SUCCESSFUL OPERATION .- Mrs. Chas. Carpenter, of Queenstown, Queens Co., underwent an operation for tumor at Victoria Hospital yesterday afternoon. Drs. Atherton, and McLearn of this city, and Dr. Caswell of Gagetown, performed the operation. Mrs. Carpenter is reported as having stood the operation well, and strong hopes are entertained of its ultimate success.-Gleaner, Wednesday.

EXCURSION TO GAGETOWN. -The Stmr. Victoria made her first trip to Gagetown on Saturday. She arrived here about 3 o'clock and remained until 4.30. About 400 took advantage of the excursion and paid our shiretown a visit. All were well pleased with the town and speak in the highest terms of the beautiful country surrounding Gagetown.

MOOSE AND CARIBOU.-Mr. Frank H. Resteen, of Fredericton, writing to "The Forest and Stream," New York, makes the following reference to Canaan River, Queens County:-This locality is perhaps the most noted moose region in the province. It lies close to the Settlements, has been much hunted, but is still well supplied with both moose and caribou. The best way for the American sportsman to reach it is to proceed to St. John and thence up the Intercolonial to Apohaqui or Sussex, or else by the Washademoak boat, which tri-weekly runs from HOTEL BURNED.-The Westfield Hotel St. John to Cole's Island. A good man

Mr. William Allen, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. E. S. Brody and Mrs. Jas. Mc-Murray of St. John are in town. Messrs. E. S. Brody, Jas. McMurray. and Murray Reid of St. John spent Sunday in town.

MARRIED IN MASSACHUSETTS. — A Maugerville correspondent writes to the Sun:—The relatives and friends of Miss Lillian M. DeVeber were a bit surprised when they received the announcement of her marriage to Louis A. Clapp of Ithica, N. Y., as previously made in the Sun. Miss DeVeber left her home here two years ago this summer, to enter a hospital in Newburyport, Mass., where the work proved uncongenial. She removed to Wakefield, Mass., where she met her fate. Her very many 'riends are delighted to her of her felicitious match, and happily extend their best wishes for her future happmess. ATTENDED CHURCH AT JEMSEG.—Last Sunday evening, through the kindness of Mr. John F. Bridges a large number of the people of Gagetown were enabled to attend service at Lower Jemseg. At half-past 6 o'clock Mr. Bridges' Stmr. Martello left the wharf and reached Jem- seg in good time for the passengers to at- tend church. But unfortunately the rain came down in torrents and prevented a large part of the company getting to the place of worship and who remained on board the steamer. The braver spirits, however, faced the rain and helped to swell to the congregation that had gather- ed despite the rain. The church was well	PERSONAL.
