The remains were taken to Upper Gagetown Tuesday morning and interred.

Judge Biggle not only knows a great deal about Horses, but what is more important he knows how to impart his information in a way that will be understood. One does not have to wade through a mass of undigested unimportant matter. The Biggle Books are models of clearness and conciseness. They are advertised in another column. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

POLITICAL PICNIC.—The political picnic held here on Friday last was well attended considering the weather and the lateness of the season. The Strm. Aberdeen arrived from the Washademoak early in the day and the Victoria brought a large number from the city. The meeting was held in a tent brought from St. John for the purpose. Mr. G. A. Perley, Warden of Sunbury County, was appointed chairman. Speeches were made by Messrs. Wilmot, Black, Foster Hetherington and Hazen. Mr. Hetherington prepared the nomination of Hon. Geo. E. Foster as Conservative candidate for the Counties of Queens and Sunbury at the next Dominion election, in the interest of the Conservative party. The nomination was well received and a vote was called which was unanimously in favor of Mr. Foster.

Municipal Election.

The Municipal Elections for Councilors for the Municipality of Queens, were held on Tuesday, 10th inst, The day proved fine although in the early morning the weather looked stormy. A very lively interest was taken all over the contests in this election and in most places party lines were pretty cleverly drawn. In this parish objections were taken at the opening of the pole to the nomination of Mr. J. W. Dickie by Mr. J. R. Dunn, who claimed that Mr. Dickie's nomination was not properly signed. Objections were also taken by Mr. R. T. Babbitt to the nomination of Mr. Fred Dingee, claiming that the nomination and declaration were not attached. The Clerk, Mr. Holmes decided that the election should go on, and the pole was held with the following result:

- Dingee. 133
Davis. 129
Dickie. 118

The election all over the County was in favor of the Conservatives. Straight Liberals were elected in only two parishes—Cambridge and Chipman. Canning returns have not as yet been received. The new Council will be composed of the following: Brunswick—Beach and Corey. Cambridge—Jas. Robinson and Colwell. Chipman—Dr. Hay and I. C. Fraser. Gagetown—Dingee and Davis. Johnston—Hamilton and Akerley. Hampstead—Peters and Nickerson. Petersburg—Lingley and Woods. Wickham—Mott and Chase. Waterborough—Wiggins and Gale. With Canning to hear from. The figures are not yet available but will appear next week.

SUNBURY COUNTY.

The returns are as yet not all available in Sunbury municipal election. The following are as near as can be ascertained: Burton—McElroy and Armstrong. Blissville—Taylor and Hoyt. Gladstone—Tracey and Nason. Lincoln—Smith and Egars. Maugerville—Perley and Banks. Sheffield—Burpee and Taylor. Northfield to hear from.

A SURPRISE INDEED.

We notice in the 'Family Herald and Weekly Star' this week that the publishers of that great paper are this season giving all subscribers new and renewal, no less than two beautiful pictures instead of one. The pictures represent 'War' and 'Peace.' They are the famous battle picture, 'Aima,' in colors, and a sweetly pretty picture entitled 'Pussy Willows.' To think of such an offer makes one wonder how it can be done. The 'Family Herald and Weekly Star' contains 24 pages, 192 columns every issue, equal to a book of 384 pages each week. The great paper of Canada and two beautiful pictures all for one dollar! How is it possible? It is the talk of the whole country.

Mill Road Pic Social.

The R. C. Church at this place held their basket social on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4.

The house was filled to its utmost capacity and when the hour for opening the entertainment came Mr. R. T. Babbitt was called to the chair and in a few well chosen remarks called the meeting to order. Mr. John Dickie was chosen cashier, Mr. Fred L. Corey, secretary, and Mr. Amos S. Corey, auctioneer.

Miss Susie J. Brooks presided at the organ, and the social was opened by the choir singing, 'Cast thy Bread upon the Water.' The programme was as follows: Reading, 'Our Railroads,' Lewis S. Dingee. Recitation, 'The Stowaway,' Miss Besie Dingee. Singing—a trio—'Down to the Club.' Recitation, 'Fanny is a Bonny Girl,' Miss Annie Dingee. Singing of Indian Clubs—Arthur M. Belyea. Reading, 'How Christmas came to the Poorhouse,' Miss Louisa Hayden. Singing, 'I should like to die, said Willie,' four little girls. Recitation, 'That Keg of Butter,' Lewis S. Dingee. Singing, 'Susan,' Misses Pearl and Winifred Babbitt. Recitation, 'The Babes in the Woods,' Miss Jennie Mahoney. Recitation, 'Christmas Miracle,' Miss Lena Mahoney.

The auctioneer then offered the pies and baskets for sale. A lively competition ensued and the sum of $31.00 was realized which is for the benefit of the R. C. Church of this place. This social was pronounced by all present one of the best ever held at the little school house on Mill Road. After a very pleasant time spent in discussing the dainties provided by the fair sex, the meeting closed with singing 'God Save the Queen.'

SERIOUS FIRE.

The Residence of Mr. J. R. Dunn Destroyed on Tuesday.

One of the most disastrous fires that ever occurred in Gagetown took place on Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock.

Just as the people were returning from the Court House after the close of the poll, smoke was seen issuing from the rear of a pretty dwelling house on Main street, owned by Mr. G. A. Williams, and occupied by Mr. J. R. Dunn, and in a few minutes the whole building was a mass of flames. The fire started in the barn where a quantity of hay and straw was stored. The dense smoke from the barn immediately poured into the house, the rear door of which had, unfortunately, been left open, making it impossible to save anything in the house. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn lost all their furniture, and all the wearing apparel of themselves and family.

Mr. G. A. Williams had all his furniture stored in the house, none of which was saved.

To much cannot be said in favor of those who worked so heroically to save the nearby house of Mr. John Gaunce. The distance between the houses did not measure over eight feet, and with no other means of fighting the flames, save handing water up to the roof in buckets the men bravely fought back the fire. The heat was so intense that at times they were forced to leave the ladders. But after an hour's hard work the danger was passed and Mr. Gaunce's house and barn were both saved.

Mr. Charles Cooper who was bravely helping to save the house of Mr. Gaunce was overcome by the heat and was carried to the residence of Mr. Robt. F. Davis' where Dr. Casswell was summoned and after an hour's work brought him around.

Mr. G. A. Williams had $1,000 insurance on his house and furniture in the London, Liverpool & Globe and Union Insurance Companies.

Mr. J. R. Dunn had his face burned while trying to save some of his family.

The greatest loser was Mr. Dunn, he having no insurance. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. Dunn on his serious loss.

There was no damage done to Mr. Gaunce's house and the furniture which was rescued was not at all hurt.

DIED.

McLEAN—At Coal Creek, Chipman, Sept. 30th, Sarah Blanche, infant daughter of Charles H. E., and Bertha McLean, aged two months.
