for the present quarter : John F. Scribner, W. P. Harry Orchard, W. A. Mrs. H. E. White, R. S. Zallo O. Gunter, A. R. S. ck Taylor, F. S. Annie L. Gunter, Treas. Chas. W. White, Chap. M. White, Con.

e White, A. C.

Gu de Young, I. S.

Davis Mullin, O. S. H. E. White; P. W. P. Hoping our Division may continue prospering, and thanking you fer receipt of TEMPERANCE JOURNALS, I remain, yours in Love, Purity and Fidelity,

H E WHITE MONCTON DIVISION

DEAR EDITOR,—At the last held Monday Dec 17th 1887 the following officers were elected for the ensuing term. Miss Jennie Stiles, W. P.:

H J McGowan, W A; M M McLean. R S; ST Wilkmson. ARS; H C Davison, F'S; E Hicks, Treas; Rev W B Hinson, Chap; A McNeil, Jr. Con; W Hamoright, A Con; J T Coodere, IS; J Foran, O S; Dr E O Steeves, P W P;

Miss Ella Tutle, Organist. We also elected Mr F W Steeves our present deputy as official correspondent to the TEMPERANCE JOURNAL.

M M McLean.

RICHIBUCTO NOTES.

WORTHY BROTHER, -In answer to

The of the quarte Je'

A, W. P.;

Gies. W. A .;

orack, A. M. S.; Fred Fergerson, F. S. Robert Phinney, T.; Revd, S. James, chap.; William J. Smith, C, Harry Brine, A. C. William S. Caie, I. S; Robert Bell O. S; Broth irs, P. W. P.

an Haines, D. G. W. P:

The officers of Golden Rule Division No 51 S. of T. for quarter commencing January 3rd 1888 are as follows.

Albert Stiles, W. P .; Wm. J. Mc Almon, W. A.; Ellie K. Moore, R. S.; John E. Hamilton, A. R. S.; Leonard H. Stiles, F. S.; W. Temple Wright, Treas .; James G. Stuart, Chap.; Albert Peck, Con; Almira Robinson, A. Con.; Alfred Woodworth, I. S.; Fred Rogers, O. S.: Achsah G. Gallagher, P. W. P.; L. R. Moore, D. G. W. P.; Hopewell Hill, Dec., 30th 1887.

CHARLOTTETOWN NOTES.

Il though the majority is small, yet cased to grand trium, At a previous TEMPLAANEE election, three years ago, we have sister Division at the active co-operation of the R. C. prospering, and we Bishop of P. E. I., and also of all our hope, during the winter months, to city papers. At the last election receive some friendly visits from our good Bishop was neutral, if such a thing could be, and one of the contend against objections raised by petition of the Repealers.

ed of defeat; but were confidently sure about it. looking forward to the unmolested cign weree rum, until the meeting of the Legislature, and then a legal- Remember each your pledge my Not the fate of the wine-cup's eclipse. ized and honourable traffic in their soul and body destroying wares. Their hopes and prospects of gain regular meeting of Moncton Division then swept away at one stroke, it is not to be wondered at that they were disappointed and annoyed. In Then at him cast a look of scorn the vain hope of reversing the state of things, they demanded a scrutinv of the votes cast at the election; but doomed to disappointment, the investigation resulted in increasing our majority from fifteen to twenty, and in throwing them in for the expenses. So that now we are confirmed in our victory.

