KILLED ON THE C. P. R.—A very sad accident occurred this morning at Spurr Cove railway crossing, near Fairville. An aged woman, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, a resident of Greenhead, was going to Fairville from St. Rose's church, where she had been attending early Mass. As she neared the crossing the C. P. R. train from Fredericton came in sight. The old lady walked within a few feet of the crossing, then stopped as if confused, and again started on her way across the track. The engineer of the train saw her and endeavored by every means in his power to avert the impending tragedy. His efforts, were, however, futile, and the poor frail old woman was struck by the buffer beam of the pilot and tossed high in the air, landing heavily beside the track a lifeless corpse. The train was brought to a standstill as soon as possible and the conductor, Mr. Milburn Burgess, went back with others, picked up the remains, laid them out on the bank and covered them with a sheet. He then notified the parish authorities and the train proceeded. Mrs. Murphy is very old. Her exact age is not known, but is thought to be about ninety-six years. She was a widow and leaves one daughter, Mrs. John Morris, of Fort Howe, Globe.

DEATH OF MRS. T. E. BABBITT.—Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, Mrs. T. E. Babbitt passed peacefully away at her home in Gibson. She was born at Mauderville in 1829, and was the youngest child of the late James Banks, who was lost in 1835 in the woods on the Tobique, and is supposed to have been killed by Indians. Of the family of fourteen, only two sisters survive Mrs. Babbitt, viz: Mrs. Benj. Morse, of Mitchell, South Dakota, and Miss Phoebe Banks, of Oranocoto. At the early age of twelve years, Mrs. Babbitt was baptized by Rev. Geo. Miles and united with the Baptist church of Mauderville. She was married at the age of twenty to Deacon T. Babbitt of Gibson. Five children were born unto them, some of which died in infancy, another Mrs. J. W. Tabor died in 1881. Two sons B. H. and T. D. Babbitt; and one daughter, Mrs. Chesley Moore survive their beloved mother. Mrs. Babbitt has been ill for over a year and now at the ripe age of seventy, after having lived a most exemplary life, she has passed away with the respect of all who knew her. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2.30, and the memorial service on Sunday next at 11 a. m. in Gibson Baptist church.

THE BERRY SEASON.—A half pail and a quarter pail of wild strawberries came down river on the steamer Hampstead this morning and were sold to one of the leading grocery firms for $1.50. However these are not the first wild berries of the season to reach the city. Generally speaking the crop of small fruits along the river will be extra large this year. Cultivated strawberries promise a rich yield as do also the native berry. The berry farms of Zebedee Richards at Greenwich and Thomas Thorne at Palmer's Point are going to be particularly fruitful, while in blueberries a harvest exceeding those of many years back is expected. Mr. Harry Woods, of Welsford, the "blueberry king" of New Brunswick, ships tons of the azure hued fruit to Uncle Sam every year. Berry picking and transporting throughout the river and C. P. R. countries is a fast growing industry comparatively little known of by the people at large.—Record.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Wilmer Atkinson Co., publishers of The Biggle Books. In conciseness of statement, in the thoroughness with which the ground has been covered, The Biggle Books have won praises on every hand. The boiled-down, common-sense, cream, not skim-milk method, which characterizes the pages of the FARM JOURNAL has been carried out in their preparation. For mechanical effect no expense or pains have been spared, and the highly finished paper, the beautiful illustrations, the excellent type and press work, and the handsome cloth binding, make these books models of the printer's art. The color work in the Berry, Poultry and Cow Books has never been attempted before in any book selling for a reasonable price. No farm or rural home is complete without Judge Biggle's Books, and no one interested in these subjects can afford to let another day go by without sharing in the helpful things with which their pages are filled. Pay $40 for a farm library other than this and you will not have more value. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

HORSE RACE.—The annual horse race will be held on the race course at Mr. Robert Colwells', Cumberland Bay, July 12th. Mr. Colwell has made much improvement in the condition of the race track and park, and has spared no pains in making the grounds attractive. A number of fast horses will enter the race, including one by A. B. Wetmore and another by W. S. Baird, and others. A first-class dinner and tea will be served at the buildings erected on the grounds for the purpose. A merry-go-round will be furnished by Mr. Colwell, but will not be run by horses as in previous years, but by steam which is in every way superior to that run by horses. Music will be rendered by the best musicians that can be procured, and all who wish to trip the "light fantastic" will have a chance to do so. Refreshments will be on the grounds and can be procured at a low price. Come one! Come all for there will be a grand opportunity afforded for each and every one to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

School Closing.

The closing exercises of the advanced department of the Grammar School were held Friday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. About twenty visitors were present, including R. T. Babbitt, John R. Dunn, Mr. Law, T. S. Peters, Rev. N. McLaughlin, Mr. Dinglee.
The school was examined by Mr. Dunn with the assistance of Mr. Dinglee and the teacher. Although the pupils had nearly all been to the Forrester's Excursion the day before and were thoroughly tired out, general satisfaction was expressed with the work of the school.

At the close of the examination prizes were awarded for excellence in English Composition. Prizes had been offered by R. T. Babbitt, D. L. Mitchell and Rev. N. C. Hansen for the best English Composition in the form of a letter of not less than 200 words. The examiners were Mr. Dunn, Mr. Scovil, and Dr. Casswell. They had much difficulty in deciding between four letters in Grade X. These letters were written by Arlie Dickey, Annie Dickey, Winifred Babbitt, and John Palmer and were finally arranged in the above order. In Grade IX Miss Ruby Peters and Miss Pearl Peters gained first and second place. All these letters will appear in next week's "GAZETTE," and are as follows:—"Master Reginald Ayrtton," Arlie Dickey; "Daisy Deane," Annie Dickey; "Lola Fair," Winifred Babbitt; James Jenkins, John Palmer; "Sobriquet," Ruby Peters; "Polymnia," Pearl Peters.

The primary department held its closing examination Wednesday morning. All the classes showed a high degree of proficiency in the work gone over. The subjects deserving special mention were spelling, geography, history, and mental arithmetic. Short addresses were made by Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Simpson and Mr. Mitchell. All seemed thoroughly satisfied that the school was in a good healthy condition and that the pupils were being well grounded in those subjects most essential in a primary department.
