From information received, it appears that five men are under consideration for selection as his successor. The best known of these and the one on whom it is believed the choice will fall is Sir Thomas Anderson, K. C. B., Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs. Another, the Hon. Francis Hyde Villiers, is an assistant Under Secretary in the foreign office. The British Minister at Brussels, Sir J. F. Plunker, is included in the list, as is another prominent diplomatic officer, Mr. Henry Howard, C. B., the British Minister at The Hague. Mr. Howard served in Washington as First Secretary of the British legation when Sir Edward

Thornton was British Minister. Lady Pauncefote is to be presented with a diamond remembrance, worth about $1,500, from her society friends in Washington. The wife of the British Ambassador has made as many friends here as her distinguished husband, and the result has been a private little subscription list and the departure for New York of a well known society woman, who is the custodian of the fund for the farewell greeting.

The Mexican and Mume de Azpiroz entertained at one of the handsomest dinners of the year on Thursday evening, given in honor of Lord and Lady Pauncefote. Illness prevented Lady Pauncefote attending and Hon. Sybil Pauncefote was present in her name. The splendid dining room of the legation was exquisitely decorated with yellow tulips, the table being covered with them, and the vases filled with tulips and carnations were placed on the mantels, tables and buffet, while the drawing room was fragrant with pink carnations.

It seemed easy. The north was always physically stronger, but the job grew harder as the early days and months of the struggle went by. It is a slow job to manage such a stubborn foe. The other steps to be taken are expected to be about as hard as the ones already successful. Canada is prospering. It is largely due to American money that there is an unusual business impetus, but it is prospering just the same. I think that we now have only the beginning of the Canadian "boom."

Please allow me space in your valuable paper to announce to the many friends of Messrs. A. L. Gunter and Geo. Orchard that they have arrived safely home again after a week's absence. It has been reported that the former gentleman's intention for visiting the capital was to transact some very important business in which a witness would be required. Therefore he choose his friend Mr. Orchard to accompany him. Mr. Orchard had his leg broken last winter, but, under the skilful treatment of Dr. McCrea, is able to be among his many friends both of this place and We strongly sympathize with the two young men on hearing of their sad disappointment as other parties who had purposed visiting the capital at the same time had been suddenly called to their home in Caribou. Yours truly,
