WATERVILLE, ME, Oct 24, 1889.

WHEREAS, The Order of the Sons of Temperance has been in existence almost a half century, and has embraced within its folds of Love, Purity and Fidelity more than three millions of men and women, and thousands have been saved from a life of degradation and shame, and from the drunkard's doom, and thousands upon thousands have been saved from entering the downward road that leads to death and dishonor. Be it therefore RESOLVED, By the members of this Grand Division in Grand Division assembled, that we have renewed and unshaken confidence in our Grand Old Order of the Sons of Temperance as the best organization extant for the promotion of the cause of Temperance, and that we here, and now, pledge ourselves anew to redouble our exertions in this Heaven blessed Order, which has been, and is, capable of such possibilities for the benefit of mankind. Grand Division of Ontario.

Bro Wm H Bewell, Grand Scribe of Ontario, received a surprise at his Division, the first meeting after his return from the late G D session at Kingston. The newly elected G W P, Bro James Brooks, of Toronto, being present was requested to take the chair. Bro Ross Johnson, Chaplain, was called on for a speech. He said that he had a speech in his pocket, and that he would require Sister Lydia Wilkinson, W P; and Grace Hallett, P W P; (representatives who attended the G D session) to assist him. Bro Johnson, accompanied by the W P and P W P, then took the floor in front of the Treasurer's stand and read the following address, during which the W P presented Bro Bewell with a valuable gold pen, etc.:

WHITBY DIVISION, No 34, S of T, Dec 9th, '89.

DEAR BROTHER BEWELL,—We your fellow officers and members of this Division, avail ourselves of this the earliest opportunity of congratulating you and the Order on your re-election as Grand Scribe for Ontario, and also on the increase of remuneration, so well merited by you, so kindly granted by the Grand Division, and so calculated to cheer and encourage you in the continued discharge of what we well know to be your arduous duties.

Not only have you devoted your energies with unsparing zeal, and most gratifying success to the duties of your office as Grand Scribe, but as a member and officer of this Division we feel ourselves under great obligation to you for the unremitting interest you have taken in and the watchful eye you have kept on all our affairs, and the kindly counsel you have given us in all emergencies in which such counsel was needed.

We would gladly express our pleasure and appreciation in a more tangible form, but we know you will set a higher value than its intrinsic worth on this simple token of our regard.

It has been well said "the pen is mightier than the sword." In wielding the pen which we now present to you, may you ever feel that you have our hearty sympathy in your efforts for our common cause, and our best wishes for the welfare of yourself, your beloved wife, our sister, and the children whom God has given you.

Yours in L, P and F,

On behalf of the Division, Lydia Wilkinson, W P; Grace Hallett, P W P; B Mandill, P W P; J E Pengelly, P W P; Samuel Martin, C H Way, Mary Taylor, Ross Johnson, G A Carson, M D, P W P; Mary Forsyth.

The surprise being so complete, Bro Bewell could scarcely find words to express his thanks, yet the kindness of his fellow members was fully appreciated.

The G W P expressed his great pleasure in being present on this occasion. He had now had 13 years intimate personal acquaintance with the Grand Scribe, and could heartily subscribe to the language of the address. He knew Bro Bewell's interest in and devotion to everything pertaining to the well-fare of the Order of Sons of Temperance.