But in order to make it a victory worth possessing, the temperance The safest and the surest plan people of Charlottetown must buckle on their armor for another three years warfare with the old enemy rum and the rum-seller. And you will be pleased to learn that there never has been since the March boldly on to County line introduction of the present act, a stronger determination on the parts | Make Barney and his forces all of its friends and supporters to make this law, more than ever, a living, your call in the JOURNAL of the 24th liquors. There is a strong and ininstant it gives me great pleasure to fluential executive committee conreport that Richibucto Division is sisting of thirty of the leading now mapping out the winter pro- citizens of Charlottetown, who are Once more he cries I'll be a man gramme in peace and harmony. The backed up by between four and five semi annual session of Grand Divi- hundred electors who are pledged to Come on my little children all sion held here last summer has re-support them in their efforts to sulted in rousing the brethren to render the operation of the C. T. A renewed activity and to the infusion efficient. Already this committee of a more healthy sentiment towards has, by petition to the City Council, our cause generally. Our meetings secured the removal of the city Wednesday evening at Union Divinow are well attended and evidences marshall, and the appointment of sion. The time was taken up by unmistakably show that the mem- brother Passmore of Orient Division readings, recitations and speakers. vers are earnestly striving to make S. of T. in his stead. Our marshall After the programme was through be same interesting and instructive. was fully in sympathy with the with we discussed the propriety of Arenswer to a circular from the illicit liquor dealers, but not with fining the vendor at County line and Grand Scribe on the matter in con- the act, hence his removal. And Crooker a vagabone that is trying nection with the Cadets has been this, I trust, is only the beginning to evade the law by all means at placed in the hands of D. G. W. P. of a general reform in the comple- hand but I think that he will be Haines, Rev. Bro. James (chaplain) tion of our Police force. There are caught at last Union has her eye on below the him. Some of her members have, and sister Young, and in the marshal, in office at present whose it is reported the matrimonial complexion of this cov tee we day are numbered, unless they fever in our division and I believe doubt not that the wo signed to merit an act of grace on our part, by it is too true; before you hear from fair city.

a few of these to durance vile. We, as well as temperance people immensely.

Prince Edward Island, everywhere, are engaged in a hard fight, but it is in a good cause: the cause of broken hearted wives-of grey headed fathers and mothers MR EDITOR,—The third Scott who are going down in sorrow to the doing its Act election in Charlottetown is grave, of starved, and beggared, and has over, and the victory is won. And murdered children—the cause of God and of right, and with the blessthe circumstances, it was a ing of heaven upon combined, persevering and prayerful effort, we are fident that onr labour shall not Charlottetown, Dec 26th 1887.

Union Division, P. E. I.

A friend visiting from P. E. I. Do you not know it is a sin The following is a list of officers leading papers was in open arms says of Union Division that it is one against the act, and in favor of repeal of the best on the Island. The In addition to this we had also to entertainment each evening is of the best and the members take an active temperance men on account of the interest in temperance work. He inefficient operation of the act during says we have the demon in our the past year. But in the face of op- midst at a little business station on position from the enemy without, and the railway called County line there of indifference and even opposition is one of the devils tradesmen and is within our own ranks, the temper- continually turning out specimens of ance party, by the good hand of God his craft, there is also a vender who upon them, have after a noble is very little better but they are se struggle, succeeded in defeating the cunning that it is impossible to That offers the accursed drink catch them. I would like to know As might be expected, while we through your Journal if the sister were jubilant, the illicit rum-sellers of a Doctor can legally write certiand their friends were in a frenzy of ficates as we are bothered a little by disappointment. They never dream one of this kind we would like to be

Lines written for the members of Union Division.

friends

Its worth your time and care When tempted by the demon drink As some folk often are.

And raise your voices high Avaunt thou coward demon drink We boldly pass you by.

Oh that the world would boldly speak

Nor tell such tales of woe As people may often tell By alcohol laid low.

For each and all to do Is beard the monster in his den And thrust him through and through.

With banner and with drum And vender Hughs succumb active, power for the suppression of Then rally round the standard boys And shout for victory The time the glorious time has come To set the captive free

> Thanks to the good and free A temperance man to see.

> > LATER.

