THANKSGIVING DAY.—Thursday next 24th inst. has been appointed by the Dominion Government as Thanksgiving Day.

GOOD BEEF.—Some very fine beef was exhibited in Thos. Dean's stall in the country market yesterday. It is Queens county beef, and is the equal of any seen in the market of late.—Sun.

GONE INTO WINTER QUARTERS.—Friday night the Stmr. Aberdeen laid at this wharf, and the next morning proceeded to Swan Creek, where she goes into winter quarters.

TO ERECT NEW BRIDGES.—On Friday last Hon. L. P. Farris and Engineer Alfred Hains passed through this village en route to Petersville, looking after the bridges in that parish. They found that the Dunn and Kerr Bridges were in a bad condition and new ones will be erected at these places as soon as possible.

TO VISIT MONTREAL.—Dr. J. A. Casswell left by Stmr. May Queen on Monday for Montreal where he will spend the next six weeks. His place will be supplied during his absence by Dr. Bayfield, of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, who arrived here on Friday last.

H. W. Woods, General Merchant, Welsford, has just received a fine, new line of the celebrated B. Lawrence Spectacles and Eye glass in Gold, Gold-filled and nickel frames. Mr. Woods keeps a perfect line of test lenses, and can guarantee perfect satisfaction to any person who require perfect aids to vision.

ADDITION TO HIS HERD.—Mr. Russia Williams received by boat on Friday, a thoroughbred Tamworth sow pig, and about two weeks ago he received a thoroughbred Yorkshire sow. With his pure bred Berkshires he will now be able to supply a fine assortment of grade as well as pure bred pigs.

LAST TRIP FOR THIS SEASON.—The St. May Queen arrived here on Saturday on her last trip up river this season. She went as far as Jenesep and remained there over Sunday, returning to St. John on Monday morning. The May Queen has carried a very large amount of freight during the past summer.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETING.—A meeting of Queens Central Agricultural Society No. 70, will be held in the Society's Hall, Upper Hampstead, on Saturday the 26th inst. As this is the last meeting at which names can be taken by the society for the coming year, all interested are requested to attend. Names handed in to this office, or to the President, Secretary or Treasurer of the Society will receive due attention.

MATRIMONIAL.—Mr. Daniel Elliott, a well-known resident of Stanley, and Mrs. Edward Quinn, proprietress of the Lorne Hotel, were married at St. Dunstan's Church Monday evening, the Rev. Father Casey performing the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. Immediately afterwards the newly wedded couple took passage by train for St. John, and will return in a few days and take up their residence on Regent street.—Farmer.

SHOULD PUT UP A GOOD RACE.—Having defeated the crack Halifax oarsmen, Lynch and Brennan, in two square contests on Bedford Basin, Vail, the Gagetown sculler, Cincinnatus-like, has returned to the plough at his native village and will whittle sticks through the winter and tell his chums just how he did it. And next year, in looking for further conquests, he may run against a snag in the person of our own Johnson. Johnson and Vail should make a great race.—St. Croix Carrier.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—War or no war I am still in the front rank in fitting trim, having lately secured the services of Mr. J. A. McKinnon, a late graduate of Mr. J. Mitchell's cutting school of New York. I am now fully prepared to give my numerous customers a first class fit, workmanship unexcelled, style perfect, and prices that will astonish you. I respectfully invite you to call and inspect my large stock, no trouble to show goods and give you quotations at Joseph Walker's, Merchant Tailor, second door above People's Bank, Queen Street, Fredericton, West End.

A RARE CHANCE.—Mr. B. Myers of Main street, St. John, is offering with every two dollars worth of goods bought at his store, the following presents: 12 doz. shirt buttons, 1 package of needles, 2 papers of pins, 2 spools of linen thread, 2 doz. safety pins, 24 sheets of writing paper, 25 envelopes, 2 doz. pant buttons, and one doz. bone collar buttons. His goods are sold very low. Don't forget the place, B. Myers, No. 695 Main St., St. John. See his advt. in another column.

COOK'S SURE COUGH CURE.

PURCHASED A HORSE.—Mr. Daniel Brooks purchased the DuVernet horse at the sale on Tuesday for $20. This is a very low price for a good horse.

DEATH OF SHERIFF FREEZE.—Sheriff Freeze of Kings county died Sunday. Deceased was the oldest sheriff in the province, having held the shrievalty of Kings county for thirty-five years. He was sixty-eight years of age and leaves a wife and three sons.

DEATH OF A CHILD.—The death occurred at Oromocto Thursday morning of Freddie, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smith, aged 2 years and 6 mos. Congestion of the lungs was the cause of the death of the little one.—Gleaner.

