses by bad debts have been practically nil.

Last Wednesday night there was one of the most brilliant displays of the Aurora Borealis ever witnessed in the city.

The sports of the city paid their money last Tuesday night to see an alleged pugilist who did not materialize. Nobody was harmed by his absence.

The tone quality of the new Scribner pipe organ is remarkable. One shown by F. A. Peters, jr., 107 Princess street, is only about the size of an upright piano, yet it possesses the quality and carrying power of a two thousand dollar church organ. It is, of course, not so loud, but its tone is very full, sound, sweet and prevailing and the variety of its combinations makes it an ideal instrument for choir accompanying. Mr. Peters is very pleased with it and invites correspondence and careful inspection from churches and Sunday Schools in need of an organ.

There are in port uncleared two steamers, two barques and 71 schooners.

Flour is somewhat easier: best Ontario is quoted at $5. Hungarian $5.85. Pork and beef are slightly higher; clear pork, $16, mess, $15. Bouchers beef rolls $15.75, extra plate $15, plate $14.75. Lard is also higher; in tubs, 8 cents; in pails 8 1/2 and in tins 8 3/4 cents. Pollock has advanced to $2.10 per 100 pounds. Oils are higher, best American 20 cents, highest grades Canadian 18 1/2 cents and second grades 16 1/2 cents. A combination of manufacturers has advanced prices of paper bags about 40 per cent.

EDWARD EDWARDS, St. John, March 19.

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

FREDERICTON, March 15.—The Assembly adopted the report of the contingent committee recommending the payment of $1,000 extra to the official reporter. Dr. Stockton thought there was a constitutional point involved in the recommendation—namely, that no grant of public money could emanate from the House. Mr. Emmerson and Mr. Tweedie differed from him.

Bills consolidating and amending the law relating to the courts of probate, and amending the provisions of act 54 Victoria, chapter 11, so far as it relates to aiding harbor improvements at the ledge, Dufferin, Charlotte county, were introduced.
