TEMPERANCE SONS OF TO THE RESCUE.

Lots of Work to do but no money to carry it out.

An Urgent Call to the members to sustain the S. of T. press and assist in Distributing Temperance Literature.

A little money better than a good deal of sympathy.

We want more money and personal help on the part of the members to carry on this work we have undertaken in the interest of the Sons of Temperance.

We have been afraid the members would imagine we were publishing the JOURNAL for mercenary purposes and working for the order for the profits we could make out of the paper, and have not pressed for help as we should, and as a result we have been sinking hundreds of dollars yearly, and giving many hours of valuable time, which in our business has been equivalent to dollars and cents, to the work on the paper and writing letters to, and visiting branches of the order,

We are not in the least sorry for the time given or the money spent in the interests of the order, but we find we are hampered in carrying on the work for the lack of means-More money we must have for the work, and we cannot take it from our other business.

The field is too large, and the work too vast for our limited resourses. We are giving weekly, hundreds of copies of the Sons of Temperance paper free to Grand W. P. & Grand Scribes and others, and are circulating thousands of circulars and dodgers, all over the continent having special reference to the order. We must advertise our order more with news.pap r, circular and leatlet. and to do this those who have the good old order to heart must help us out with their means. Oh! for a big-hearted, loyal and philanthropic member of the order "show me that you are in earnest in this work and I will help you to the extent of"-well ! we will be modest -"$100".

Many a man is in prison to-day who would be an honored man had he not been betrayed while drunk by his inherent tendency to evil, to take some steps that disgraced him in his own self-respect of others. Nearly all criminals who had a proper training in youth took their downward step when drunk. It is has been done in Montreal. So unusual these well-known results that so a proceeding deserves more than a passclosely connect liquor and crime. ing notice. The recorder of the city in

We believe that visitation is one of the best ways of promoting our order and holding our membership, and would like to see it more generally practiced.

The return trip was enlivened with the game of "Pig in the parlor," to the refrain, "Cartwright's mule he crossed the bridge," as led by Bro. Hammith. Everyone seemed to enjoy the trip immensely, and all retired to their respective homes realizing what

Law in Montreal

Our readers will be interested in reading the legal opinion of Montreal's chief officer respecting street preaching. An exchange says :

"It seems rather a tough and unjust thing to fine a man for standing on the street quietly listening to the preaching of the gospel, yet this tough and unjust thing [From the Prison Mirror, published pronouncing judgment laid down the law by the inmates of the Minnesota and his own opinions in the following fashion : "I respect any person wishing to observe his religious duties; he is apt to be a law-abiding citizen. "One hundred dollars" you say, "how far would that go." Brother one hundred dollars will print ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND LEAF-LETS, about the order ! and how far will they go?

Two Hundred Dollars will put them among two hundred workers who will scatter them judiciously, where they will do the most good.

$ · · 1

('ne Hundred Dollars would deliver into the hands of the members in any locality, TEN THOUSAND free copies of the TEMPERANCE JOUR. NAL, 8 pages brim full of the work the order is doing all over America.

Many members have not the time, or they may think they have not the opportunity to work in this temperance cause, or for the order, and they would prefer giving a little money to doing personal work, were they sure the money would go towards the right object. Any who decide to expend their offering in the way suggested above will be convinced that the money is going directly to inculeate the principles of Total Abstinance for the individual, and Total Prohibition for the state.

To carry out the work we have projected for the year will require $5000. Shall the work stand still for lack of means to carry it on, brothers ?

Every dollar will help us in the work to send out our temperance literature. If your heart is with us and you have a dollar or so in your pocket that seems to burn to do some good for those around you enthralled by the evils of drink, just write us and we will tell you some of our plans for building up the causse this year.

O. C. Wants More Interest in the Paper.

Mrs. Patrick Hayes, G. S. of Maine in Semi-annual report says: "I would like to again draw your attention to the TEMPERANCE JOURNAL, the organ of the S. of T. I have who would come forward and say, been greatly disappointed in the interest shown in this valuable paper. I supposed that during the past six months that we should hear from every Division in Maine through its columns, but I have seen nothing in regard to any of these excepting Pine Tree, No. 1, Ticonic, No 13 and my own Division (Soldiers) No. 5. think that every Division that possibly can, should subscribe for the JOURNAL, and have a regular correspondent who would send to it items from time to time, in regard to installation of their officers, and any interesting meeting which they hold. My own Division subscribed last November for ten copies, and appointed a correspondent, and the members look forward every week to either hear something from their own Division, or from some of their neighbors."

Deeply Interested in its Success.

Letter from THOS. WEBSTER, G. G. W. P., ONTARIO: "I have watched G W P, Prof DeWitt C, Ingle, Milersville, Md. RT Smith, 102 West Fayette Street, with great interest your efforts to furnish the Order with an organ, but have feared that it would soon | WPJohn Shallcross, 627 Walnut Street have to go the way of its predecessors. Your idea to establish a paper which will cover our National Division jurisdiction is a good one and the project should be encouraged and receive the hearty support of the members * * * I am much pleased with the JOURNAL and it should succeed. Personally I feel deeply interested in its success and hope that some scheme may be adopted to ensure its publication as the organ of our National Division."