DRY GOODS.—On page 4 of this issue will be found the advertisement of Mr. S. C. Porter of 11 Charlotte Street, St. John, the well known Dry Goods firm. It will be to the advantage of intending purchasers to read the advertisement. Mr. Porter offers men's underwear, dress goods, flannelettes and all kinds of dry goods at very low prices.

A GOOD GOOSE.—A wild goose weighing eleven pounds, and measuring five feet four inches from tip to tip, came down on the steamer Hampstead on Monday and was sold to Capt. Keast. It was shot by John Beatty, at Spoon Island.—Sun.

FURNITURE SALE.—The household furniture together with the farming machinery and crop of the late H. J. DuVernet was disposed of by public auction on Tuesday last. Mrs. DuVernet and family left on Saturday for Boston where they will reside with Mrs. DuVernet's parents.

The big American publishers have had their eyes opened lately. THE FAMILY HERALD AND WEEKLY STAR, of Montreal, has with a bound surpassed them all, and has now such a lead that the large American weeklies freely acknowledge its superiority and congratulate Canada on its marvellous newspaper success. This is most gratifying to all Canadians. They are evidently appreciating it, too, for reports from Montreal tell us that never before was there such a rush of subscriptions.

FATAL SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—Travis Steeves, aged 17, son of Hazen Steeves, of Mechanic Settlement, Kings Co., lost his life under sad circumstances on Saturday afternoon. Accompanied by a companion named David Alton he was in search of a deer which had been seen earlier in the day and while walking rapidly down a hill carrying a double-barrel gun over his shoulder the muzzle of which was grasped in his left hand he fell, discharging the weapon loaded with buck-shot, the charge entering his left groin and severing the main artery. He was carried to the house of Mr. Fenwick Teakles, where he bled to death in a short time.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NEWS.—Mr. John B. Kinghorn, a recent graduate of Fredericton Business College, in both the book-keeping and shorthand departments left on Tuesday for Montreal where he has secured a lucrative position. Miss Winifred Perley another recent graduate in the shorthand department, has secured a position in New York city, to which place she went immediately on graduating. Miss Hattie Chase, having obtained the shorthand diploma, returned to her home in Upper Gagetown, a few days ago. Miss Chase, in company with her sister, is likely to return for the book-keeping course at some future time.—Gleaner.

DIED AT BLISSVILLE.—Mrs. Wellington Y. Hoyt, of Blissville, Sunbury County, died at her home on Tuesday last, after a lingering illness of consumption. Mrs. Hoyt was in the 42nd year of her age and was the daughter of Mr. Robt. Moffatt. She leaves a sorrowing husband, one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Mersereau, and two sons to mourn their loss. The funeral took place on Thursday, the remains laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery. The Rev. O. N. Mott conducted the funeral service.

WEDDING BELLS.—Miss Blanche Scribner, daughter of Mr. James W. Scribner, was united in marriage at 8.30 o'clock, Thursday morning to Charles Cromwell of the Narrows. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Steele, at the residence of the bride's parents, 39 Albert street, in the presence of their immediate friends and relatives. The bride was attired in a blue travelling suit and was unattended. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of, and the happy couple left for their future home at the Narrows. Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

A quiet wedding took place in St. James' church early Thursday morning, when Miss Maria Megarity, daughter of Mrs. Irvine Megarity, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Robert Phillips, of Coles's Islands, by the Rev. A. D. Dewdney. Only near relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride wore a pretty travelling suit of blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Lizzie Phillips, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid, and Andrew Megarity the groomsmen. The young couple left soon after the ceremony for their home at Cole's Island. They received many beautiful presents.—Sun.

BARBER SHOP.—Mr. Jas. Law has opened up a barber shop in the GAZETTE Building in the rooms lately occupied by Wm. Deuchars as a tailor shop.

Beats the Klondike. Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvellous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Sold at any Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

PARTY.—On Wednesday evening last, about fifty of the young people of the place gathered at the residence of Mr. Michael Mahoney, Mill Road, for an evening's enjoyment. At 8 o'clock dancing was begun. Music was furnished by Messrs. George Owens, Harry Dingee, R. DeB. Scott and Clement Mahoney. Gagetown was well represented, also a number from Lower Jenesep were present. At 12 o'clock a sumptuous supper was served, each doing ample justice to the good things provided. Dancing was again indulged in until the 'wee sma' hours.' Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney did all in their power to make the evening one long to be remembered. At about four o'clock, after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney for their kindness, the party broke up all expressing themselves as well pleased with the evenings enjoyment.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for 'The Story of the Philippines' by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as Official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco, on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the Hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the rear of battle at the fall of Manila. Bonanza for agents. Brimful of original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large Book. Low prices. Big profits. Freight paid. Credit given. Drop all trashy unofficial war books. Outfit free. Address, F. T. Barber, Sec'y., Star Insurance Bldg., Chicago.