We had quite a lively time last turning over a new leaf and by em- us again I think that one of our the officers ploying their hitherto perverted members will have fallen a victim to the dreadful plague and if it can and promoting civic reform gener- be stayed at that we will be well ally. During the course of the next off. Christmas eve was the scene month (January) there is to be an of a very nice time at Long River. election of a Mayor and five City A new Division has been started councillors, and as our success in there some time ago. It now boasts carrying out the law depends largely of 70 old members. They held a social on the co-operation of the City on the aforesaid night; a few friends Fathers, we are already in the field were invited. At about 6 o'clock Mr with our men and intend to leave James Barnard was asked to the no legitimate means untried to secure chair. He called on Mr and Miss their election. And with the City Johnston who sang Annie Laurie council and the police force working The time passed pleasantly for an in harmony with us, we hope to hour or so when the charman banish the traffic from our otherwise announced that there be an intermission for a quarter of a hour. n extending to you the kind greetings and much as the C. T. A. has been enforced during the past three the season, believe me worthy wears, and much as it has been much, after this was through the abused by its enemies, it has, never- meeting was again opened and contheless, done much good. The tinued with readings, recitations, quantity of liquor sold in Charlotte- and speeches and some music. The town during the year immediately organ was presided at by Miss Johnpreceding the introduction of the ston and the masterly style with Scott Act was 90,000 gallons; during which she played her part was last year, under the Scott Act, only appreciated by all. The programme heaven, under the Scott Act, only 60,000 were sold. These figures, which are correct, furnish an explanation of the opposition to the Act, by those engaged in the traffic. No sane person supposes that they would oppose the act on any other ground than that it curtails their sales and their profits, makes the traffic illegal and disreputable, keeps the min continual dread of fine and the past Grand Worthy and continual dread of fine and the profits and of the programme was again cut short by the chairman announcing that we have 15 min-tutes intermission. Then the apples and their profits, makes the traffic illegal and disreputable, keeps them in continual dread of fine and the past Grand Worthy proposed to the proceeds of the proceeds of the bills chargeable to its account it will be time for it to talk of Sam Small is likely to succeed as some of the bills chargeable to its account it will be time for it to talk of Count it will be time for it to talk them in continual dread of fine and After a few more songs readings and to see an old white horse in the people. Let a decision be rendered to to see an old white horse in the people. Let a decision be rendered to the people. The shame and misery of the outdoors?" exclaimed a little outdoors?" exclaimed a

Good of the Order.

NEW YEAR'S HOSPITALITY. LINES ADDRESSED TO A LADY OF QUALITY.

BY GEORGE W BUNGAY.

Well arrayed in his best He will bow at thy shrine. Will you give to your gallant guest A cup of sparkling wine ? And will that be the test Of friendship or love, lady mine?

There's a serpent within The red poisonous bowl To sting the immortal soul? Not with wine can you win A heart only love can control!

It he's tipsy to day, If he's stone drunk by night, What will his waiting mother say, With lips trembling and white, Of the custom that may Break her heart, put her reason to flight

What will his sister think Of hospitality To her brother, and he The bright, the golden link, And the pride of the family?

Will you begin the year Pressing wine to the lips Of the guest who beings you good cheer, Whose heart to the finger-tips Beat with hope? Do you fear

Take from thy table the wine: Thy presence is sweeter far Than the tempting viands that shine, Shine like a baleful star. For the light is divine That beams where home and its angels

A New Year's Promise.

"As thy days, so shall thy strength be." BY MARIE POE.

Softly through the midnight stealing, Music s irs the listening ear, Merry bells in concert pealing Welcome to the opening year. Sweeter still-the voice now telling Of thy Father's changeless love; All thy New Year clouds dispelling By his message from above. Child of God-it speaks to thee-"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

Though his love still veils thy morrow, All its steps to him are known, Through each joy and care and sorrow, Light for thee, by him is sown. Fear not! Jesus stands beside thee, Now he lays his hand on thine Safely he shall lead and guide thee, On thy path his light shall shine; Written there, his promise see, "As thy days, thy strength shall be."

