DEAR JOURNAL:-Our Division is still doing a good work. We have initated several new member this quarter. We also learn that Wills Division is taking lead in the good work.

Dr. J. G. Atkinson, D. G. W. P. of Oak Division, is a leading man in the temperance movement. He is a candidate at the coming Municipal Election for St James Parish. We bespeak for him a liberal support, as we fully believe him to be the proper man in the proper place. Dr. Atkinson has won for himself a high standing in society in the past few years he has been among us. He came to Oak Hill a stranger unknowing and unknown about six years ago, and now he stands in the eyes of the public generally as a man of honor and of skill in his profession. Like all others in his profession he has his enemies, but who has not. As for a speaker we do not flatter him when we call him an Orator, especially on the temperance platform. He holds prominent positions in other secret societies, and as a proof of his ability he has been leader in them for years. We hope that he may be long spared to aid us in the good work, and will always be pleased to meet him in Ballie Division.

In Portland Division, a new lease of life has been very preceptible. The old, tried, and true members of No. 7 are up and doing. New recruits are pouring in and new vigor and zeal have permeated the hall of Old Portland. Deputy A. Y. The members of this timehonored division are shaping their plans for an active campaign in pushing the rum party to the wall prison wall) the ensuing six months. City of Portland Lodge, I. O. G. The class of men and women composing this lodge are unceasing in the good work; they are determined to do their share of the fight against the power of the rum fiend in prosecuting the successful carrying out of the Scott Act law. Bros. Pidgeon, Meahan, Wilson, Mabee, Beamish, and a number of others are determined to fight hard to see the Act enforced. Valley Division, S. of T., have arisen from the lethargy into which they had fallen during the summer months Bro. Alderman Fowler, the Deputy of the Division, has been untiring in his efforts to place Valley in the position it held two years ago. Your Scribe has had the pleasure of seeing, and officiating in, the initiation of as many as seventeen candidates in one night. The division room at that time was passing many of the older branches in quantity and quality. A new Fowler, to his credit be it said, was out-spoken and fearless at the meeting of the Common Council last

MR. EDITOR,-We have made it a and we trust they will continue to be 103 1. O. G. T. held a picnic on the grounds of James McDermod. | at Titusville, Upham, on the 14th inst. The bracing air of Autumn kept the pic-nicers in motion, the usual games was well patronized and a very pleasant day was spent. A large table was set in the green and well supplied with everything required to appease the appetite of the most hungry ball player and was well patronized.

In the evening there was a public Temperance Meeting in their New and commedious Hall. The chair was occupied by Alexander Simpson. Speeches were made by the chairman, A. S. White, M. P. P. the Rev Mr ... Duke, and George Barnes, Esq. A recitation by Miss Simpson, a solo by Miss Wear, a reading by Miss Bertha Robertson and a very comical duett by Mr Bonnie and Miss Wear, brought down the house, but the most laughable part of the entertainment was a reading by A.S. White M. P. P. in his own inimitable style, which allowed all the people to go home pleased with themselves and everybody else. Certainly everyperson seemed to enjoy themselves and the Lodge realized quite a sum which will be used to furnish their hall with seats. Сомм.
