The case of G. H. Sewell vs. E. McElvaney attracted a large crowd from the parish of Lincoln. The defendant secured a verdict.

MURRAY E. GILBERT vs. Philip Goen was decidedly dramatic toward the finish. The defendant, who was seriously ill, was brought into court lying on a bed, and gave his testimony with such effect that he won the case.—Herald.

AN INDIAN WEDDING AT WELSFORD.—One of the chief attractions of last week was the marriage on Friday evening of John Bernard and Miss Mary Francis (Indians) in St. Luke's church by the Rev. W. B. Armstrong, rector of Petersville, Queens Co. Long before the hour that the marriage was to take place the church was well filled by people anxious to witness the event.

ing the national anthem, all feeling that the enjoyment of the evening was chiefly due to the fact that a duty had been performed which would be a lasting and happy remembrance in the minds of the people of the wigwam as well as their pale faced brethren.—Sun.

MILL BURNED AT UPPER GAGETOWN.—Messrs. Coy Bros.' Steam Saw Mill at Upper Gagetown, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday evening between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock.

DONATION.—The donation for the Rev. Neil McLaughlin, held at the Methodist Parsonage here, on Wednesday evening, March 9th, was both socially and financially, a decided success.

There have been publications in your paper stating the number of bundles of hay pressed by certain parties in one day, but none of these can compare with the work done by Messrs. Fred I. Dinglee, Wm. Brooks, jr., John Law, jr., Hazen Dinglee and Allen B. Dinglee who recently pressed 112 bundles, or 13 tons, 1700 lbs of hay between the hours of 7 a. m. and 5.30 p. m.

From this (10 1/2 hours) should be deducted one hour, which was taken in stowing the bales, and the time occupied in eating dinner and lunch.

Yours truly, ALLEN B. DINGEE. Gagetown, March 12th, 1898.

The Golden Klondike. AN ENORMOUS RUSH OF GOLD SEEKERS GOING IN.

Some Sound Advice from One Who Has Made the Trip, and Knows Something of the Hardships the Gold Seekers Must Undergo.

In the rush towards the golden fields of the Klondike, there are thousands who are ill-fitted to stand the strain of hardship and exposure, which are inseparable from that trip.

DEAR SIRS.—My object in writing this letter is to give a word of advice to those who contemplate going to the Yukon gold field. For ten years I have followed the occupation of prospecting, timber estimating and mining, and the hardships and privations which one has to undergo, are enough to wreck the strongest constitution.

INDIANTOWN NEWS.—The wharves and slips at this end of the city present a busy appearance just now, as a large number of men are engaged making repairs to the river steamers and tugs.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dunn, of St. John, spent Sunday in town. Mr. Harry Allingham, of St. John, and Mr. John Barton, of Armstrong's

Corner, spent Sunday with Mr. Thomas Allingham.

Mr. Johnson Cooper, of South Clones, is spending a few days with Mr. Wm. Cooper.

Revs. I. N. Parker and J. H. E. Rickard were in town on Saturday.

Mrs. John Fox has returned from Apoahqui, Kings Co.

Mr. Bruce McDermott has returned home there was considerable frost connected with his trip.

Mr. William Hamilton, and daughter Annie, have returned home from a visit to their relatives in Ballisle, Studholm and Highfield.

Mr. Charles Hunter, of Chelsea Mass, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. T. McAllister.

Mr. Morris Scovil was in St. John last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dinglee, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Merritt spent last Saturday at Jemseg; the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purdy.

Messrs. John Bridges and Henry Osborne went to St. John on Tuesday.
