Bethel Division, No. 5, Sons of Temperance held an open meeting on Jan. 10th, to celebrate the thirtyeight anniversary of the Division in Ormstown.

The night was stormy, but a large number of members and their friends were present, to enjoy the excellent programme of entertainment prepared by the members.

The first in order on the programme was the installing of the officers elect, for the present quarter by the D. G. W, P. Bro Wm. Mc-

Naughton. The following are the officers elect John Maw, WP; Jennie Morrison, WA; James Winter, R Scribe; Agnes Blackett, A R Scribe; Annie Brodie, F Scribe; James Anderson, Treas; Rev. D W Morrison, Chapt; Robt. Mills, Con; Maud Lockerby, A Con; Wm. McDougell, IS; John Darby, O S; Wm McNaughton, DGWP; Thomas Winter, PWP

After the WP (J Maw,) was conducted to the chair, the programme was continued which consisted of music by the choir, addresses, songs, essays and readings, after which the lady members surprised those present by supplying hot coffee and cakes before parting, after having a pleasant evening together in the Division room.

Bro. Wm McNaughton is one of the charter members of Bethel Division and has always been an active member (and still is). May he and Bethel Division long celebrate the anniversary.

Baillie Division.

MR. EDITOR, -1 am glad to report that Baillie Division, No. 248, is still alive and in good working order. Although we are not so strong numerically as we have been formerly yet our average attendance is good and every Wednesday evening this season has found a noble band of temperance workers assembled in the Division room, ever ready to make the Division entertaining, attractive and to promote the interest of the cause generally.

At the beginning of the present quarter the following staff of officers were duly installed:

Chas. F. Mann, W. P; Nettie S. Robinson, W. A; Sadie Mann, R. S; John A. Quaid; A. R. S; David E. Mann, F. S; duty of the Inspector, when he saw Harry W. Mann, Treas; Lena A. Robinson, Chap; Minnie McBride, Con; Fred Redmond, A. C; C. Quaid, KS; R. Reid Robinson, O.S; Lucy A. Robinson, P. W. P:

We are looking forward to a large increase in membership as soon as the winter months are over as a great many persons who are now away will then be home again.

Yours in L., P. and F.,

Baillie, Jan. 16th, 1889.

The Deadliest Sin.

Rev. Cann Wilberforce, addressing a meeting at Eastleigh, said the creed of the temperance movement was deep enough for a philosopher to pour over, and yet simple enough for a child to understand. First of all they contended that drunkness was ruinous; secondly that what was called moderate drinking was extremely dangerous. That he looked upon as the deadliest sin of the nineteenth century was the cold and callous indiffence of professing Christian people te the scrrows of their brethern, the miserable don't careism which had comover the hearts of the people who went to church or chapel every Sunday of their lives, and professed faith in Him who was born in Bethlehem, agonised in Gethsemane, and crucified on Calvary. These people did not stretch out a little finger in the way of self-denial to assist their weaker and suffering brethren. "As the Father sent me, even so send I you." They might depend upon it, that until the dynamite of a new conviction was put under the chairs of those at their prayer-meeting, and in their pulpits, they would never rise out of the sad stupor which they were now in. No movement whatever had made such progress as the temperance movement had during the last fifty years. It had become a factor in the nation, and would never be ignored again. - Scottish League Fournal.

York County Council.

The meetings of the Council which opened on Tuesday and closed on Thursday last, will be found to have been more than usually interesting to the ratepayer. A synopsis of the proceedings will be found in another column.

There was a large amount of work transacted principally of a routine nature. Although several bills were ordered to be prepared and laid before the legislature. One on the expenses entailed by coroner's inquests, and transportation and care of lunatics, which up to this time has been born largely by the county. A bill also was ordered to be prepared, to provide for the assessing and collecting of $200 yearly in aid of the Victoria Hospital, a very wise move indeed, on the part of the council, and one we think which will commend itself to the rate-payers gen-

A good deal of interest centered around A. F. Randolph &, Son. the report of the Scott Act Inspector, which it was felt at the council, would not be as satisfactory as would be wished. The report showed that there had been 36 complaints made, with 19 convictions; 3 cases were withdrawn and, 14 were dismissed. Two parties were imprisoned, a warrant is in the hands of a constable for another, six fines have been paid, and the costs in 16 convictions. Ten fines RESIDENCE. lie over for good behavior.

When Mr. Howe opened up the battle there was $725 in the hands of the Sec'y-Treas. and $270 was lying in dispute in the Police Magistrate's hands, making $995 on hand. The collections in the year have been only $425 and the expenses $1239.85, which with the $100 until noon, on Friday Feb'y 1st, 1889, for the voted the Inspector for travelling expenses makes over $1300 spent in the year, and about $425 collected. Mr.

After listening carefully to the report Post Office Inspector's Office, and the debate in the council, we cannot but feel that the Inspector has made a great mistake. A very large sum of money has been expended, nearly $1300, with little or nothing to show for it. As a result the county has been prejudices against Inspectors individually and collectively. We feel that it was the accumulation of expense and the unsatisfactory results generally, to have resigned, even before the July session. It must have been most unpleasant, ties that he has had to contend against.

were not entirely discouraged, but that a resolution was adopted, which will be of inestimable benefit to the county so far as the Scott Act is concerned, and which in our opinion will be as useful almost as an inspector. The resolution which was moved by Coun. Na onis to the effect that all fines collected under the Scott Act in each parish shall be paid to the Sec'y. Treas., to be used in payment of expenses arising in connection with the carrying out of the said act. That is to say a person when he sees one violating the act may lay a charge, and have a conviction, and upon fyling a bill of legal and other expenses in connection with the suit, upon | their being properly audited, and passed by the council, can have them paid. Previously, any expenses incurred by an individual in carrying out the act, had of necessity to be entirely born by himself, now it will come out of this special fund.
