Poetry.

MIZPAH.

Go thou thy way, and I go mine, Apart yet not afar, Only a thin veil hangs between The pathways where we are. And 'God keep watch' tween thee and me,

This is my prayer, He looks thy way, He looketh mine, And keeps us near. know not where thy road may be, Or which way mine shall be;

And thine beside the sea; Yet God keeps watch 'tween thee and me, So never fear. He holds my hand, He claspeth thine,

If mine will lead through parching sands,

And keeps us near.

Should wealth and fame perchance be thine,

And my lot lonely be; Or you be sad and sorrowful, And glory be for me;

Yet 'God keep watch 'tween thee and me, Both be his care. One arm round thee, and one round me, Will keep as near.

I'll sigh sometimes to see thy face, But since this may not be; 'll leave thee to the care of Him Who cares for thee and me; I'll keep you both beneath my wings,'

This comforts, dear; One wing o'er thee, and one o'er me, So we are near.

And though our paths be separate, And thy way is not mine; Yet coming to the mercy seat, My soul shall meet with thine; And 'God keep watch' tween thee and me, I'll whisper there; He blesseth thee, He blesseth me, And we are near.

NOT SELF, BUT OTHERS.

God's world is very large, Ours is so small; Our love is for our own, His love for all. The Father's light and love No change can dim; Why have His children grown So unlike Him?

Faces care-worn and hard, Hearts of unrest, Hands swift to snatch and hold For self the best. Insatiate greed for gold, Luxury, ease-What do the sons of God, Oh! for the love of God, Keep love to man; Study the Father's will, Further His plan. Self-love is never joy, Never knows peace, Aye, in the God-like soul!

Craving for these?

Self-love must cease. Children of love divine, Learn larger ways; Cherish the nobler life Filled with God's praise. Sorrow will lose its power, Morning will break, If the heart lose itself

For love's dear sake. REMEMBER THY MOTHER.

Remember thy mother tenderly Down life's steep decline; Once her arm was thy support, Now she leans on thee. See upon her loving face Those deep lines of care; Think-it was her toil for thee Left that record there.

Ne'er forget her tireless watch Kept by day and night, Taking from her step the grace, From her eye the light; Cherish well her faithful heart, Which, through weary years, Echoed with its sympathy All thy smiles and tears.

Thank God for thy mother's love; Guard the priceless boon; For the bitter parting hour Cometh all too soon. When thy grateful tenderness Loses power to save, Earth will hold no dearer spot Than thy mother's grave.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 22-A despatch received here tonight states that the steamer Egda, bound into Louisbourg harbor late Thursday night, struck the pilot boat which went 'out to meet her, and in which there were four men.

The pilot boat was swamped and John E. Townsend, the light keeper a Louisbourg, was instantly killed, Life buoys were thrown from the steam-until rescued.

Garnier, of the schooner Bolino, which arrived at North Sydney today from Gaspe, reports the wreck of the schooner Tarquin of Souris, (P. E. I.), during the terriffic gale on Sunday last at Grindstone, one of the Magdalen Islands. The Tarquin was broken into kindling wood in an hour after going ashore. The captain and crew barely escaped with their lives. They lost everything.

Vessel Has Gone Down.

STONINGTON, Conn., Aug. 22.-A vessel has been sunk about five miles southeast of Moose Hummock, which itself lies south of Fisher's Island, and the circumstances point to this craft having been cut in two.

Etta F. Lena, picked up a 19 foot yawl Howard, James Little and Ed. Slaughenadrift near a lot of wreckage near the place indicated, and he also saw the mast of a vessel, apparently of about 250 tons, rising out of the water.

Five Suffocated.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 24-The four children of William Kronberg, and his servant girl were suffocated in a hre at 3.30 o'clock this morning and died before the firemen could reach them. The dead: Sadie, aged 17; Moses, aged 15; Edward, aged 13, and Charles, aged 8, and Miss Annie Marcus.

The fire was in a $2\frac{1}{2}$ story building at the corner of Franklin and For eral streets When the firemen arrived they were greeted with a cry that four children were in the third story. From the upper windows dense clouds of smoke were pouring and at the second story window at the rear a sheet of flame had burst. There was no chance to rescue the children and the servant girl who were probably at that time dead from the smoke and flames.

Mr. Kronberg, the father, stood half clad on the sidewalk, calling piteously to the fireman to go to the aid of the children, but there was no chance for them. Several times he cried out in agony: "My God, my children are burned, my furniture gone and I have no insurance." The Portland firemen raised their extension ladder against the front of the house and two men ran up, but they met a deadly flame. The dead body of the servant girl was the first found when an entrance was gained to the third story. Two of the boys were laying dead on the floor near the front window.

Kronberg is a cigar manufacturer, aged 40. His wife was taken to the hospital for an operation Friday night and is in such a condition that the death of all her children has not been announced to her. The father of Mr. Kronberg is a well known Boston Hebrew.

A Moneton Forger.

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 18.—Quite a number of citizens, including several legal gentlemen,, are mourning the departure from the city of a young I. C. R. brakeman named Henry R. Pierington, who, his administration of the said Estate and they allege, is a forger to the extent of some hundreds of dollars. According to some facts which came to light today, Pierington's boldness and audacity have his sa d Estate to appear before me at a never been equalled in the forging line in this city. They say he did not stop at forged notes, but went so far as to deed himself another man's property, and then give a mortgage on it.

Two or three months ago Pierington went to C. A. Steeves, barrister, to raise $150 by mortgage on a property in Albert County for which he held a deed, alleged to have been given by John Somers and executed before E. Girouard, barris-Pierington got the money, as everything seemed straight. In addition to this he discounted a note signed by his. brother-in law, Moses L. Somers, with L. W. McCann for $32.50, and also discounted notes with Moses L. and William Somers and Wright Edmondston's names attached, totalling about $135, discounted by R. A. Borden.

The notes held by McAnn came due Friday last, but Pierington had disappeared. On the morning of the 15th, his wife says, he left home for work as usual, but she has not seen him since, and knows nothing of his whereabouts. Pierington's absence naturally aroused suspicion among those holding documents passed around by him, and it now transpires that the deed alleged to have been given by John Somers was a forgery and also the note given McAnn, and possibly some of those held by Borden. Pierington's forgery of the deed was astonishingly bold. E. Girouard, before whom the deed was executed, did not know either Pierington or Somers, consequently it was easy to personate Somers. Mr. Steeves never dreamed of the deed being a forgery, as it was properly acknowledged by Girouard, and accordingly handed

Went Back to Save His Comrades.

Halifax, Aug. 22-Particulars of an accident which came very near being attended with fatal results, reached the Captain John Ostman, of the smack city last evening, from Prospect. Obed white had been out fishing since the previous day and the men were tired and sleepy. The boat, pretty deep in the water, was headed for home, the wind was blowing hard from the south, and while two of the fishermen were asleep the boat struck a rock some distance from an island of Lower Prospect, and began Little started to swim ashore, but when he found his companions were not with him he swam back to the boat and helped. them both to the shore of the island, the boat in the meantime sinking. The three men were taken to the mainland in another boat. Efforts at resuscitation of Howard and Slaughten white were not thoroughly successful.
