

Temperance Sermons.

DEAR EDITOR,—Rev. J. W. Manning, of Halifax, delivered a most scathing Temperance sermon last Sunday, denouncing the traffic and its abettors in no uncertain terms. He asked a few pertinent questions of christian people as to where they purchased their groceries, for whom they voted, and how they could sign a petition to grant the legal right to ruin and kill the unfortunates.

It is said no intoxicating liquor could be sold legally in this city if no church members' names were found on the rum sellers petition. When some of our most respected citizens crazed with intoxicants commit suicide, it is quite time ministers and all other christian people spoke out in equally condemning terms against this curse of Christian lands. When the spiritual guides of the people and church members realize their duty and take the stand they should in this question, the traffic will have received its death blow.

The sad fact is that the christian church yet has in its membership too many concerned in the demoralizing, destructive business and so the mouths of the leaders are too often shut and when open on the subject it is approached with bated breath. It is high time church members and all who have any interest in the welfare of their fellows should cut adrift from the cursed business.

W. J. G.

Halifax, N. S.

Can Christians Vote to License Saloons?

Talk about Christians voting to license saloons! Christians indeed! The Central Baptist tersely and truthfully says:

1. "The business is wrong. 2. No amount of taxation can make it right. 3. To consent that wrong shall exist and be protected for a money consideration, becomes a part of that wrong. It is moral as well as financial partnership. The difficulty will not be settled in a day. Our children will have to struggle with it. It will never be settled until it is settled right, and the laws of right and wrong are not going to change. Even the saloon interest recognizes the deadly and perpetual feud between Christianity and this unholy traffic. This land is not large enough to hold one spiritual church and one saloon in peace. This is the last issue of the conflict. Choose your leadership and fight it out on that line.

Christian voters, can you hesitate one moment how you shall vote, what leadership you shall choose, and under what banner you shall fight? I am an uncompromising Prohibitionist. L A Cutler, Richmond, Va.

Sam Jones Hits.

Before I would vote for a whisky man or with a whisky party I would have both hands taken off by the wrist.

Have any of you ministers (addressing himself to those on the stand) preached a sermon against the whisky traffic this year? If so please stand up. No one stood up.

All of you that will promise to do so in the future will please stand up. All stood.

Now I want every body, who endorses what Sam Jones has preached here, to stand up. Nearly the whole congregation rose to their feet. Now remember I have said I won't vote for a whisky candidate.

These bull-neck, red-nose, bar-room keepers, know that I speak the truth when I say they are serving the devil, and going to the devil, and those who vote for them and rent houses to them to sell whisky in are going there with them.

I am a Democrat of the old stamp and have always voted the Democratic ticket, but Democracy is not now what it used to be, I would vote for McKinney upon condition; if he were not a whisky man and run by a whisky party but I will never vote for a whisky man.

ANOTHER CONVICTION.—John Kelley the proprietor of the Lorne Hotel on Regent Street, supposed to pose as a temperance house lately, was on Tuesday last introduced to the police magistrate as a violator of the Scott Act. The proprietor probably on account of being green at the business gave himself away to Sergt. Vandine by his curiosity to know what excited his suspicion that he was a law violator. The case was easily proven and he was fined $50 and costs.

No More Rum.

Fredericton, assisted by Marysville, means to put a stop to Scott Act violation in the future. At the Thanksgiving meeting on Thursday evening in addition to the noble and patriotic speeches delivered, Hon. A. F. Randolph who performed the duties of chairman for Mr. Weddall who was too hoarse to be heard called for volunteer subscriptions to enable the Scott Act Executive Committee to see that in future the Act is enforced.
