Collina Division, No. 129.

MR. EDITOR,—Our Division still holds its own through the busy season and is now beginning to gain. Since I last wrote there have been several joined, mostly elderly people, who it is expected will be a great help. So many of our active members have gone away to spend the summer in the United States that it is quite hard for those that remain to keep up the interest necessary for the advance of the Order. Bro. D. S. Rees, who has recently been to Boston on a visit, on his return home gave us a very interesting sketch of his trip and closed by saying that in that city he witnessed more of the effects of rum | Night of meeting Friday. in a single hour that he would home in a whole year.

Redbank son, of Rising Star, was present, Division promises to have a successwho, when called on, rose to his feet | ful career under the cares and direcown Division gave us a somewhat lengthy address, touching chiefly on his disappointment when receiving the Journal and not finding any notes from home. I know I should have written before, but as there has been nothing of very great importance to communicate I could not very well make news. But if our worthy brother will only stump us oftener as splendidly as he did on the aforesaid occasion, I shall only be too glad to write.

At the session on the 30th, Bros. James Smith, of Centreville Div. and F. Sharp of Mount Middleton Div., were present. After several to lisp his evening prayer: of our own members had displayed their talents in a manner generally pleasing, Bro. Smith was called on and responded by giving a very interesting speech, expressing his pleasure of being present and wishes to be present often; his interest in the cause, &c. Bro. Sharp told us that although he regretted it very much he had never been present at his own Division expect on the night he joined. His excuse was that wild cats were so numerous in the vicinity that they hardly dare venture out unless well armed. Courtship" in a very able manner and when he closed the piecee with "Don't lorget to step on the cat's tail," the old hall fairly rang with laughter and applause,

We were all very much pleased to see the visiting brothers as we always are strangers and hope to see them oftener in the future.

Now hoping I have not taken up too much of your valuable space, I remain, Fraternally Yours,

Ramsav | Exchange. to address the meeting. Mr. Ramsay's remarks were to the point and delivered in his forcible manner. He was followed by Mr. W C. Anslow, after which the chairman invited those who desired to do so to give in their cames to be added to the applicants for a charter for a division of the Sons of Temperance. After several names had been added to the application the public meeting was closed.

The institution of Redbank Division No. 361 was then proceeded with by the members of Newcastle and Whitneyville Division. Newcastle Div ision was then organized with the following officers:
