FATAL ACCIDENT.-A fatal accident occurred at Upper Hampstead on Monday morning, resulting in the death of an old and much respected resident of that place, in the person of Mr. Robert Cameron. Mr. Cameron who was in his 87th year was in the act of boarding the Str., May Queen, in front of Mr. Gilchrist's, Upper Hampstead, when the accident occurred. There was a very strong tide running at the time and Mr. Cameron was not able to manage the boat, owing to his age. His boat was carried by the tide under the paddle wheel of the steamer, which, although not in motion at the time, caused the boat to turn bottom up. The steamer's boat was immediately launched and every effort made to rescue the man. When the boat was reached and uprighted Mr. Cameron was found caught by the coat sleeve to one of the row locks of his boat, dead. Mr. Cameron was formerly a woodboat man on this river. Everyone is sorry to hear of the accident.

A few of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present, including the brother of the former, Mr. George B. Munroe. The bride, one of Queens fairest and most popular young ladies, looked charming in a travelling suit of turquoise box cloth, and white roses in her hair. On the following Monday the Rev. gentleman and his bride left for Portland Me., where they will spend a few days before resuming their journey to Vermont, where Mr. Corey has accepted a call to a church. That Book Agent.

The Pastor. "Good morning, Bro. Roberts, what makes you look so sad this morning?"

Bro. R. "I have come to say good-bye, Mr. Brown, for I am out of employment, and must go back to England."

The Pastor. "Go back to England to get employment, what nonsense! I can get lots of work for a young man like you in this country."

Bro. R. "Well, I have hunted high and low and can get nothing, so what am I to do?"

The Pastor. "I tell you what you can do, Bro. Roberts, take an agency for a good book, for there is money in canvassing?"

Bro. R. "Do you think I would stoop to book canvassing?"

The Pastor. (Somewhat warmly.) "Stoop to canvassing! Better men than you have canvassed. I put myself through College with a book prospectus, and I know many successful men who got their start in life as canvassers. My youngest son is canvassing now, and he makes enough at the business to pay his way at the University. I induced a man who failed in business, to take up canvassing, and he made enough money to start business again. I gave the same advice to a young mechanic, who was out of employment, and he is now a prosperous publisher. Why some of the biggest men in history have been book agents! 'Stoop to canvassing,' you are very fortunate that you can STEP UP TO IT. I advise you to write to the Bradley-Garreston Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., for this firm publishes fast selling books, and I know many who are doing well in its employ."

Bro. R. "I am sorry for speaking as I did for I was certainly wrong. I will write The Bradley-Garreston Company and see what they have to offer, and will postpone my departure in the meantime."

Black Knot in Plum Trees.

Before the warm weather comes the plum trees should be looked over and any limbs that show marks of black warts that indicate black knot should be removed with a sharp knife and the wound washed with carbolic acid solution or some other antiseptic. In fact, it is a good plan to spray plum trees with a carbolic acid solution, made one part of carbolic acid to 2000 parts of water. This will remain on the spores which are dormant during the winter until they burst their bounds and begin to spread the disease over the tree. The solution named is much stronger than can be applied after the foliage is in its tender growth.
