Ganong has failed to materialize and

Mr. Ganong's friends to-night are laying their heads together in a final effort to avert the defeat which is promised their

In Wakefield, Brighton, Aberdeen, Kent, and Wilmot, there will be increased

CAMPBELLTON, N.B., Nov. 1.-The | place his majority in that part of the closing days of the campaign have made constituency at 150, while the Liberals clearer than ever the absurdity of the Conservative claim that they expect to carry this constituency. It is now apparent that Mr. Reid will have a majority of at least 500 over the Tory can didate, Mr. Mott. In every parish the indications are more favourable than they were in 1900 and the Liberals expeet to carry this town, which is Mr.

Mott's home, by a good majority. In Dalhousie, Balmoral and the lower parishes of the county, the Conservatives admit that it is a one-sided fight against them. Mr. Mott has not developed the strength that was shown by the Tory candidate, Mr. McAlister, in the last general election, and many bets deposit. The estimate of at least not less than five hundred majority is therefore, a very conservative one.

A THOUSAND MAJORITY

BATHURST, N.B., Nov. 1 .- The camaign has been quieter than usual owing to the fact that even the most earnest Conservatives admit that it is only a question of a majority for the Liberal candidates, Mr. O. Turgeron, over Mr. Blanchard, whom he defeated in 1900 by nearly 1,000 votes. No one expects Mr. Blanchard to save his deposit in this election. Gloucester can be counted upon as absolutely sure for the Liberals.

NORTHUMBERLAND WILL BE CLOSE.

NEWCASTLE, N.B., Nov. 1.—The idea that has been so diligently spread by the Conservative press outside this county that Mr. James Robinson, the Conserva tive candidate, would have an easy vic-tory, is ridiculed here, where the workers on both sides understand that the campaign, while very close, is proving more favourable every day for W. S. oggie, the nominee of the Liberal party It must be remembered that Mr. Robinson has never been through an election before in which the Liberal party has had the support of its friends outside the constituency, for in 1900 it was known that the Hon. A. G. Blair was not only favourable to Mr. Robinson's return, but used all the power at his command to obtain his election. A candidate was put in the field by the Libe ral party, yet many of the strongest Liberals in the county were induced by Mr. Blair to support the Tory nomince. so that Mr. Morrissey's defeat in 1900 was rather due to this fact, than to any opularity of Mr. Robinson's or to any onservative majority in the county this election things have been entire-altered and Mr. W. S. Loggie has be aind him in the present contest the orce of liberalism not only in Northum perland, but of the party outside. The pest informed men in the Liberal ranks confidently predict a victor for their Hay, the Liberal candidate, will have andidate, and while the contest is a lat least 500 majority in the parishes of close one, the odds are certainly in fav-our of Mr. W. S. Loggie, who will be returned by a majority of probably 250. extensive business interests, united with the zeal and diligence which he has his constituency at Fredericton, have all combined to this result. There is prob-ably not a man in the county of Northumberland more respected by all classes and parties than Mr. W. S. Loggie, the next member for the county in the parliament of Canada. A THREE CORNERED FIGHT.

RICHIBUCTO, N.B., Nov. 1 .- The atthe Liberal vote by the nomination of Mr. Pascal Herbert as an independent candidate has utterly failed. Not only is the election of Hon. O. J. LeBlane conceded by both Liberals and Conservaives, but his majority will be at least as great as in 1900, when he defeated George V. McInerney, his present op-ponent, by over 600 votes. The humour of the situation from the Liberal stand point is that this result has been helped by the running of a third candidate, for it is certain Mr. Herbert will draw his vote more largely from Mr. McIner-ney than from Mr. LeBlanc. Kent will send Mr. McInerney back to St. John and will send O. J. LeBlanc to Ottawa to represent the constituency.

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 1.-The situaion in the province of New Brunswick an be safely summed up on the eve of the election as more favourable than it was in 1900. The returns from every onstituency indicate that the Conservatives will not earry more than three seats in the province. In every constiuency the closing days of the campaign ave shown a marked tendency towards iberal gains. Here in Westmoreland the election of the Hon. H. R. Emmer son is secure beyond peradventure, and the report published by the Tory or-gans in St. John, that there is a chance to defeat the minister is treated as a campaign joke in Westmoreland. The iberal News is safe in stating that Mr. Emmerson's majority will not be less than 800. Moncton and parish will prob-
