

INTERNATIONAL LESSON.

Second Quarter-Lesson II.—April 14 THE REJECTED SON.—Mark 12: 1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT.—He came unto his own, and his own received him not.—John 1: 11.

Christ is now in the midst of a great moral battle. He has made known his claims as the Messiah, by entering the capital in triumphal procession, and by driving the traffickers from his Father's house.

And he began to speak unto them by parables. Jesus had done and said all he could to teach the people the truth about God's kingdom, and the blessings God was offering them.

GOD'S SPIRITUAL VINEYARD, AND WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR IT.—Ver. 1. A certain man: called in Matthew a householder, owner of an estate. This householder represents God who is the owner of all things. Planted a vineyard. The image of the kingdom of God as a vineyard or as a vineyard runs through the whole Old Testament.

The Vineyard represents the kingdom of God which was intrusted to the Jews, planted by God through Abraham and Moses.

The Hedge represents the law and the divine institutions, which separated the Jews from the Gentiles, and was a protection against the inroads of the immorality and idolatry.

The Winepress represents the various advantages conferred on the people to help them to bring forth good fruit.

The Tower represents the watch-care God exercised over his people, through leaders and prophets.

Going to another country represents the fact that the special manifestations of God in miracles and revelation as in the time of Moses and the prophets, had not been made for a long time. God seems to have withdrawn, so to test the obedience and faithfulness of his children.

The vineyard which is peopled by God's servants, is his kingdom, and he has committed to it his true and Holy Spirit, the Spirit of grace, piety, prophecy, and every means and opportunity for bringing forth good fruit; and he has reason to expect abundant fruit.

THE FRUITS GOD EXPECTS FROM HIS VINEYARD. And at the season he sent. At the time when the fruit was ripe. The fruit was obedience, sincere worship, righteous living, teaching the nations about the true God, preparation for the Messiah. He expects the same from us. We are to give our hearts to him, and we are to pay rent for every privilege. For the Gospel we are to give constant praise, and seek to make it known to all men. Missions are a part of our rent. For every blessing he has a right to expect love, and obedience, and consecration.

MESSANGERS SENT FOR THE FRUIT, AND HOW THEY WERE TREATED.—Vers. 2-5. He sent... a servant. The servants, that is, the prophets, and other more eminent ministers of God were sent, raised up at particular times, having particular missions. The patience of the householder is thus brought out that it may set forth the wonderful forbearance and long-suffering of God. Every special call to love and serve God, every service at the church, every opportunity to do good, every providence of God, every season of revival, the voice of the Holy Spirit, the Sabbath, the Bible, conscience,—all are servants whom God sends to us for the fruits that are due him. And they caught him. The gradual growth of the outrage is clearly traced. (1) The first servant they "caught, beat, and sent away empty;" (2) at the second they "cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled;" (3) the third, "they killed." And beat him, and sent him away empty: without the fruits for which he was sent. The behavior of these husbandmen is a picture of the way impenitent men treat God's messengers. And again he sent unto them another servant. God sent prophet after prophet to the Jews, message after message, as he sends many calls and influences to us. Shamefully handled: or dishonored. Beating some, and killing some. Some of the prophets were actually put to death. Thus, if we may trust Jewish tradition, Jeremiah was stoned by the exiles in Egypt a Isaiah sawn asunder by King Manasseh.

GOD'S LAST AND GREATEST WORK FOR THE SALVATION OF MEN.—Vers. 6-8. Having yet therefore one son. This was the last and crowning effort of divine mercy. His well-beloved: dear to him as his own self. This is said to show the greatness of God's love to man. They will reverence my son. This implies no ignorance of what would be, but is the expression of God's desire that all men be saved. It is the highest possible expression of God's love for man. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir. Christ is the heir of all things. Did the Jewish rulers know they were putting to death the heir, the Son of God? They were plainly told, and ought to have known. In all probability, the truth did more than once flash upon them. Let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. They were so connected with a system, and with wrong ideas and principles and customs, which must pass away with Christ's reign, that if Christ prevailed they must fall. But they imagined that if they could destroy Christ they could continue to be rulers over Israel, teachers of the people, the possessors of the nation. And killed him: as the Jews did Jesus. Cast him out of the vineyard. The act of casting out denotes the whole rejection of our Lord.

