

Miscellaneous.

MATIMONY.

The man must lead a happy life Who is directed by his wife; Who's free from matrimonial chains Is sure to suffer for his pains.

Adam could find no solid peace Until he saw a woman's face; When Eve was given for a mate Adam was in a happy state.

In all the female heart appears Truth, darling of a heart sincere; Hypocrisy, deceit and pride, Ne'er known in woman to reside.

What tongue is able to unfold
The worth in woman we behold;
The falsehoods that in woman dwell Is almost imperceptible.

Cursed be the foolish man, I say,
Who will not yield to woman's sway;
Who changes from his singleness Is sure of perfect blessedness.

Read the 1st and 3rd, 2nd and 4th Lines together of each verse.

HYMN OF THE HARVESTERS.

We gather them in—the bright green leaves, With our scythe and rakes to-day, And the mow grows big, as the pitcher Heaves

His lifts in the sweltering hay Oh! a field! for the mower's scythe Hath a ring as of destiny, Sweeping the earth of its burthen lithe, As it sung in wrathful glee.

We gather them in—the nodding plumes Of the yellow and bearded grain And the flash of our scythes light illumines Our march o'er the vanquished plains Anon we come with the steed-drawn cur—The cunning of modern laws;
And the acres stoop to its changing jar,
As it reeks its hungry jaws.

We gather them in—the mellow fruits From the shrub, the vine and tree, With their russet and golden and purple tints To garnish our treasury And each has a juicy treasure stored All anath to its tainted rind, To cheer our guests at the social board, When we leave our cares behind.

We gather them in—this goodly store,
But not with miser's gush, For the Great All Father we adore Hath but given it in trust;
All our work of death is but for life,
In the wintry days to come—Then a blessing upon the reaper's strife, And a shout at this Harvest Home.

A CRACKED COMMANDMENT.

We heard a suggestive expression related The other day of a very little girl who was taken by her mother into a shop where a tempting basket of oranges stood exposed for sale. While her mother was engaged in another part of the room, the little one fastened her eyes on the fruit, and nursed the temptation in her heart till it grew too strong to be resisted and she hid one of the oranges under her apron and walked quickly away. But conscience remonstrated so strongly, that after a little reflection, she walked up quickly back and as slyly replaced the orange in the basket. Again the forbidden fruit, out of her possession, presented its tempting side, and again she yielded.
After a sharper conflict than before, conscience gained a second victory, and the almost stolen orange was again and finally restored. With a saddened countenance she walked home with her mother, and when they were alone, burst into tears exclaiming, "Oh mother, I've cracked one of the Commandments! I didn't break it—indeed I didn't break it, Mother—quite—but I am sure I cracked it."—Examiner.

AN IMPATIENT JURYMAN.—An Arkansas

correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune gives the following as authentic: You are fond of cracking jokes at the expense of Arkansas; now here is one on your State, and absolutely true. I got it from an eye witness:

The District Court in one of your northern parishes was in session—'twas the first day of the court; time after dinner. Lawyers and others had dined and were sitting out before the hotel, and a long, lank, unaccompanied countryman came up and unceremoniously made himself one of 'em, and remarked: "Gentlemen, I wish you would go on with this court, for I want to go home—I left Betsy looking out." "Ah," said one of the lawyers pray, sir, what detains you at court?"

Why, sir," said the countryman, "I'm fetched here as a jury, and they say if I go home they will have to find me, and they motu do that as I live a good piece."

What jury are you on?" asked a lawyer.
What jury?
Yes, what jury. Is it Grand or traverse jury?"

Grand or traverse jury?" dad-fetched if I know."

Well," said the lawyer, "did the judge charge you?"

Well, squire, said he, "the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and kinder wastes it over the crowd, gin us a talk but I don't know whether he charged anything or not."

The crowd broke up in a roar of laughter, and the sheriff called court.

TOPE.—What a great waste of time in this world. It would require a still greater waste to find another word in the English language that will form such an Anagrammatic Palindrome as the word time.

T I M E
I T E M
M E T
E M I T

It is made into four different English and Latin words—can be read from right to left up and down—and still read the same words.

THE BEWILDERED PUPIL.—In a country school, the dominie was giving his lesson with a good admonisher in the shape of a cane in his right hand. He asked a young hopeful —"Who created the heavens and the earth?"

The lad not being prepared with the reply, the preceptor asked in a louder voice, at the same time raising his admonisher in a threatening manner, "Who created the heavens and the earth?"

The devoted head of the enchanted pupil, at the call of the foulest depths of the cart, the bright prospect, respectively collected business that of a Bookseller, was thriving and prosperous. My wife and only daughter were

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to the large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR DOUBLOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSP-PSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, RASH ON ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of these many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcers, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtues that it is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, States-
