PITTSBURG, Jan. 9th, 1889

Rev. Congelton.

DEAR BROTHER, - Our Division --Golden Circle, No. 82—had an open installation on Monday evening which was largely attended. Brother J. W. Dick succeeds Sister L. M. Duffy as W. P. Sister Duffy served three terms very faithfully. She our Division is gaining a little has worked very hard for the advancement of the Order-not only our Division but the Order in the Western part of the state. She deserves much praise for her labor. Our Division holds Constitutional some labor to perform in order to Amendment meetings every Sunday save our little village from the terriat 3.30 P. M., which have been very | ble scourge that is traversing our well attended—the meeting last land and bloody trail along the Sunday being conducted by D. These were presented by the division as a token of respect and for the interest she has taken in the advancement of the Order. Our Division is growing rapidly.

Yours in L., P. and F., J. P. GOETMANE.

$11,838.65 Paid Over Two Bars in One Day.

The late Theodore Stewart, proprietor of two of the richest and most attractive gin palaces of New York, made it a rule during his lifetime to give to his employes, as a Christmas present, the entire receipts of his saloons on the day before Christmas. At his death he left the saloons to three clerks, on the sole condition that they would continue this rule. The "Employes" Day" receipts have always been enormous and are constantly on the increase. In 1887 are gaining in number and that gives they amounted to $11,088.05, and in 1888 us courage and strength. We have they were $11, 838. 65, to be divided among 38 employes.

street and 4 and 6 John street. They are the programme consisted of recitamost elegantly and elaborately furnished and decorated. Paintings worth many thousands of dollars adorn the walls. At the Warren street place there is one painting, "After the Hunt," which cost $8,000. This saloon is visited daily before 11 A. M. by scores of fashionable ladies, with their children. The wants of these gentle customers in the liquor line are then attended

At the John street place is exhibited a nugget of pure silver, said to be the largest ever taken from the earth. It is a foot long and half a foot wide and thick, and the owners bought it for exhibition purposes strictly, paying $10,000 for it .-Voice.

Alcohol a Foe to Health.

The perils of intemperance, in its grosser forms, are too self evident to have ever been altogether ignored, hut before the beginning of the present century alcohol, the alleged blessing of mankind, "the best gift of the god's" the "good familiar creature," the "milk of old age" and the "water of life," has at last been unmasked as a ruinous and unqualified foe of health and happiness. No axiom in science is at present more incontrovertibly established than the fact that alcohol contains no nutritive elements whatever. "There is no more evidence", says Dr Parker, "of alcohol being in any way utilized in the body than there is in regard to ether or designated as a food, we must extend or wives for whisky." the meaning of that term so as to make it comprehend not only ether, but all medicines and poisons-in fact, everything that can be swallowed and absorbed, however foreign it may be to the normal condition of the bcdy, and however injurious to its functious."—The Voice.

The Bristo Gospel Temperance Union of Edinburg, since its organization in 1882, has influenced between four and five thousand persons to sign the total abstinence pledge