Troubles, dangers, may assail thee, Rough and thorny be thy way; But that promise cannot fail thee, God himself shall be thy stay. By his spirit he shall teach thee, How thy need is all supplied, That no evil e'er can reach thee, While the Lord is on thy side. This his lesson-'Learn of me.' "As thy days, thy strength shall be."

"Strength in weakness;" now while pressing Onward to the promised land; To the endless years of blessing Evermore at God's right hand. Till within the home of glory, Purchased by thy Saviour's love, Thou shalt tell the wondrous story How he led thy steps above. Then, adoring, shall be seen, "As thy days, thy strength hath been.

Hope Beyond, BY MRS. A. N. STOW.

Sometimes when heart and flesh are weary

Lord.

We fain would fig away and be at rest; How long the journey for these tired feet! Yet Love and Wisdom surely kn weth

Sometimes when friends deceive and hopes depart,

And gathering darkness hides the rising sun;

We long to reach the land that hath no night-

The fearful conflict past, the victory won!

O blessed, blessed hope, that cheers our way Through desert, darkness, danger and defeat! How can we drain the cup our lips do press How bear the burden in the noon-day heat. Did not the precious promise cheer us on,

'As in thy day, e'en so thy strength shall Not e'en a sparrow is by Me forgot'-Then how forgot whom 'Christ, the Son, makes free? So will we trust Thee, Lord of earth and imprisonment and has consigned not recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support it recitations the meeting came to a pasture travelling round and round that effect and we would support the round travellin close all having enjoyed themselves in a circle. Hour after hour he immensely. kept up his tramp, tho h entirely mand."

free to go and come as he pleased. This shows the force of habit. For twenty years he had been daily harnessed to the end of of a long sweep, and traveled in just such a circuit until too stiff and blind for further service; then a kind master The last time I was at home my litgave him his time and a good pas- the boy stood by me to say with a ture. Twenty years of study industry had made work a necessity. For a moment I was as happy as he How when life was all holiday; here in the thought, and then the cloud choice on his old round. Habits, good or bad cling to us. I nearer the time when he will go out remember what a blustering winter on the streets of a city that opens more morning it was when Allen resolute-ly buttoned his overcoat up to his does to make him a devil than it ly buttoned his overcoat up to his

a brother medical student.

decidedly, "I was brought up to boy should be in danger "In a hurry?" attend church, and I should as soon think of going without my breakfast broken? how many more babies be the best habits a youth can form. and a great safeguard amidst the temptations of a city, to attend the house of God.

The habit of patient industry is a grand one to form very early, for all of one's success in life must hinge compromises, before this Christian' upon it. "The idle soul shall suffer people will stand shoulder to shoulder hunger.

There are bad habits, too, which and home and country cry; "Cowseem to blend into one another as ards, out of the way! This is a battle naturally as the waters of the brook to the death, and may God defend the mingle with those of the river. right!" Idlers love the saloons and the shady porches of old tavern stands, and the company they meet there. They fall an easy prey to the rumseller; and when the habit of tasting his samples is once formed, it is not often broken. All manhood goes down with it as into an awfur whirlpool. How bappy a boy should be who finds a good habit of any kind growing stronger every day! It is easy for one to see himself just how he stands, if he will only look sharply medium of Small's pen maxims of at his goings and coming, and see with what feelings he goes about his daily duties. "He that hath clean a permanent place in humorous lithands shall be stronger and stronger." One cannot have his hands clean from sin unless the thoughts flow in right channels. They do make channels for themselves, in which they habitually flow, just as surely as the water courses. - Youth's World.

The Question of Compensation.

