Ontario Grand Division.

Thomas Webster, G W P, has recently appointed the following Deputies ;

J J Smythe, Rideau Division, No 175; G E Evans, Bonnie Doon Division, No 22; Rev J A McCannus, Lakeside Division, No 285; Rev W Johnson, Forest P O, Prov D G W P.

Lakeside Division, No 285, was instituted at Gore's Landing by J Arlington Cook, Prov D G W P on 26th Sept. Henry Waldin, W P; Rev J A McCamus, R S.

Mount Zion Division, No 38, received an official visit from the Grand Scribe on the 1st inst.

Welland District Division meets at Port Robinson on the 17th inst bridge on 9th inst.

Death has recently taken three well-known members of our Order. John McCaffrey, P W P; died at Box Grove on Aug 30th. He united with the Order about 35 years ago, and has been during that time devoted to its interests. He was many years the DG W P of his Division and became a member of the G D several years ago.

On the evening of Friday, Sept 27, L M Tye, D G W P of Brampton Division, No 148, and Co D G W P. of Peal County, attended his Division as usual, and took an active part in the proceedings, appearing to be in good health. On leaving the hall about 10 o'clock at the close of the Division, he called at a store, while there he was stricken down with paralysis, and never rallied. He died the following morning at 4.30. Bro Tye was a most active, enthusiastic and devoted member of the Order, a true friend and brother, always seeking the welfare of others. The Church, the Division and the community have lost a useful and honored member. He was a mem. ber of the G D for several years, and was G Con in 1887.

Mrs Andrew Hall, wife of the Oshawa Division, No 35, died sudlady was for many years an active member of the Order, and always expressed great pleasure that her

As our attention is more and more directed to this subject, we believe that as prosperity unexampled in its there are always plenty to stand character and extent dawns upon us, and criticise, find fault, and say the physical and moral world shall you so. And lastly, Cornelius, do bud with beauty, as a wild waste-land under skilled labor were changed into a magnificent harvest-field, enriching the steady toiler, so the church, family and State, in new departures, in renewed strength shall go forth,

Then life's uses, re-conveyed and York District Division at Wood- | through legitimate channels only, will give patronage to trade which, no longer taxed by unfair pauperism and crime, will supply our needs better and cheaper, and more the book and newspaper, no longer the luxury of the few, will be the teacher and thought-leader of our age.

> The greatest sufferers, more to be pitied because innocent, the hitherto drunkard's wife and child, appreciating the change will hasten to make our home gladsome, our social gatherings to be magnetic centers of interest, whilst they, our natural helpmeets help us we shall become men of renown, giants indeed, with life's cup of happiness, filled to overflowing.

Angel-land will then be separated from earth with a veil so thin that we can almost see through it, needing only the gentle hand of Christ to lift it; then our common enjoyments shall not only be akin to what is pure, but the kingdoms of earth and heaven shall forever be one in LOVE, PURITY AND FIDELITY. — Temperance Banner.

Talks by the Way.

THE SCOTT ACT AND SUCH LIKE.

Yes, Cornelius, I have a few minutes leisure today, and will be pleased to have veteran and devoted D G W P of a chat with you again. I am glad, my son, to know that you are feeling the denly on Oct 1st. The deceased better of the advice I have been giving you. It will be well to remember, my boy, that it is not always the advice you have to pay the most for that generally does you the most good, although Cornelius, people more readily follow the G. S.-Wm.)T. Robinson, Gibson. # advice they have to put down the solid cash for, notwithstanding it is often a nauseous dose. As there is evidently a desire to let things simmer in politics Deep sympathy is everywhere just now, Cornelius, we will direct our shown towards the families of the attention this week to the Scott Act. This h a wery obnoxious law to some people, my boy, a wery obnoxious law, but it is a law my son, that if one has a pull on it affords considerable revenue. In Our efforts to make the world sober this city, Cornelius, the VanWarts, is attracting some attention, and in it spelt with a capital W. but not two words, my boy, and the P. M.
