Evicted.

The Collins family has been evicted from their home, the said home was in Whitman Hawes' building in St. Mary's, over Edgecomb's dry goods store. The family has been a source of great annoyance to the families living in the neighbourhood. On Wednesday night great was the strife. So much noise was kept up all night that the slumbers of the neighbours were disturbed. Mrs. Collins report says, knocked her husband down stairs and bruised him badly. She also in some way inflicted a wound in his head. On Thursday afternoon Sheriff Hawthorne visited the scene of the dis-turbance and at the bidding of Mr. Hawes he placed the household effects of the family out in the street. QUEEN OF THE VIOLIN.—Madame Cam-illa Urso, the great violinist will give a performance in the City Hall on the eve-ning of July 26th. She may possibly play two nights. Madame Urso is highly spoken of by the leading New York pa-pers and certainly merits a good recep-tion by the people of Fredericton.

The New York Commercial Advertiser of Jan. 20th, 1883, says of Madame Urso: "The chief attraction of yesterday's public rehearsal of Mr. Thoma's sixth symphony concert was again Madame Camilla Urso, who had selected Mendel-sohn's violin concerto for this occasion, which she played with her usual brilliant execution and highly poetical interpreta-tion. Since her return to New York, Madame Urso has played three composi-tions as distinctly different from each other as they possibly can be, Rubin-stein's great, thoroughly characteristic concerto, Beethoven's concerto, one of the compositions which mark the acme of the classical school, and yesterday, Mendelssohn's conception, one of the choicest flowers of the romantic period. Each of these remarkable works Camilla Urso has rendered with admirable con-ception of the composer's intentions, and yet with an amount of individuality that made every bar she played interesting."

Police Court.

Dommon Day rejoicings and attendan circumstances brought quite a harvest of offenders into the clutches of His Honor Police Magi-istrate Marsh. Between Sat-urday night and Tuesday morning seven drunks had been entered and two were sent to jail for drunkenness. A man named Case was sentenced to 30 days jail for re-isteing the Police.

On Wednesday morning several civic cases were post-poned until later, in order to make way for the hearing of a complaint of assault. A complaint was laid by Frank Thompson of Nashwaaksis against Messrs Daniel, Edward, and John Hodgins and John McBean. Thompson and Cowie appeared as witnesses for the prosecution. Lawyer Freeze appeared as counsel for the defence.

Frank Thompson sworn gave his testi-mony as follows. I reside in Parish of Douglas. On Tuesday night about ten o'clock I in company with John Cowie were going over the Fredericton bridge towards St. Mary's. When about two spans from the other side I met the prisoners. They said something to us. We did not reply. They then turned and assaulted us. John Hodgins struck me first. Either John McBean or Edward Hodgins was with him. We got away from the four men and ran. I ran to-wards St. Mary's. I do not know where Cowie went.

Cross examined by Lawyer Freeze. It was a fine night. I had been in town and was going home. I was on the side-walk of the bridge as were also the pris-oners. We had passed the prisoners perhaps ten feet when they turned upon us. John Hodgins struck me first in the head, I stood awhile helping Cowie. I then ran towards St. Mary's. At that end of the bridge I met Jas. Robinson and went back to town with him in order to have the prisoners arrested. I could tell the fellow who struck me because I have his hat. He broke my hat all to pieces, and I grabbed his. There was a general fight in town. I was in it. The prisoners were also engaged in it as were also William Seery and Arthur Ward.

John Cowie was next called. He said. I live in Parish of Douglas. I was with Thompson on Tuesday night at the time he mentioned. We met five persons on the sidewalk. They spoke. We did not. They seized us and told us to speak. We got away from them and walked on pretty fast. They followed and assaulted us. I think they all acted together. They struck me on the eye, on the forehead and on the side of the head. They pressed me against the posts of the bridge and when I cried, "enough" they let me go. I then came towards town and climbed up on one of the chords of the bridge and waited until the prisoners went by. Then I came down and went home. On being cross examined, Cowie said he was posi-tive that the prisoners were the men who had assaulted him.

John Hodgins one of the prisoners was next called and sworn. He said: I live in Tay Creek. Last evening I left St. Mary's a little after 9 o'clock. We met two young men. I could not say that Thompson and Cowie were the men. I said 'good evening' to them. They made no reply but as I turned around, one of them struck me. I think it was Thomp-son. I am not sure. I struck at him; but I could not tell whether I hit him or not.

Cross examined by Magistrate Marsh. Hodgins was asked whether there was any one else with him beside his three com-panion prisoners. He said there was but could not remember his name. On being reminded by the court that he was under oath, his memory quickened and he said that the man's name was Geo. McDonald. He was from the Covered Bridge, Nash-waak. A fellow named John Clark also was with them.

After all the evidence was in, the pris-oners were addressed by the Police Magi-istrate in scathing terms, and each had the utmost penalty of the law imposed upon them, viz., $20 fine or two months jail. Each had also to pay $1 cost.

As another charge, that of being drunk and disorderly, had been laid against the same prisoners, they were held over until afternoon.

At 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon this case was brought on, when all four pleaded guilty to the second charge and were fined $8 each or 30 days jail.

The next case was that of Herbert Mc-Intyre, colored. He was accused by James Farrel Indian Commissioner of pro-curing liquor for some Indians. After Mr Farrel's evidence was heard, the case was adjourned until Friday at 11 o'clock a. m. On that day it was again adjourned until next Friday.

Yesterday morning a man named Carson charged Charles Nason of assaulting him and stealing his watch. Nason plead-ed guilty to the charge of assault. Carson's viasge also bore plain testimony that an assault had been committed upon it. To the charge of stealing the watch however, Nason pleaded "not guilty." Carson was placed on the stand and give his statement. On being asked by the Police Magistrate if he was sober at the time the theft was committed, he said he could not say he was sober. Then the next question was "where did you get your liquor?" this Carson could not re-member. His memory seemed to be very bad as he could not even tell where he got his first glass. His evidence about the theft of the watch was thrown out as worthless after his evident false swearing with regard to the purchase of the liquor. Nason was allowed to go on payment of $2 fine and $1 costs for the assault.