THE PUNISHMENT WHICH NECESSARILY FOLLOWS THE REJECTION OF CHRIST.—Vers. 9-12. What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? Every possible method of leading them to right conduct had been exhausted. God does all that it is possible for love to do to save us. The last hope is gone when we reject Christ. There is nothing left but destruction. He will come and destroy the husbandmen. There was nothing else to do. It was a simple matter of justice. Give the vineyard unto others. Expressed by the apostle when he said, "Lo, we turn to the Gentiles."

Application to the Jews. In the summer of A. D. 70, forty years after this parable was spoken, Jerusalem was destroyed and the temple was razed and laid in ruins by the Romans. An army under Titus, after the most terrible siege on record, in which the besieged "fought for miserable scraps," chewed belts and shoes, and tore off the leather from their shields, and ate wisps of hay, and even then died by thousands from the horrors of famine; 97,000 were taken prisoners, and 1,100,000 perished. Yet these Jews, if they had been faithful, might have been the leading nation in the world, shedding the light of God's truth and righteousness over the nations. But they would not; they rejected the Messiah and perished.

If we reject Christ for this world, we are lost. Those who reject Christ from their lives and plans, in order that they may keep possession of themselves, their pleasures and hopes, have taken the shortest and surest way to lose them. How much more is this true of the future! Those who reject Christ cannot be saved. And have ye not read this Scripture. Referring them to Ps. 118: 22, 23,—a psalm which the Jews applied to the Messiah. The stone. The stone is the whole kingdom and power of the Messiah summed up in himself. The builders rejected. The builders answer to the husbandmen. The rejection of the chief cornerstone answers exactly to the denying and murdering the heir. Become the head of the corner. Referring to the stone laid at the foundation, on it the whole superstructure, in a measure, rests. There are four corner stones, but in large buildings one is generally laid with ceremony, as the first step in the true structure of the edifice. Christ is declared in the New Testament to be the corner stone of his church. The thought is that the Messiah, even if rejected by the "builders," should become the corner-stone of the real temple of God (his new spiritual kingdom). This. That is, this strange exaltation of the despised to be chief of all. Was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. It is one of the Lord's wonderful ways of working. And they sought to lay hold on him: to arrest him. But feared the people: who had come from other parts of Palestine, and from other countries, and who were more free from prejudice.

Indictment of the Liquor Traffic.

It is a business which is opposed by every clergyman in the country. It is a business which every merchant and business man hates and detests.

It is a business which is the standing dread of every mother.

It is a business which makes ninety per cent. of the pauperism for which the tax payer has to pay.

It is a business which makes ninety per cent. of the business of the criminal courts.

It is a business which keeps employed an army of policemen in the cities.

It is a business which puts out the fire on the hearth and condemns wives and children to hunger, cold and rags.

It is a business which fosters vice for profit and educates in wickedness for gain.

Drunkenness comprises all other vices. It is a dictionary of vice, for it includes every vice.

Drunkenness means speculation, theft, robbery, arson, forgery, murder; for it leads to all these crimes.—Courier Journal.

A Novel Temperance Pledge.

At a meeting of miners at Cow Bay, C. B., recently, it was unanimously agreed to adopt the following regulations to govern all employed at the mines during next summer: Any person found entering a place where liquor is sold to be liable to a fine of $1; being drunk $2. For each day lost through drink $4. These rules were adopted first by Banner Lodge, P. W. A., three years ago, but owing to those not in the union being free to indulge at pleasure it was hopeless to attempt to enforce the rules on those belonging to the Lodge. Now that all employed in the mine have agreed to be bound by the same rules it is expected that much practical good will result.
