SONS OF TEMPERANCE

RESUCE.

Lots of Work to do but no money to carry it out.

An Urgent Call to the members to sustain the S. of T. press and assist in Distributing Temperance Literature.

A little money better than a good deal of sympathy.

We want more money and personal help on the part of the members to carry on this work we have undertaken in the interest of the Sons of Temperance.

We have been afraid the members would imagine we were publishing and the Journal for mercenary purposes and working for the order for the profits we could make out of the paper, and have not pressed for help as we should, and as a result we have been sinking hundreds of dollars yearly, and giving many hours of valuable time, which in our business has been equivalent to dollars and cents, to the work on the paper and writing letters to, and visiting branches of the order,

We are not in the least sorry for the time given or the money spent in the interests of the order, but we find we are hampered in carrying on the work for the lack of means-More money we must have for the work, and we cannot take it from our other business.

The field is too large, and the work too vast for our limited resourses. We a e giving weekly, hundreds of copies of the Sons of Temperance paper free to Grand W. P. & Grand Scribes and others, and are circulating thousands of circulars and dodgers, all over the continent having special reference to the order.

We must advertise our order more with news-pap r, circular and leaflet. and to do this those who have the good old order to heart must help us out with their means.

Oh! for a big-hearted, loyal and philanthropic member of the order who would come forward and say, "show me that you are in earnest in this work and I will help you to the extent of"-well! we will be modest -"$100".

"One hundred dollars" you say "how far would that go." Brother! one hundred dollars will print ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND LEAF-LETS, about the order! and how far will they go?

Two Hundred Dollars will put them among two hundred workers who will scatter them judiciously, where they will do the most good.

(me Hundred Dollars would deliver into the hands of the members in any locality, TEN THOUSAND free copies of the TEMPERANCE JOUR. NAL, 8 pages brim full of the work ammunition. Is this the reason?

Letter from Manitoba.

MR. EDITOR,—Year by year passe -We look over the world and see; "Licensed to sell Wine, Spirituous and Malt Liquors" on as many places, but not perhaps in the same locality as in years gone by. Why s this sir? For over forty long vears have the old "Sons" been in the fight and yet to-day the battle rages. Why? For the same number of years have other branches of our Army been engaged along the line of battle and yet the sound of heavy firing is heard. Why is this? This battle seems to rage long and loud, but only those on our side fall. The enemy must have finer sharp-shooters, better weapons, and more certain the order is doing all over America. No! Our generals have failed. They seemed to have neglected the first principle of our warfare, viz: the destroying them, or in other words, To carry out the work we have we have been chopping off the been dickering with laws prohibit-Every dollar will help us in the ing the local sale of liquor, while we work to send out our temperance should have been hammering at the foundations of the manufactories of the vile poison. As far as I can see, our past work has all to be gone good for those around you enthralled over again, and this will continue to the end of the chapter, unless we prohibit the manufacture and importation of liquor.

Rest assured, sir, as long as liquor is made it be sold. The only is to stop its manuway to cut facture. I don't see as a general

No sir, all this law business and of local option, Scott Act, etc., seems to hold us fast, seems to tie us up, seems to put us asleep on duty, and in the mean time the enemy recruits strength.