The New York Observer, in an editorial with the above heading, commenting upon the liquor-dealers' claim for compensation says:

to pass a law which shall work in- otherwise pass unheeded. jury to any honorable business without providing for compensation to Beecher, Rev. Dr. Barker says: the injured parties. It is right here, "Whenever he came among ne, he however, that the issue is made with | brought June sunshine and mi the liquor-traffic. It is admitted and made even desponding and everywhere to be a business that de- surly men feel that a fuller and mands restriction or regulation, and warmer summer, 'the Kingdom of for this purpose our license laws are Heaven, itself was 'at hand." That framed. If a State can rightly en- is genial christianity. force local option, high license, or Mr. Small belongs to a witty any form of license, it seems clear family. He has a brother connected enough that it may go farther if it with Armoy Knox's and "Fat Conchoses and abolish the liquo:-busi- tributor's" Texas Siftings, a paper ness altogether. It might be justly which has had phenomenal success claimed, we suppose, that all laws in the field of humorous literature. that tend to restrict the sale of Mr. Frank A. Small is the present liquor are damaging to the liquor- representative of that popular paper seller. Local option and high license certainly have more or less that affect.

Onco a lmitting that a State has a right to sincum ceribe, the hypothesis of that proposed in England, and like his distinguished brother, he takes a deep interest in the welfare of other people.

Under the date of 48 Porten Road. right to sincumscribe the business at Kensington W. London, Eng., Sept. all cilitis difficult to see where it 27th, 1887. he writes "While at Yalding in Kent yesterday, I met Walding in Kent yesterday, I met on The liquor-traffic now stands Prof. S. Williams, Head Master of efore the law in the same light as the Cleaves Endowed school. In does the sale of poisonous drugs, sub- the course of conversation about ject to the same kind of limitations. America, Professor Williams re-And if limited at all, who shall say marked that Warner's safe curc had where the limit may be drawn? No been of great benefit to his wife. who reasonable person will dispute the had been troubled with a disordered fact that the liquor-traffic is not only liver. Warner's safe cure (an highly injurious to public morals but American preparation) was all she detrimental in many ways to the had taken, and she had experienced commercial interests of a community none of her old trouble for some It entails vast burdens upon the months past. State in the way of criminal expendi- Mrs Annie Jenness Miller, editor tures and the maintenance of work- of New York Dress, and a very houses and asylums filled with the popular woman in the fashionable victims of the liquor habit. A de- world, says in her own magazine for mand for compensation comes with very poor grace from a business that only medicine I ever take or recomplished the compensation of the compensation comes with the compensation of the compensation comes with the compensation of the compensation of the compensation comes with the compensation compensatio is costing the country every year its mend. In every instance it gives millions upon millions of dollars, to new energy and vitality to all my say nothing of the loss it causes in the ruin and degradation of men. When the lies When the liquor power has footed great remedy is "peculiarly effective of the bills above of the bills above

Cowards out of the Way

Cowards may cry; "You are gowas no holiday; so he kept on, from came; every inch he grows taller, every day he grows older, brings chin and drew on his fleecy gloves. my head and asked God to give me "You are not going to church such a morning as this, Allen?" said stand in the front of the fight with my fellow-workers, and assist in freeing "To be sure I am," said the other this nation from this curse before my

How many more hearts must be starved? how many more women must have the light of love and hope taken out of their lives? how many more fathers, and husbands, and sons must be offered up on the altar of this devilish license system, and other and for wife and babies and friends

SAM SMALL'S BROTHER.

WHY DID GOD MAKE SO MUCH OUT DOORS ? TWO WOMEN'S EXPERIENCES.

"Sam Small, Evangelist!"

The proverbial philosophy of "Oli Si," the venerable plantation darkey, who gave to the world through the worldly wisdom, clothed in a verbiage of irresistible humor, has found erature.

Great surprise was shown when it was announced that he, having been converted under the ministrations of Sam Jones," would become an evangelist.

At first thought, a humorist in the pulpit seems incongruous. It is really so.

No doubt the mere buffoon attempting to turn men's hearts to solemn truths would meet with only contempt. But truth is not hidden in gloom. Genuine humor frequently illustrates and fastens in the "Of course the State has no right mind bits of wisdom that would

In his eulogy of Henry Ward

by merit, not by prejudice